

Contents

List of figures	x
List of tables	xi
List of abbreviations	xii
Sources	xiii
Acknowledgement	xv
Foreword	xvi
Preface	xviii
Introduction	xix
 SECTION 1
Geography in the school curriculum	1
1 Geography: changes and challenges ASHLEY KENT	3
2 School Geography in England 1991–2001: the politics and practicalities of curriculum change ELEANOR RAWLING	21
3 Constructing school geographies JOHN MORGAN	40
 SECTION 2
Geography in (and out of) the classroom	61
4 The enquiry-based approach to teaching and learning Geography MICHAEL NAISH, ELEANOR RAWLING AND CLIVE HART	63
5 Curriculum planning and course development: a matter of professional judgement MARGARET ROBERTS	70

6	Continuity and progression	83
	TREVOR BENNETTS
7	Teaching styles and strategies	93
	DAVID BALDERSTONE
8	Differentiation in teaching and learning Geography	113
	JEFF BATTERSBY
9	Using assessment to support learning	123
	DAVID LAMBERT
10	Raising attainment in Geography: prospects and problems	134
	DAVID LEAT
11	Issues in ICT and Geography	148
	DAVID HASSELL
12	Fieldwork in the school Geography curriculum: pedagogical issues and development	160
	ASHLEY KENT AND NICK FOSKET
13	Inclusion in Geography	182
	MAGGIE SMITH
14	Language and learning in Geography	200
	GRAHAM BUTT
SECTION 3
	Geography for the twenty-first century	213
15	The Geo Visions project	215
	ROGER CARTER, ROGER ROBINSON, SCOTT SINCLAIR AND PROJECT MEMBERS
16	Environmental change and sustainable development	224
	ALAN REID
17	Citizenship and geographical education	245
	EDITED BY JOHN MORGAN, BASED ON WORK BY PAUL MACHON
18	Towards a critical school Geography	255
	JOHN HUCKLE
19	Geography Matters in a globalized world	266
	DOREEN MASSEY

20	Is Geography history?	273
	RITA GARDNER AND LORRAINE CRAIG

SECTION 4

	Research, geography and continuing professional development	281
21	The role of research in supporting teaching and learning	283
	MARGARET ROBERTS
22	Understanding how geographical educators learn in their work: an important basis for their professional development	293
	ROD GERBER
23	Action research for a new professionalism in geography education	306
	MICHAEL NAISH
	Index	323

20	Is Geography history?	273
	RITA GARDNER AND LORRAINE CRAIG

SECTION 4

	Research, geography and continuing professional development	281
--	--	------------

21	The role of research in supporting teaching and learning	283
	MARGARET ROBERTS

22	Understanding how geographical educators learn in their work: an important basis for their professional development	293
	ROD GERBER

23	Action research for a new professionalism in geography education	306
	MICHAEL NAISH

	Index	323
--	--------------	-----