

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction

1. War, Discourse, and Peace 3

ADAM HODGES

PART ONE Justifying War

2. "New World Coming": Narratives of the Future in US Post-Cold War National Security Discourse 23

PATRICIA L. DUNMIRE

3. The Generic US Presidential War Narrative: Justifying Military Force and Imagining the Nation 47

ADAM HODGES

4. The Discursive Battlefield of the "War on Terror": Enabling Strategies for Garnering Public Support in the Rhetoric of George W. Bush and Osama Bin Laden 69

ANNA PODVORNAIA

5. World of the Impolitic: A Critical Study of the British WMD Dossier 95

ADITI BHATIA

PART TWO Negotiating Military Deployment

6. Culture Clash: Framing Peacekeeping and Its Role in a Canadian Context 119

JANIS L. GOLDIE

7. Promising without Speaking: Military Realignment and Political Promising in Japan 145

CHAD NILEP

PART THREE Responding to Armed Conflict

8. "Everyone Has Their Particular Part to Play": Commensuration in the Northern Irish and Palestinian Victims' Rights Movements 171

CANDLER HALLMAN

9. Reasonable Affects: Moroccan Family Responses to Mediated Violence	193
BECKY SCHULTHIES

PART FOUR Promoting Peace

10. Performing Peace: The Framing of Silence in a Quaker Vigil	225
---	------------

ANNA MARIE TRESTER

11. Narrating War and Peace at the Battle Ruins: Okinawan Tourism-Activism Discourses	249
--	------------

TAKU SUZUKI

Contributors	279
--------------	-----

Index	281
-------	-----