

Brief Contents

1 The Globalization of International Relations	21	Seeking the Collective Good NATO in Afghanistan	95
About the Authors	21	Other Alliances	96
2 Realist Theories	23	Regional Alignment	98
A Note on Nomenclature	25	Strategy	99
3 Liberal and Social Theories	26	Statecraft	110
4 Foreign Policy	35	Policy Perspectives Prime Minister of India, Narendra Modi	100
5 International Conflict	36	Rationality in International Relations	102
Core Principles	37	The Prisoner's Dilemma	103
6 Military Force and Terrorism	37	Chapter Review	105
IR as a Field of Study	43	Let's Debate the Issue Can the United States and China Coexist Peacefully?	108
7 International Organizations, Law, and Human Rights	44	Liberal and Social Theories	110
Actors and Influences	44	The Waning of War	111
8 International Trade	47	Liberal Theories	112
Nonstate Actors	47	Kant and Peace	112
9 Global Finance and Business	48	Liberal Institutionalism	113
Globalization	50	International Regimes	115
10 International Integration	52	Collective Security	117
The Evolving International System	56	Seeking the Collective Good Great Nations Pay — Their Bills	118
11 Environment and Population	56	Public Opinion and International Relations	119
The Cold War, 1945–1990	59	The United States and the United Nations	119
12 The North-South Gap	63	The Democratic Peace	120
Public Opinion and International Relations	68	Social Theories	121
13 International Development	69	Identities and Ideas Matter	123
Let's Debate the Issue Globalization: Vanishing State Power?	72	Policy Perspectives President of Georgia, Giorgi Margvelashvili	125
14 Postscript	74	Postmodernism	126
2 Realist Theories	74	Marxism	127
Realism	75	Peace Studies	129
Power	77	Gender Theories	132
Defining Power	77	Why Gender Matters	132
Estimating Power	78	The Masculinity of Realism	133
Elements of Power	78	Gender in War and Peace	135
The International System	80	Women in IR	136
Anarchy and Sovereignty	80	Difference Feminism Versus Liberal Feminism?	139
Balance of Power	82	Postmodern Feminism	140
Great Powers and Middle Powers	84	Chapter Review	142
Power Distribution	85	Let's Debate the Issue Legislative Quotas for Women: An Effective Tool for Equality?	144
Hegemony	86	4 Foreign Policy	146
The Great Power System, 1500–2000	89	Making Foreign Policy	147
Alliances	91	Models of Decision Making	147
Purposes of Alliances	91
NATO	93
Public Opinion and International Relations
Public Opinion and ICAN	94		