

Table of Contents

| | |
|---|-----------|
| INTRODUCTION | 1 |
| CHAPTER ONE: WHY BUSINESSES NEED MEDIATION | 9 |
| Potential Benefits of Mediation | 9 |
| Potential Benefit #1: Continuing control by the parties over dispute resolution process and product, as contrasted with the risks and uncertainties of litigation or arbitration. | 10 |
| Potential Benefit #2: Customisation of the process for managing and resolving the dispute | 12 |
| Potential Benefit #3: Confidentiality | 14 |
| Potential Benefit #4: Communications enhanced | 15 |
| Potential Benefit #5: Cultural, cross-border bridge | 16 |
| Potential Benefit #6: Commercial realities considered | 16 |
| Potential Benefit #7: Cost savings, cycle time reduction | 17 |
| Potential Benefit #8: Creative, durable solutions | 17 |
| Potential Benefit #9: Continuing relationships maintained or enhanced | 18 |
| Potential Benefit #10: Cost and risk low as compared to potential benefits | 19 |
| FAQ: Frequently-Asked Questions about Mediation | 19 |
| CHAPTER TWO: THE MEDIATION PROCESS | 23 |
| Finding a Mediator | 23 |
| Court appointment | 24 |
| Selection by the parties | 24 |
| Obtaining information about prospective mediators | 26 |
| Qualities that differentiate mediators | 26 |
| The roles of the mediator in resolving the dispute | 29 |
| What to Expect in and How to Prepare for Mediation | 30 |
| Preparation: planning to achieve business goals | 32 |
| Common process steps | 35 |
| Preliminary matters | 35 |
| Opening (joint) session | 36 |
| Separate meetings (private caucus) | 37 |
| Negotiation tasks for parties (in joint or individual sessions) | 38 |
| Impasses and failure to reach agreement | 40 |
| Concluding the process | 44 |
| Confidentiality Issues | 47 |
| Mediated Solutions to Business Problems | 50 |

CHAPTER THREE: MEDIATION AS A PART OF A STRATEGY FOR RESOLVING BUSINESS DISPUTES

59

| | |
|--|----|
| Corporate Leadership — Key to Dispute Planning | 59 |
| Management Analysis of Disputes — Identifying the Best Dispute Resolution Option | 59 |
| Mediation in the Landscape of Dispute Resolution | 62 |
| Litigation's features | 62 |
| Negotiation's promise, often thwarted | 63 |
| Arbitration's contribution | 64 |
| ADR's potential benefits | 65 |
| Mediation | 66 |
| Early Neutral Evaluation; Expert Adjudication | 66 |
| Mini-Trials | 68 |
| Integrating Mediation into Corporate Dispute Resolution Policies and Practices | 70 |
| The role of pledges and commitments | 70 |
| Case assessment and systems design | 71 |
| Contractual implementation | 73 |
| Suggesting mediation in matters actively in dispute | 78 |

CHAPTER FOUR: CURRENT AND PROSPECTIVE USE OF MEDIATION IN EUROPE

81

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----|
| EU Directive | 81 |
| English Experience | 83 |
| Expression of Interest by Businesses | 83 |

APPENDICES

| | |
|--|--|
| Appendix A: Experience and Perspectives on Mediation in Belgium, by Luc Demeyere | |
| Appendix B: Mediation in France, by Pierre Raoul-Duval and Alexandra Munoz | |
| Appendix C: Arbitration, Mediation and Alternative Dispute Resolution in Germany, by Christian Duve | |
| Appendix D: ADR in Italy, by Giuseppe De Palo | |
| Appendix E: Mediation, Conflict Management and Corporate Governance: A Business View From The Netherlands, by A. Jan A.J. Eijsbouts | |
| Appendix F: Mediation in the U.K. International Perspective, by Ronald Bradbeer | |
| Appendix G: Benefit and Practice of Hierarchical ADR Clauses, Lessons Learned from International Experience, by Marc Frilet | |
| Appendix H: Multi-Tiered Dispute Resolution Clauses, by Bernardo M. Cremades | |
| Appendix I: CPR European Corporate Survey | |

155