

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Part I. The nature and function of Private International Law	1
Section 1. Introduction	1
Section 2. Rome and beyond	3
Section 3. The period after the division of the Roman Empire—per- sonality of laws	3
Section 4. Feudalism and the revival of Roman Law	4
Section 5. Feudalism	4
Section 6. Italy—the Legists	5
Section 7. The doctrine of the Statutists	7
The French school
The historical background of the French doctrine
The Statutist doctrine in Italy—14th Century
Section 8. The French school in the 16th Century—Dumoulin and D'Argentré	12
Section 9. The Dutch school—Comity	13
The theoretical basis of Huber's doctrine
Section 10. The subsequent development of the doctrine of Huber— England	17
Section 11. The United States	19
Section 12. Modern Private International Law—Wächter, Savigny	20
Section 13. Modern doctrines of territoriality or pseudo-territoriality— acquired rights	23
Section 14. Sociological neo-statutists	28
Section 15. Wächter redivivus—Ehrenzweig	30
Section 16. Conflict of laws and the American Constitution	32
Section 17. Governmental interests as conflict resolving factors— Currie—Neo-statutists	36
Section 18. "Result selecting" principles—Cavers	39
Section 19. The international use of the new doctrines	41
Section 20. Conclusions	44
Notes to part I	46
Part II. The relationship between Public and Private International Law	63
Section 21. The influence of Public International Law upon domestic Private International Law	63
Legislative jurisdiction according to Public International Law and choice of law rules
Section 22. Private International Law as part of Public International Law—choice of law before international tribunals	67
Section 23. Recognition and the application of foreign law	74
Section 24. Scrutiny of, and refusal to apply, the law and to respect the executive acts of a foreign recognized government	77
Section 25. Conclusions	80
Notes to part II	81

Part III. The structure and interpretation of rules of Private International Law 93

Section 26. Structure 93

Operative facts and connecting factors

Section 27. Interpretation. 94

Interpretation of connecting factors

Interpretation of operative facts—characterization

Section 28. Spatially conditioned internal rules 99

Section 29. Transposition, substitution and adaptation 102

Section 30. Renvoi 104

Section 31. Preliminary question 107

Section 32. Conflict of laws in time 113

Notes to part III 115

Part IV. Conclusions 125

Bibliography 127

Table of cases 129

Index 139