

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword	v
Summary Table of Contents	ix
Table of Contents	xi
Table of Abbreviations	xxvii

Chapter 1

Arbitration as a Dispute Settlement Mechanism	1
1. What is Arbitration?	2
1.1. Definitions of Arbitration	2
1.2. Fundamental Features of Arbitration	3
(a) An alternative to national courts	4
(b) A private mechanism for dispute resolution	4
(c) Selected and controlled by the parties	4
(d) Final and binding determination of parties' rights and obligations	5
1.3. Arbitration Compared with National Courts	5
2. What Arbitration is Not	9
3. Other Alternative Dispute Resolution Mechanisms	9
3.1. Definitive Determination	10
3.2. Mechanisms Requiring Parties' Agreement for Resolution of Dispute	13

Chapter 2

Regulatory Framework for Arbitration	17
1. Historical Development of International Arbitration	18
2. International Regulation of Arbitration	19
2.1. Early Efforts to Support International Arbitration	19
2.2. The Geneva Conventions 1923 and 1927	20
2.3. The New York Convention	20
2.4. Other Arbitration Conventions	22
3. Influence of International Arbitration Instruments and Practice	25
3.1. The UNECE and UNECAFE Arbitration Rules	25
3.2. The UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules	26
3.3. The UNCITRAL Model Law and the Development of Modern Arbitration Laws in many Jurisdictions	27
4. Effect of the Regulatory Web	28

Table of Contents

Chapter 3

Forms of Arbitration	31
1. The Principal Forms of Arbitration	32
2. Ad hoc Arbitration	33
2.1. Characteristics of ad hoc Arbitration	33
2.2. Regulating ad hoc Arbitration	34
2.3. Advantages of ad hoc Arbitration	35
3. General Structure of Institutional Arbitration	35
3.1. Characteristics of Institutional Arbitration	36
3.2. Advantages of Institutional Arbitration	36
3.3. International Arbitration Institutions	37
(a) Private international institutions	38
(b) Industry focused and commodity institutions	40
(c) Public international law institutions	41
3.4. Special Purpose Institutions	42
(a) Iran-US Claims Tribunal	42
(b) United Nations Compensation Commission	44
(c) The Claims Resolution Tribunal for Dormant Accounts in Switzerland	46
(d) International Commission on Holocaust Era Insurance Claims	47
3.5. Online Dispute Resolution Institutions	48

Chapter 4

Essential Characteristics of International Commercial Arbitration	49
1. The Meaning of "Commercial"	50
1.1. Importance of the Definition of "Commercial"	50
1.2. "Commercial" in the UNCITRAL Model Law and Model Law Countries	52
1.3. "Commercial" in National Legislation	54
1.4. "Commercial" in Arbitration Rules	54
1.5. "Commercial" in International Conventions	55
2. The Meaning of "International"	57
2.1. Relevant Criteria	58
(a) The objective criterion	58
(b) The subjective criterion	59
(c) The Modern combined criterion	60
2.2. Nationality of Arbitration: "International" Arbitration in International Conventions	62
3. Transnational and Delocalised Arbitration	64

Chapter 5

Juridical Nature of Arbitration	71
1. Juridical Nature of Arbitration	71
1.1. The Jurisdictional Theory	74
1.2. The Contractual Theory	77
1.3. The Mixed or Hybrid Theory	79
1.4. The Autonomous (sui juris) Theory	81
2. Interplay of International Commercial Arbitration and National Legal System	82
2.1. Relationship between Arbitration and State Justice System	83
2.2. Arbitration Agreement as a Constitutional Prerequisite	86
3. Human Rights and Arbitration	90
3.1. The Application of Human Rights Law to Arbitration	91
3.2. "Due Process" and Arbitration	95

Chapter 6

Arbitration Agreements – Autonomy and Applicable Law	99
1. Autonomy of the Arbitration Agreement	101
1.1. Separability of the Arbitration Agreement	102
1.2. Effect of Autonomy on the Determination of the Applicable Law	107
2. Law Governing the Arbitration Agreement	108
2.1. Multiplicity of Applicable Rules	109
2.2. Different Stages where the Issue Arises	109
2.3. International Conventions and National Arbitration Laws	111
3. Law Applicable to Formal Validity	112
3.1. Article II New York Convention and the Different National Form Requirements	113
3.2. Scope of Article 7 Model Law and Comparable Provisions	116
3.3. Laws to be applied by Arbitrator	117
4. Law Applicable to Capacity of the Parties	117
5. Law Applicable to Substantive Validity of the Arbitration Agreement	118
5.1. Traditional Conflict of Laws Approaches	118
5.2. Substantive Rule of Private International Law	122
5.3. French Approach	123
5.4. International Arbitration Practice	124

Table of Contents

Chapter 7

Arbitration Agreements – Validity and Interpretation	129
1. Formal Validity of the Arbitration Agreement	130
1.1. Form Requirement: Function and Criticism	131
1.2. Different International and National Rules	133
1.3. Interpretation of the Writing Requirement by Courts and Arbitration Tribunals	135
2. Capacity of the Parties to Enter into an Arbitration Agreement	140
3. Substantive Validity of the Arbitration Agreement	141
3.1. Agreement between the Parties	141
(a) Reference to standard terms and conditions	142
(b) Related agreements	144
(c) Consent by third parties	146
(d) Assignment	147
3.2. Other Factors Affecting the Validity of the Agreement	149
4. Scope and Interpretation of the Arbitration Agreement	150
4.1. Disputes covered by the Arbitration Agreement	151
4.2. Set-off and Counterclaims	153
4.3. Defective Arbitration Clauses	154
5. Effect and Enforcement of the Arbitration Agreement	159
6. Termination and Waiver of the Right to Arbitrate	161

Chapter 8

Drafting of the Arbitration Agreement	165
1. Essential Ingredients of an Arbitration Agreement	167
1.1. The Agreement to Arbitrate	168
1.2. Scope of the Arbitration Agreement	168
1.3. Finality of Awards	170
2. Other Relevant Considerations	170
2.1. The Institution Chosen	171
2.2. The Seat of the Arbitration	172
2.3. Number, Method of Selection and Qualifications of Arbitrators	173
2.4. Language of the Arbitration	174
2.5. Procedure to be followed	174
2.6. Applicable Substantive Rules	175
2.7. Timetable for the Award	175
2.8. Enter Judgment on the Award	176
2.9. Costs of the Arbitration	177
2.10. Confidentiality	177
2.11. Waiver of Sovereign Immunity	177

Table of Contents

3. Ad hoc Arbitrations	178
4. Multiparty Arbitrations	179
5. Multi-Tiered Dispute Resolution	182

Chapter 9

Arbitrability	187
1. Law Applicable to Questions of Arbitrability	188
1.1. International Conventions	189
1.2. National Arbitration Laws	194
1.3. Arbitration Practice	196
2. Substantive Rules on Objective Arbitrability	199
2.1. Antitrust and Competition Laws	201
2.2. Securities Transactions	203
2.3. Insolvency Law	206
2.4. Intellectual Property Rights	209
2.5. Illegality and Fraud	210
2.6. Bribery and Corruption	213
2.7. Investment Contracts relating to Infrastructure and Natural Resources	218
3. Duty to Deal with the Lack of Arbitrability ex Officio	219

Chapter 10

Selection and Appointment of Arbitrators by Parties and Institutions	223
1. Number of Arbitrators	225
1.1. Sole Arbitrator	226
1.2. Three Member Tribunals	227
1.3. Even Number of Arbitrators and Umpires	229
1.4. Five or more Arbitrators	231
2. Selection of Arbitrators	232
2.1. Interviewing Potential Arbitrators	232
2.2. Qualifications	234
2.3. Requirements Imposed by the Parties	235
3. Participants in the Appointment Process	236
3.1. Role of the Parties	237
3.2. Role of Appointing Authorities	239
3.3. Role of National Courts	241
4. Procedures for Appointing Arbitrators	244
4.1. Appointment of a Sole Arbitrator	244
4.2. Appointment of a Three Member Tribunal	248
(a) Party appointed arbitrators	248
(b) Chairman or third arbitrator	251

Table of Contents

5. Limits on the Parties Freedom to Determine the Appointment Process	252
---	-----

Chapter 11

Impartiality and Independence of Arbitrators	255
1. The Arbitrator's Duty of Impartiality and Independence	256
1.1. The Concept of "Impartiality"	258
1.2. The Concept of "Independence"	261
2. Duty of Disclosure	265
3. Special Role of the Party Appointed Arbitrator	271

Chapter 12

Rights and Duties of Arbitrators and Parties	275
1. Contractual Relationship between Parties and Arbitrator	276
2. Obligations of the Arbitrator Owed to the Parties	279
2.1. Settle the Dispute between the Parties	279
2.2. Complete the Mandate	281
2.3. Stay Impartial and Independent	282
2.4. Conduct the Arbitration Fairly and without Undue Delay	282
2.5. Keep the Arbitration Confidential	283
3. Remuneration of Arbitrators	283
3.1. Bases for Remunerating Arbitrators	284
3.2. Fixing the Arbitrator's Remuneration	285
4. Remedies and Sanctions	286
4.1. Removal of the Arbitrator	287
4.2. Challenge of the Award	287
4.3. Action for Damages against the Arbitrator	288
5. Immunity of Arbitrators	288
5.1. Contractual Limitations and the different Arbitration Rules	290
5.2. The Position of the National Arbitration Laws	291
5.3. Scope and Limitations of the Liability of Arbitrators	294
5.4. Liability of Arbitration Institutions	296

Chapter 13

Challenge, Removal and Replacement of Arbitrators	301
1. Challenge of an Arbitrator	302
1.1. Grounds for Challenge	303
1.2. Limitation of the Right to Challenge	307
1.3. Procedure for Challenge	309
(a) Provisions of the Arbitration Rules	309
(b) Provisions of the Arbitration Laws	310
1.4. Challenges after an Award has been Rendered	313

Table of Contents

1.5. Exclusion of the Right to Challenge the Award	315
2. Termination of Arbitrator's Mandate	316
3. Replacement of Arbitrators	318
4. Truncated Tribunals	322
 Chapter 14
Determination of Jurisdiction	329
1. Determination of Jurisdiction by Arbitration Tribunals	330
1.1. Competence-Competence	332
1.2. Separability and other Techniques to Strengthen Arbitrator's Jurisdiction	334
1.3. Form of Decision on Jurisdiction	335
1.4. Review of Arbitrator's Decision by Courts	337
2. Determination of Jurisdiction by a National Court	339
2.1. Actions on the Merits despite an Arbitration Agreement	340
(a) Request for a stay of court proceedings in favour of arbitration	340
(b) "Null and void, inoperative or incapable of performance being performed"	341
(c) Standard of review of arbitration agreement	345
(d) "Referral" to arbitration	350
2.2. Special Actions to Determine Jurisdiction	351
2.3. Actions in Support of Arbitration	353
 Chapter 15
Arbitration and the Courts	355
1. General Approach to Court Involvement	356
2. Specific Areas of Court Involvements	362
2.1. Proceedings Concerning Validity of the Arbitration Agreement	362
2.2. Anti-suit Injunctions	363
(a) Injunctions restraining arbitration proceedings	363
(b) Injunctions restraining parallel court proceedings	364
2.3. The Role of the Court before the Tribunal is Established	367
2.4. Proceedings in relation to the Composition of the Arbitration Tribunal	368
2.5. Court Involvement during the Arbitration Proceedings	368
(a) Governing principles	368
(b) Assistance in the taking evidence	369
(c) Interim relief	370
(d) Extension of time limits	371

Table of Contents

(e) Preliminary determination of questions of law	372
2.6. The Role of the Court Involvement after the Award has been rendered: Challenge, Appeals and Enforcement	373
Chapter 16
Multiparty and Multicontract Arbitration	377
1. Multiparty Arbitration Arising out of a Single Contract	379
1.1. Consent to Multiparty Arbitration	379
1.2. Equal Treatment in the Appointment of Arbitrators	380
1.3. Other Issues	386
2. Multiparty Arbitrations Arising out of Separate or a Series of Contracts	388
2.1. Joinder and Intervention of Third Parties	389
2.2. Consolidation of Different Arbitrations	392
(a) Arbitration agreement	392
(b) Arbitration rules	396
(c) Arbitration laws	397
(d) Other possible consolidation solutions	402
3. Consolidation of Different Arbitrations between the Same Parties	405
4. Guidelines as to the Appropriateness of Multiparty Arbitration	407
5. Problems of Enforcing Awards in Multiparty Arbitration	408
Chapter 17
Determination of Applicable Law	411
1. Choice of Law by the Parties – Party Autonomy	413
1.1. Party Autonomy in Context	413
1.2. Express or Implied Choice of Law	415
1.3. Scope and Subject Matter of the Parties' Choice of Law	417
1.4. Limitations to Party Autonomy	418
(a) Mandatory rules	420
(b) International public policy	422
2. Choice of Law by the Tribunal – Arbitrator's Autonomy	424
2.1. The Relevance of Conflict of Laws Rules	425
2.2. Indirect Determination of Substantive Law via Conflict of Laws Rules	428
(a) Conflict rules of the place of arbitration	428
(b) Conflict rules most closely connected with the subject matter	430
(c) Conflict rules the tribunal considers appropriate	431
(d) Cumulative application of relevant conflict of laws rules	432
(e) General principles of conflict of laws rules	433

Table of Contents

2.3. Direct Determination of Substantive Law	434
(a) Unlimited voie directe	434
(b) Limited voie directe	436
3. Three-Step Method	436
Chapter 18
Applicable Substantive Law	439
1. Proof of Applicable Law	440
1.1. Proof of Law or Non-Legal Standard	441
1.2. Interpretation	444
2. Application of National Law	445
2.1. Ambit of National Law	445
2.2. Application of Several Laws or Standards	448
2.3. Stabilised Law: the Inter-Temporal Problem	449
3. Substantive International and Transnational Rules	451
3.1. Notion of Lex Mercatoria and Transnational Law	453
3.2. Method and Content of Lex Mercatoria in International Arbitration Practice	455
3.3. Principles of International Business	461
(a) INCOTERMS 2000 and Uniform Customs and Practice for Documentary Credits	461
(b) UNIDROIT Principles	462
(c) Convention on the International Sale of Goods	465
3.4. Public International and Supranational Law	465
4. Non-legal Standards	468
4.1. Contract Itself	468
4.2. Amiable Composition and Ex Aequo et Bono	470
4.3. Technical Standards and Quality Arbitration	474
Chapter 19
Arbitration and European Law	475
1. References to the ECJ for Preliminary Rulings	476
2. Application of European Competition Law by Arbitrators	482
2.1. The ECJ Decision in Eco Swiss v Benetton	483
2.2. Arbitrability of Competition Law Disputes	484
2.3. Effect of Concurrent Investigations by the Commission	486
2.4. Ex officio Application of Competition Law by Tribunal	488
2.5. Arbitration in the Area of Merger Control	490
3. Application of Other Provisions of EC Law	490
4. Arbitration and the Judicial Cooperation within the European Union	492
4.1. The Legal Framework of Judicial Cooperation: Brussels Convention and Regulation 44/2001	493

Table of Contents

4.2. The Arbitration Exception and its Relevance	493
4.3. The ECJ Decisions in the Marc Rich and Van Uden Cases	495
4.4. Consequences of these Decisions	497
(a) Proceedings directed at preventing a breach of the arbitration agreement	498
(b) Proceedings in breach of the arbitration agreement	499
4.5. The Effect of Regulation 44/2001 Depends on the Nature of the Issue in Dispute	502
 Chapter 20
Commencement of Arbitration	505
1. Legal Consequences	506
2. Time Limits	507
2.1. Contractual Time Limits	508
2.2. Statutory Time Limits	511
2.3. Date of Commencement	512
2.4. Fulfillment of Pre-Arbitration Procedures	514
3. Documents for Initiating the Arbitration Process	515
3.1. Different Types of Documents and Requirements	515
3.2. Service of Documents and Receipt	518
3.3. Failure to Comply with Requirements	519
 Chapter 21
Arbitration Procedure	521
1. Fixing the Arbitration Procedure	523
1.1. Party Agreement	523
1.2. Arbitrators Fixing the Procedure	524
1.3. Limitations to Procedure Adopted	525
2. Terms of Reference and Procedural Directions	527
2.1. Need for Planning	527
2.2. Terms of Reference	528
2.3. Procedural Directions	531
3. Procedural Issues	532
3.1. Inquisitorial or Adversarial Proceedings?	533
3.2. Timetable, Written Submissions, and Hearings	535
(a) Timetable	535
(b) Hearings or documents only?	535
(c) Written submissions	537
(d) Place(s) of hearing	539
(e) Language of hearing	540
(f) Notices and time limits	541
3.3. Power of Tribunal to Decide Procedural Issues	541

Table of Contents

4. Representation of Parties	542
5. Default Proceedings	544
5.1. Forms of Default	545
5.2. Proceedings in the Absence of one or more Parties	546
6. Expedited Procedures	548

Chapter 22

Taking Evidence in International Arbitration 553

1. Limited Sources and Emerging Uniform Practices	555
1.1. Taking Evidence in Common and Civil Law Procedures and in International Commercial Arbitration	555
1.2. General Principles	557
(a) Party autonomy and tribunal's flexibility	558
(b) Applicable law issues	559
(c) Burden and standard of proof	560
(d) Methods of presenting evidence	561
(e) Admission and probative value	561
(f) Hearings	563
2. Evidentiary Means	564
2.1. Documents	564
(a) Admissibility and timing	565
(b) Production of documents and discovery	566
(c) Copies and translations	569
2.2. Witnesses	570
(a) Admissibility issues	570
(b) Written witness statements	571
(c) Procedure for hearing witness evidence	572
(d) Examination of witnesses	574
2.3. Expert Evidence	575
(a) Tribunal appointed experts	576
(b) Party appointed experts	577
(c) Institutional rules	578
2.4. Site or Subject Matter Inspections	579
3. Assistance of National Courts	579

Chapter 23

Interim and Conservatory Measures 585

1. Grant of Interim Measures by Arbitration Tribunals	587
1.1. General Power to Order Interim Measures	587
(a) The changing approach	588
(b) Arbitrators' authority under national laws	589
(c) International arbitration rules	591

Table of Contents

(d) Implied authority of arbitrators	593
(e) Inherent limits of the arbitrators' powers	594
1.2. Interim Measures which Arbitration Tribunals May Order	595
(a) Measures for the preservation of evidence	595
(b) Measures to regulate and stabilise	596
(c) Measures to secure enforcement	597
(d) Measures intended to provide security for costs	600
(e) Orders for interim payments	602
1.3. Prerequisites for the Grant of Interim Measures	602
1.4. Procedure for Applications for Interim Measures	605
(a) Measures must be requested by a party	606
(b) The tribunal must have jurisdiction	606
(c) The tribunal must hear both parties	606
1.5. Form of and Security for Orders for Interim Measures	608
2. Enforcement of Interim Measures Ordered by Arbitration Tribunals	610
2.1. National Laws to Assist Enforcement of Interim Measures	610
2.2. Applying the Rules for Enforcing Awards to Enforce Orders for Interim Measures	612
2.3. Development of International Rules to Enforce Orders for Interim Measures	614
2.4. Enforcement of Interim Measures Ordered after Hearing only the Party Seeking the Order	615
3. Provisional Measures Ordered by Courts in Support of Arbitration	616
3.1. Effect of the Arbitration Agreement	616
3.2. No Waiver of the Right to Arbitrate	621
4. Concurrent Powers of State Courts and Arbitration Tribunals	621

Chapter 24

Arbitration Award	627
1. Decisions of the Arbitration Tribunal	628
2. Types of Award	632
2.1. Final Award	632
2.2. Partial Award	633
2.3. Interim Award	634
2.4. Award on Agreed Terms	636
2.5. Default Award	637
2.6. Additional Award	637
3. Making of an Award	638
3.1. Time Limits	638
3.2. Majority or Unanimity	639
3.3. Dissenting and Concurring Opinions	641
3.4. Notification and Deposit	642

Table of Contents

4. Content and Form of Award	643
4.1. Content of Award	644
4.2. In Writing and Signed	644
4.3. Place and Date	646
4.4. Reasons	647
5. Reliefs Ordered	649
5.1. Remedies	649
(a) Specific performance	650
(b) Damages	651
(c) Declaratory order	652
(d) Gap-filling and contract adaptation	652
5.2. Decision on Costs	652
5.3. Interest	656
6. Correction and Interpretation of Award	657
6.1. Correction	657
6.2. Interpretation	658
7. Confidentiality and Publication of Awards	660
8. Termination of Proceedings without Award	662
 Chapter 25
Challenges to Award	663
1. Requirements for Challenge	665
1.1. Legal Bases for Challenge	666
1.2. National Courts	667
1.3. Time Limits	671
2. Grounds for Setting Aside	673
2.1. Natural Justice and Legality	673
2.2. Other Grounds under National Laws	677
3. Appeal on a Question of Law	678
4. Consequences of Challenge Claims	680
4.1. Court Rejects Challenges and Upholds Award	680
4.2. Court Accepts Challenge	680
4.3. Remission	682
5. Waiver of the Right to Challenge an Award	683
5.1. Exclusion	683
5.2. Waiver	684
 Chapter 26
Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards	687
1. Distinction between Recognition and Enforcement	690
2. The Regime for the Enforcement of Domestic Awards	691

Table of Contents

3. Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Awards	693
3.1. The New York Convention	693
3.2. Other Multilateral Conventions	694
3.3. Bilateral Conventions	696
3.4. National Laws and Model Laws	696
3.5. Relationship between the Different Regimes: Article VII New York Convention	697
4. Sphere of Application of New York Convention	698
4.1. Meaning of Foreign Award	699
(a) Award	699
(b) Foreign	700
4.2. Reservations	702
(a) Reciprocity	702
(b) Commercial matters	703
5. Pre-Requisites for Enforcement	703
5.1. Jurisdiction of the Enforcement Court	703
5.2. Required Documents	704
6. Grounds to Refuse Enforcement	706
6.1. Invalidity of Arbitration Agreement	707
(a) Incapacity	708
(b) Invalidity	709
(c) More favourable other provisions	710
6.2. Violation of Due Process	710
(a) Proper notice	711
(b) Unable to present his case	712
6.3. Arbitrators have Acted Beyond their Jurisdiction	713
(a) Extra petita	714
(b) Ultra petita	714
6.4. Irregular Procedure or Composition of Tribunal	715
6.5. Award is Not Binding, or Has Been Suspended or Set Aside	716
(a) Not binding	716
(b) Award set aside or suspended	717
(c) More favourable provisions	718
6.6. Violation of Public Policy of Country of Enforcement	720
(a) Arbitrability	721
(b) Enforcement violates public policy	721
7. Analysis of Different Approaches	730

Chapter 27

Arbitration with Government and State Owned Entities	733
1. Subjective Arbitrability: States and Arbitration Agreement	734
2. Existence and Interpretation of the Arbitration Agreement	738
2.1. Power of the Acting Person to Bind the State	738
2.2. Binding Effect of an Arbitration Agreement Signed by a State Entity on the State	739
3. Sovereign Immunity	744
3.1. Immunity from Jurisdiction	745
3.2. Immunity from Execution	750
(a) Waiver of immunity	751
(b) Commercial activity	754
4. Reasons to Resist Enforcement of Awards	759

Chapter 28

Arbitration of Investment Disputes	761
1. Special Features of Investment Disputes Arbitration	763
2. National Investment Laws	765
3. Bilateral Investment Treaties	768
4. The North American Free Trade Agreement	770
5. The Energy Charter Treaty	773
6. Arbitration Proceedings under the ICSID Convention	774
6.1. The Scope of the ICSID Convention	776
(a) Consent to arbitration	777
(b) Requirements as to the parties involved	778
(c) Investment	780
6.2. Specifics of ICSID Arbitration Proceedings	783
(a) Composition of the arbitration tribunal	784
(b) Proceedings before the arbitration tribunal	785
(c) Powers of the arbitration tribunal	786
(d) Provisional measures	787
(e) Applicable law	789
(f) ICSID award	791
6.3. Remedies against Awards	792
(a) Rectification, interpretation and revision	792
(b) Annulment proceedings	793
i. Excess of powers (Article 52(1)(b))	795
ii. Serious departure from a fundamental rule of procedure (Article 52(1)(d))	797
iii. Failure to state reasons (Article 52(1)(e))	798
iv. Annulment process	800

Table of Contents

6.4. Recognition and Enforcement	801
7. Arbitration under ICSID Additional Facility Rules	803
Abbreviated Bibliography	805
Table of International Conventions and Instruments	817
Table of Arbitration Rules	827
Table of National Laws	837
Table of Arbitration Awards	851
Table of National and International Court Decisions	865
Subject Index	905