

Contents

Preface	xi
Since the dawn of humankind	1
PART I
Lessons learned	13
Are we on the right track?	15
Legal and institutional reform programming: what works?	23
Preventing corruption through accountability, transparency, and governance programming: what works?	34
Civil society engagement: what works?	48
Anti-corruption programming in post-conflict societies	57
PART II
New strategies	63
Activating behavioral change initiatives	65
The view through an ethical lens	82
The social psychological lens	96
Deconstructing negotiations to make bribery fail	107

PART III
Practical implementation	123
11 What's next? Assessments, strategies, and implementation	125
12 Case study: Ukraine assessment (2005)	141
13 Additional implementation issues to consider	172
14 Sustaining anti-corruption reforms	181
15 Making corruption fail	188
Appendix: corruption assessment	195
Bibliography	203
Index	215