

Table of Contents

Abbreviations	IX
Part I: Economic Models and Methods	1
Shozo Ota
Choice of Law and Economic Analysis: A Methodological Introduction.....	3
Kazuaki Kagami
The Systematic Choice of Legal Rules for Private International Law: An Economic Approach	15
Christian Kirchner
An Economic Analysis of Choice-of-Law and Choice-of-Forum Clauses	33
Part II: Private Cooperative Arrangements and Uniform Laws.....	55
Jürgen Basedow
Lex Mercatoria and the Private International Law of Contracts in Economic Perspective	57
Souichirou Kozuka
The Economic Implications of Uniformity in Law	73
Part III: Private International Law of Contracts and Torts	85
Hans-Bernd Schäfer and Katrin Lantermann
Choice of Law from an Economic Perspective	87
Kazuaki Kagami, Toshiyuki Kono and Yuko Nishitani
Economic Analysis of Conflict-of-Laws Rules in Tort – Lex Loci Delicti Principle vs. Interest Analysis Approach.....	121
Ralf Michaels
Two Economists, Three Opinions? Economic Models for Private International Law – Cross-Border Torts as Example.....	143

Part IV: Private International Law of Corporations	185
Horst Eidenmüller
Free Choice in International Corporate Law: European and German Corporate Law in European Competition between Corporate Law Systems	187
Tomoyo Matsui
What Cases Should be Governed by Lex Incorporationis ? A Policy and Application-Costs Perspective.....	207
Yoshihisa Hayakawa
Japanese Regulations against Foreign Corporations and Global Competition in Corporate Law	233
Contributors	245