

Detailed Table of Contents

Abbreviations	xix
Table of International Treaties and Conventions	xxix
Table of Legislation	xliii

PART 1: THE LEGAL STATUS OF FOREIGN COMPANIES: THE PRESENT STATE OF EUROPEAN LAW

Chapter 1.	CROSS-BORDER COMPANY RELATIONSHIPS IN EUROPE: MAIN FEATURES	3
I.	Introduction	3
II.	Multi-Party Nature of Company Relationships: Areas of Law Involved	4
III.	An Integrated Approach of EC Law and Private International Law	7
Chapter 2.	RECOGNITION THEORIES: PRIVATE INTERNATIONAL LAW TREATIES AND EC LAW	9
I.	Introduction	9
	1. A Preliminary Remark: 'Recognition'	10
	2. The 'Real Seat' Theory	11
	3. The 'Incorporation' Theory	16
II.	Reconciliatory Attempts: Doctrine and Case Law	20
	1. The Differenzierung Concept	20
	2. The Überlagerung Concept	22
	3. 'Delaware' and Pro-Forma Foreign Companies	23
III.	Reconciliatory Attempts: Private International Law	24
	1. The 1956 Draft Treaty of the Hague Conference on the Mutual Recognition of the Legal Personality of Companies	24
IV.	Reconciliatory Attempts: EC Law	26
	1. EC Treaty ex Articles 52, 58, and 220	26
	2. ECJ Decisions	41
Chapter 3.	PROVISIONAL CONCLUSIONS	87
I.	Freedom of Establishment for Companies: A Legal Vacuum	87
II.	Private International Law	87
III.	Private International Law and EC Law: The Interrelationship	88

IV.	Primary EC Law	88
V.	Secondary EC Law	89
VI.	Multi-Party Nature and Multiple Interests	90
VII.	Primary and Secondary Establishment: Fighting or Preventing Fraud	91
 PART 2: THE PRESENT STATE OF PRIVATE INTERNATIONAL LAW: A COMPARATIVE ANALYSIS
Chapter 4.	'INCORPORATION' COUNTRIES VERSUS 'REAL SEAT' COUNTRIES	95
I.	Introduction	95
II.	'Incorporation' Countries	97
	1. The Netherlands	97
	2. England	128
	3. Switzerland	150
III.	'Real Seat' Countries	174
	1. Germany	174
	2. France	195
	3. Italy	217
 Chapter 5.	 PROVISIONAL CONCLUSIONS	 237
I.	Comparative Approach: The Environmental Context of the Countries Involved	237
II.	Comparative Approach: 'Vertical' versus 'Horizontal' Treatment	238
III.	'Incorporation' Countries: Historical and Socio-Economic Context	238
IV.	'Real Seat' Countries: Historical and Socio-Economic Context	239
V.	The 'Nationality' of Natural and Legal Persons	241
VI.	Scope of the Applicable Law	241
VII.	Cross-Border Company Mobility: Seat Transfers	242
 PART 3: FUTURE OUTLOOKS: AN INTEGRATED LAW APPROACH
Chapter 6.	THE TREATY OF AMSTERDAM: SYNTHESIS OF EC LAW AND PRIVATE INTERNATIONAL LAW	247
I.	EC Law Reconsidered	247
	1. Introduction	247
	2. Premises for Further Investigation	249
II.	EC Law versus Private International Law: A Dialogue	261

	1. Functional Disparities	261
III.	Intra-Community Company Mobility: Cross-Border Seat Transfers	276
	1. Premises for Further Investigation	276
	2. The 1993 KPMG Report	282
	3. Cross-Border Company Mobility: Conclusions	314
Chapter 7.	FINAL CONCLUSIONS	317
I.	International Law and EC Law: A Vacuum	317
II	The Comparative Approach: The Environmental Context of the Legal Orders Involved	319
III.	An Integrated Approach: EC Law and Private International Law	323
Bibliography		331
Index		343