

Table of Contents

Introduction	I
Roel Westrik/Jeroen van der Weide

A.

General Aspects of Party Autonomy, as seen from the Perspective of Continental Law as well as of Common Law

1. Choice of Law in International Property Law – New Encouragement from Europe	II
Axel Flessner
2. Party Autonomy in Dutch International Property Law	4I
Jeroen van der Weide
3. The Numerus Clausus and Party Autonomy in the Law of Property	59
T.H.D. Struycken
4. Party Autonomy and Property Rights	83
Robert Stevens

B.

Private International (Property) Law

5. Party Autonomy in International Property Law: A German Perspective	IO3
Jan von Hein
6. Party Autonomy in French and Belgian Law	II9
Vincent Sagaert

C.

Developments and Prospects in Europe and in European Law Projects

7. Article 14 Rome I: A Political Perspective Paulien M. M. van der Grinten	145
---	-----

8. European Conflict Rules for the mutual Recognition of Security Rights in Goods Ulrich Drobnig	165
---	-----

D.

Assignment in Private International Law;
Financial Instruments / the Collateral Directive;
Insolvency Law

9. Party Autonomy and Assignment Hendrik Verhagen	189
---	-----

10. Between Articles 14 and 27 of Rome I: How to interpret a European Regulation on Conflict of Laws? Axel Flessner	207
--	-----

11. Financial Collateral Arrangements and Party Autonomy Reinout M. Wibier	225
--	-----

12. Party Autonomy and Insolvency Law P. M. Veder	261
---	-----