

Contents

List of Illustrations	viii
List of Figures	xiv
List of Maps	xv
Introduction	I
1. Tolosa: Sojourn of the Visigoths (AD 418–507)	13
2. Alt Clud: Kingdom of the Rock (Fifth to Twelfth Centuries)	33
3. Burgundia: Five, Six or Seven Kingdoms (c. 411–1795)	85
4. Aragon: A Mediterranean Empire (1137–1714)	151
5. Litva: A Grand Duchy with Kings (1253–1795)	229
6. Byzantion: The Star-lit Golden Bough (330–1453)	309
7. Borussia: Watery Land of the Prusai (1230–1945)	325
8. Sabaudia: The House that Humbert Built (1033–1946)	395
9. Galicia: Kingdom of the Naked and Starving (1773–1918)	439
10. Etruria: French Snake in the Tuscan Grass (1801–1814)	491
11. Rosenau: The Loved and Unwanted Legacy (1826–1918)	539
12. Tsernagora: Kingdom of the Black Mountain (1910–1918)	575
13. Rusyn: The Republic of One Day (15 March 1939)	621
14. Éire: The Unconscionable Tempo of the Crown's Retreat since 1916	635
15. CCCP: The Ultimate Vanishing Act (1924–1991)	687
How States Die	729
Notes	740
Acknowledgements	791
Index	793