

CONTENTS

Table of Cases	xxxi
Table of Legislation	lv
Table of Principal Works Cited	lxiii

I INTRODUCTION

1. Introduction

I. Legal Risk and Commercial Disputes	1.01
II. The Anatomy of Risk	1.06
III. Concepts and Context	1.13
A. Evolution of the modern law	1.13
B. The practical context	1.19
C. The conceptual structure of English law	1.21
1. Concepts	1.21
2. Principles	1.29
3. Legal risk in English law	1.38
D. The conceptual structure of the Community regime	1.40
IV. The Future Framework	1.48
A. The Hague Convention on Choice of Court Agreements	1.48
B. Amending the Brussels regime	1.51
1. Reform of the Brussels regime	1.51
2. Extension of the regime	1.53
3. Declining jurisdiction and third states	1.61
4. Declining jurisdiction in the Community	1.71
5. Provisional measures	1.85
V. Scope	1.88
A. Commercial litigation	1.88
B. The European judicial area	1.92
VI. Organization	1.93

II LEGAL RISK AND MULTISTATE TRANSACTIONS

2. Managing Litigation Risk

I. Litigation Risk	2.01
A. Identifying the risks	2.01
B. Venue risk in English courts	2.03
1. Introduction to venue risk	2.03
2. Ouster of jurisdiction	2.04
3. Adjudicatory discretion	2.07
4. Procedural discretion	2.11
C. Venue risk in foreign courts	2.12
D. Enforcement risk	2.13
II. Litigation Agreements	2.14
III. Procedure, Contract, and Public Policy	2.16
IV. The Role of Jurisdiction Agreements	2.29
V. Effective Jurisdiction Agreements	2.31
A. Introduction	2.31
B. The validity of jurisdiction agreements	2.32
1. The validity of Article 23 agreements	2.32
2. The validity of residual agreements	2.49
C. The meaning of jurisdiction agreements	2.50
1. The applicable law	2.50
2. The scope of the agreement	2.52
3. The effect of the agreement	2.53
D. The qualified effect of jurisdiction agreements	2.57
1. Pre-emptive proceedings	2.57
2. Managing the risk of pre-emptive proceedings	2.63
3. Adjudicatory discretion	2.70
VI. Secondary Enforcement: Damages	2.91
VII. Secondary Enforcement: Indemnity	2.102
VIII. Legislative Enforcement: The Hague Convention	2.108
A. Status of the Convention	2.108
B. Dynamics of the Convention	2.109
C. The Hague Convention and the Brussels regime	2.119
1. The Hague Convention and Owusu	2.119
2. The Hague Convention and Gasser	2.121
IX. Procedural Agreements	2.130

3. Managing Transaction Risk

I. The Anatomy of Transaction Risk	3.01
------------------------------------	------

A. Ineffective transactions	3.01
B. Ineffective governing law clauses	3.12
II. Negotiation Risk	3.17
III. Formation Risk	3.18
IV. Counterparty Risk	3.22
A. Introduction	3.22
B. Counterparty risks	3.24
1. Status incapacity	3.24
2. Trading restrictions	3.27
3. Insufficient powers	3.28
4. Insufficient authority	3.29
V. Initial Performance Risk	3.31
A. Two risks	3.31
B. Types of initial risk	3.33
C. Compliance with the law of the forum	3.35
1. Overriding statutes and public policy	3.35
2. Overriding statutory rules	3.39
3. The public policy of the forum	3.62
D. Compliance with the law of the place of performance	3.129
1. English public policy and the place of performance	3.129
2. The overriding law of the place of performance	3.130
3. The manner of performance	3.135
E. Compliance with the most connected law	3.137
F. Compliance with the proprietary law	3.138
VI. Supervening Performance Risk	3.140
A. Nature of the risk	3.140
B. Limits to supervening performance risk	3.145
1. Drafting measures	3.146
2. Territoriality	3.148
3. Strict construction	3.149
C. Legal change in the contractual law	3.150
D. Legal change to counterparty's status	3.157
E. Legal change in the place of performance	3.161
1. Where the contractual law is English law	3.161
2. Where the contractual law is foreign law	3.164
F. The transfer of rights and obligations	3.172
VII. Recharacterization Risk	3.177
A. Introduction	3.177
B. Adverse recharacterization	3.179
1. Nature of the risk	3.179
2. Characterizing an issue	3.180
3. Characterizing a transaction	3.181

III THE LAWS GOVERNING MULTISTATE LITIGATION

4. The Laws Governing Multistate Transactions

I. Introduction	4.01
A. Scope of the chapter	4.01
B. Contractual and non-contractual issues	4.02
II. The Law Governing Contractual Issues	4.11
A. Generic and specific contracts	4.11
B. The scope of the contractual law	4.14
C. Transaction risk	4.25
D. Defining the contractual law	4.26
E. Identifying the contractual law	4.32
F. Express choice of the contractual law	4.45
1. Effective choice of law clauses	4.45
2. Varying the contractual law	4.49
3. Types of contractual choice	4.50
G. Implied choice of the contractual law	4.61
1. The test of implied choice	4.61
2. Rules and exceptions	4.67
3. Related contracts	4.71
4. Residual cases	4.86
H. Procedural choice of the contractual law	4.89
I. The contractual law in the absence of choice	4.94
1. The default rule: Convention contracts	4.94
2. The default rule: Regulation contracts	4.98
3. Residual discretion in the European regime	4.103
III. The Law Governing Transfers of Title	4.139
A. Connecting factors	4.139
B. Title to tangibles	4.143
1. The lex situs rule	4.143
2. Renvoi and title to tangibles	4.150
3. Third party claims	4.151
IV. The Law Governing the Assignment of Debts	4.153
A. The risk of ineffectiveness	4.153
B. The Community regime	4.156
C. Articles 12 and 14: summary	4.161
1. Five issues	4.161
2. The effect of the contract of origin	4.162
3. The attributes of the debt	4.163
4. The intrinsic validity of the assignment	4.166
5. Perfection of the assignment	4.172
6. Subordination of the assignment	4.176

D. Articles 12 and 14: underlying issues	4.178
1. Introduction	4.178
2. Scope of the Community regime	4.181
3. Validity and perfection as ‘effectiveness’	4.193
4. The implications of Article 14(1)	4.196
5. Considerations of principle and policy	4.198
E. Assignment at common law	4.200
1. Validity and perfection	4.200
2. Subordination risk	4.209
F. Problems of design	4.211
1. Two problems	4.211
2. Transaction costs v asset-value	4.212

5. The Dynamics of Choice of Law

I. The Choice of Law Process	5.01
II. Application of the Forum’s Law	5.04
A. The local law of the forum	5.04
B. The province of local law: procedure	5.05
C. Paramount local law: mandatory local rules	5.07
D. Pleading the law of the forum	5.10
1. Optional choice of law	5.10
2. A strategic choice	5.16
E. Overriding local norms—public policy	5.22
III. Allocation to a Choice of Law Regime: Characterization	5.28
IV. The Concept of the Applicable Law: Renvoi	5.40
A. Remission by the applicable law	5.40
B. Three approaches to renvoi	5.44
1. Should renvoi apply in all cases, or none?	5.45
2. Should renvoi apply in cases of a particular class?	5.48
3. Should renvoi operate on the facts of any given case?	5.50
C. English law	5.51

6. The Content of Foreign Law

I. The Practical Context	6.01
II. Legal Risk and Foreign Law	6.06
III. The Conceptual Context	6.07
A. Introduction	6.07
B. The court’s objective	6.08
C. The legal status of foreign law	6.16

1. Foreign law as fact	6.16
2. The legal aspect of foreign law	6.19
3. Judicial notice of foreign law?	6.30
IV. Establishing Foreign Law	6.34
A. Expert evidence	6.34
1. The standard case	6.34
2. The expert	6.36
3. The court's role	6.48
4. Evaluative techniques	6.61
5. Evidential problems	6.72
B. Alternative approaches	6.80
V. Foreign Law on Appeal	6.85
VI. Foreign Law in Interlocutory Proceedings	6.90
VII. Failure to Establish Foreign Law	6.98
A. The default rule	6.98
B. The default rule after Shaker v Al-Bedrawi	6.102
C. The scope of the default rule	6.110
1. Shaker v Al-Bedrawi	6.110
2. The default rule after Shaker	6.115

IV COMMENCING PROCEEDINGS

7. Strategic Choices

I. Investment, Settlement, and Litigation	7.01
II. A Viable Case	7.09
A. A viable defendant	7.09
B. An available forum	7.10
III. Principles of Forum Selection	7.15
A. Enforceability	7.16
B. The legal outcome	7.17
C. The availability and extent of remedies	7.20
D. Net recovery	7.22
E. Procedural advantages	7.23
F. Predictability	7.24
G. Tactical considerations	7.25
H. Familiarity	7.26
I. Neutrality	7.27
IV. The Legal Framework of Forum Selection	7.28
A. International civil procedure	7.29
1. Venue	7.30

2. Enforceability	7.31
3. Evidence and procedure	7.32
B. The substantive law in multistate litigation	7.33
8. The Framework of Jurisdiction
I. Principles of Civil Jurisdiction	8.01
II. Conceptual Problems	8.07
A. Interlocutory findings in jurisdiction disputes	8.07
B. Claims dependent on a contract	8.17
III. Community Rules of Jurisdiction	8.20
A. The scope of Community law	8.20
1. English law: two principal regimes	8.20
2. English law: which regime?	8.22
B. Principles of Community law	8.27
1. The Community regime in transition	8.27
2. Community competence in matters of jurisdiction	8.28
3. The interpretation of Regulation 44/2001	8.30
IV. Residual Jurisdiction in English Law	8.47
A. Introduction to the English model	8.47
B. Jurisdiction over defendants served in England	8.50
1. Introduction	8.50
2. Methods of service	8.51
3. Challenging jurisdiction	8.52
C. Jurisdiction over defendants served outside England	8.56
1. Introduction	8.56
2. Requirements of jurisdiction over persons outside England	8.61
3. Procedure for asserting jurisdiction over persons outside England	8.71
9. Establishing Jurisdiction
I. Venue Risk and Corporate Strategy	9.01
II. Submission to the English Court	9.04
III. Corporate Presence in England	9.09
A. Introduction	9.09
B. Corporate domicile	9.10
1. Statutory seat	9.10
2. Management	9.11
C. A place of business	9.15
1. Corporations domiciled in a Member State	9.15
2. Corporations domiciled in a non-Member State	9.18

IV. Presence of an Agent in England	9.24
A. Corporations domiciled in a Member State	9.24
B. Corporations domiciled in a non-Member State	9.26
1. The agent conducts the principal's business in England	9.27
2. The claim relates to a contract concluded by an agent in England	9.31
V. Breach of Contract in England	9.33
A. Breach by an EU-domiciled defendant	9.33
1. Venue risk in the place of performance	9.33
2. The scope of Article 5(1)	9.35
3. Jurisdiction in the agreed place of performance	9.43
4. The place of performance in the absence of agreement: contracts of sale and for services	9.47
5. The place of performance in the absence of agreement: other contracts	9.54
B. Breach of contract by a non-EU defendant	9.61
VI. Contracting Subject to English Law	9.64
VII. Claims Relating to English Torts	9.65
VIII. Claims Relating to English Property	9.75
IX. Collateral Claims against Co-Defendants	9.77
A. Co-defendant domiciled in a Member State	9.77
B. Co-defendant domiciled in a non-Member State	9.83
X. Collateral Claims against Third Parties	9.87
A. Third party domiciled in a Member State	9.87
B. Third party domiciled in a non-Member State	9.88

V PREVENTING PROCEEDINGS

10. Excluded Claims

I. Claims Excluded in Commercial Disputes	10.01
II. Non-Justiciable Claims	10.05
A. Foreign public laws	10.05
B. Non-justiciable conduct of a foreign state	10.06
III. Immunity of State Defendants	10.12
A. The existence of immunity	10.12
B. Immunity and state assets	10.19
IV. Procedural Fairness and Excluded Claims	10.25

11. Declining Jurisdiction: The Community Regime
I. Introduction	11.01
II. Objectives of the Community Regime	11.04
III. Alternative Proceedings in a Member State	11.09
A. Mechanisms for declining jurisdiction	11.09
B. Paramount jurisdiction—Article 23	11.17
C. The scope of Articles 27 and 28	11.20
1. Articles 27, 28, and national law	11.20
2. Articles 27, 28, and interim measures	11.24
D. Seisin defined—Article 30	11.25
E. Prior congruent proceedings—Article 27	11.30
1. Introduction	11.30
2. The requirement of congruence	11.33
3. Negative declarations and Article 27	11.42
F. Prior related proceedings—Article 28	11.44
1. Article 28	11.44
2. The relationship between Article 27 and Article 28	11.45
3. The relationship between Article 28(1) and (2)	11.48
4. The operation of Article 28	11.50
5. The existence of pending proceedings	11.53
6. The test of related proceedings	11.54
7. The discretion to stay	11.62
G. Prior proceedings and paramount jurisdiction	11.69
IV. Alternative Proceedings in a non-Member State	11.76
A. Context	11.76
B. Jurisdiction derives from national law	11.77
C. Jurisdiction derives from Regulation 44/2001	11.78
D. Owusu v Jackson	11.81
E. After Owusu	11.93
F. Distinguishing Owusu	11.95
1. A decision on the facts	11.95
2. A different ground of jurisdiction	11.97
3. A third-state claimant	11.99
4. A different ground for declining jurisdiction	11.102
G. Declining jurisdiction and third states	11.103
1. Three alternatives	11.103
2. Five measures of consistency	11.104
3. Enforcing third-state jurisdiction agreements	11.105
4. Parallel proceedings in third states	11.127
5. Legislative solutions	11.135

12. Declining Jurisdiction: Residual Rules
I. The Appropriate Forum	12.01
II. Policy, Discretion, and Risk	12.05
III. The Test of Appropriateness	12.14
A. The Spiliada Test	12.14
1. Elements of the test	12.14
2. Burdens of proof	12.21
3. Alleging denial of justice	12.25
4. A balance of private interests	12.32
5. The appropriate forum for trial	12.35
6. Justice the measure of appropriateness	12.37
7. Forum conveniens on appeal	12.38
8. Comity and foreign decisions	12.41
9. Terms and undertakings	12.47
IV. Problems of Principle	12.48
A. Inherent contradictions	12.48
B. Presumptions, principles, and preferences	12.58
V. The Defendant's Challenge	12.61
A. An available forum	12.61
B. Justice and cost-effectiveness	12.64
1. Cost-effectiveness	12.64
2. The relative cost of proceedings	12.66
3. The effectiveness of proceedings	12.83
4. Access to Justice	12.86
13. Procedural Objections
I. Procedural Objections	13.01
II. Dismissal for Abuse of Process	13.02
III. Case-Management Stays	13.05
14. Preclusive Proceedings
I. The Risk of Preclusive Proceedings	14.01
II. Relitigation Risk	14.03
A. The control of relitigation	14.03
1. Relitigation, recognition, and estoppel	14.03
2. Relitigation and abuse of process	14.06
3. Relitigating the effect of jurisdiction agreements	14.11
4. Relitigating matters adjudicated in a non-Member State	14.12
5. Relitigating matters adjudicated in a Member State	14.16

B. Relitigating liability	14.17
C. Relitigating collateral issues	14.20
III. Preclusive Declarations	14.25
A. Strategy and preclusive declarations	14.25
B. Preclusive foreign proceedings	14.30
C. Preclusive English proceedings	14.33
1. A neutral approach	14.33
2. Jurisdiction	14.36
3. The test of appropriateness	14.41
 15. Restraining Foreign Proceedings
I. Introduction	15.01
II. Jurisdiction to Grant Relief	15.13
III. Grounds for Relief	15.18
A. The conceptual architecture	15.18
B. Enforcing legal rights	15.31
1. Procedural and substantive rights	15.31
2. Abuse of procedural rights	15.32
3. Enforcing substantive rights	15.40
C. Illegitimate parallel proceedings	15.46
1. The test	15.46
2. No legitimate interest	15.50
3. Parallel proceedings and non-exclusive jurisdiction agreements	15.60
D. Denial of justice in the foreign court	15.61
E. Access to justice in England	15.65
1. The requirement	15.65
2. Scope of the requirement	15.67
IV. Discretion to Grant Relief	15.75
V. Limitations on Relief	15.76
A. Access to justice	15.77
B. Comity	15.78
1. Comity in principle	15.78
2. The narrow theory of comity	15.81
3. The broad theory of comity	15.87
C. Community law	15.96
1. Where jurisdiction derives from national law	15.107
2. Restraining proceedings in a third state	15.109
3. Relief ancillary to arbitration	15.111

VI RECOVERY AND ENFORCEMENT

16. Recovering Transaction Loss

I. Transaction Loss	16.01
II. Contractual Recovery	16.03
III. Non-Contractual Recovery: Tort	16.05
A. Two regimes	16.05
B. Transaction loss in tort	16.07
C. The 1995 Act	16.09
D. The Rome II Regulation	16.17
1. Party autonomy	16.17
2. Two default rules	16.20
3. Article 4(1) and Article 4(2)	16.23
4. Determining manifest connection	16.26
5. Examples	16.39
E. The extent of recovery	16.43
IV. Non-Contractual Recovery: Culpa in Contrahendo	16.44
A. Introduction	16.44
B. Events not regulated by the Regulation	16.49
C. Events regulated by the Regulation	16.51
1. The Article 12 regime	16.51
2. The scope of Article 12	16.58
V. Non-Contractual Recovery: Restitution	16.64
A. Transactional restitution	16.64
B. The Rome II Regulation	16.66
C. Pre-Regulation cases	16.71
VI. Non-Recovery: Exemption Clauses	16.74

17. Preserving Judgment Assets

I. Orders Preserving Assets	17.01
A. Enforcement risk	17.01
B. Freezing and disclosure	17.05
C. Receivership	17.09
II. The Elements of Relief	17.11
A. Pre- and post-judgment orders	17.11
B. The importance of disclosure	17.16
C. Obtaining and challenging relief	17.18
1. Procedure and notice	17.18
2. Requirements for relief	17.20
3. Challenging relief	17.26

D. The effectiveness of relief	17.29
1. Direct and indirect sanctions	17.29
2. Sanctioning the defendant	17.30
3. Sanctioning third parties	17.40
E. Protecting recipients	17.44
III. International Freezing Injunctions	17.45
A. The foreign element	17.45
B. Jurisdiction	17.50
IV. Preserving Foreign Assets	17.51
A. Obtaining relief	17.51
B. Exporting the injunction	17.58
1. Enforcement abroad	17.58
2. Objections in the foreign court	17.60
3. Objections in the English court	17.63
C. Domestic sanctions: contempt of court	17.67
V. The Disclosure of Foreign Assets	17.72
A. Obtaining information	17.72
B. Using information	17.75
VI. Injunctions Collateral to Foreign Proceedings	17.76
A. The legal framework	17.76
B. Inexpedient intervention	17.83
1. Policies, principles, and considerations	17.83
2. Three principles	17.85
3. Section 25 and foreign assets	17.123
VII. Interim Relief in the European Judicial Area	17.129
A. The framework	17.129
B. Measures within Article 31	17.141
C. Article 31 and foreign assets	17.143
1. Unanswered questions	17.143
2. Interpreting Van Uden	17.144
3. Interpreting Denilauler	17.149
4. Principle and policy	17.154
D. Article 31 and unspecified assets	17.158
E. Article 31 and national law	17.160
1. Limitations on jurisdiction	17.160
2. Article 31 and consistency with foreign law	17.163
3. Article 31 and national law	17.164
F. Article 31 and non-recognition	17.168
1. Article 31 orders as judgments	17.168
2. The recognition of extraterritorial orders	17.169
3. Reviewing Article 31 jurisdiction	17.172

18. Enforcing Judgment Debts
I. Enforcement Risk	18.01
II. Enforcing English Judgments	18.03
III. Enforcing Foreign Judgments: Introduction	18.05
IV. Enforcing Foreign Judgments: The Statutory Regime	18.06
V. Enforcing Foreign Judgments: The Common Law Regime	18.07
A. Procedure for enforcement	18.07
B. Conditions for enforcement	18.08
1. An enforceable debt	18.08
2. An enforceable judgment	18.10
3. A judgment debtor without immunity	18.12
4. The judgment debtor's acceptance of the foreign court's jurisdiction	18.13
C. Defences to enforcement	18.23
1. Principles governing defences	18.23
2. Denial of a fair trial	18.25
3. Public policy	18.31
VI. Enforcing Foreign Judgments: The European Regime	18.40
A. Introduction	18.40
B. The Brussels Regulation	18.41
1. Objectives and scope	18.41
2. Procedure	18.43
3. Enforceable judgments	18.44
4. Grounds for enforcement	18.46
5. Defences to recognition and enforcement	18.47

Index	719
--------------	-----