

Contens

| | |
|--|-----------|
| About Author | 6 |
| Foreword | 7 |
| I. Introduction | 8 |
| 1. Purpose of this guide | 8 |
| 2. Who this guide is primarily intended for | 8 |
| II. What factors to take into consideration when deciding to employ or invite foreigners to a workplace of a Czech university or p.r.i. | 9 |
| 1. Form and purpose of stay | 9 |
| 2. Length of stay in the Czech Republic in terms of visa laws | 9 |
| 3. Distribution of foreigners by citizenship | 10 |
| 4. Sources of financial coverage of wage and subsistence costs | 10 |
| III. Recruitment and selection of a foreign employee | 16 |
| IV. Recognition of foreign higher education and proof of achieved qualification | 17 |
| V. Initial medical examination | 19 |
| VI. Types of labor relationships in the Czech Republic | 20 |
| 1. Negotiation of an employment relationship | 20 |
| 2. Termination of employment | 21 |
| VII. Requirements for hosting or employing citizens from EU / EEA countries and Switzerland | 22 |
| 1. Invitation documents | 22 |
| 2. Visa requirements and labor law | 22 |
| 3. Social security and health insurance | 23 |
| VIII. Requirements for hosting or employing third-country nationals | 27 |
| 1. General | 27 |
| 2. Invitation and other documents | 28 |
| 3. Visa requirements, where to look for information | 30 |
| 4. Fees, deadlines and means for residence | 31 |
| 5. Work permit | 31 |

