

Contents

Preface	i
 Chapter 1 Great Power Politics over Afghanistan after the U.S. Withdrawal	2
1. The Taliban's Takeover of Kabul	4
2. U.S. Policy toward Afghanistan	5
(1) The Two Decades of War on Terror in Afghanistan	5
(2) U.S. Policy toward Afghanistan after the Taliban Takeover	8
3. Key Stakeholders' Policy toward Afghanistan	12
(1) Pakistan	12
(2) China	17
(3) Russia	22
(4) Iran	24
(5) India	27
4. International Politics over the Post-U.S. Afghanistan	31
(1) Latitude for Cooperation among the Key Stakeholders	31
(2) The Taliban and the Shadow of ISKP	34
(3) Spillover Effects on International Relations	35
 Chapter 2 Progress in the Normalization of Relations between the Arab Countries and Israel: The 2020 Abraham Accords and Subsequent Developments	44
1. From the Founding of Israel to the Oslo Accords	46
2. Stagnation of the Peace Process	49
3. The Division of Palestine and Behind-the-Scenes Developments between the Arab Countries and Israel	53
4. Normalization of UAE and Other Arab Countries' Relations with Israel in 2020	56
5. 2021 Gaza Conflict	63

Chapter 3 China: Tightening Control by the Chinese Communist Party	68
1. Ensuring the Party's Control	70
(1) The Centenary of the Chinese Communist Party	70
(2) Inward-oriented Economic Policy	71
(3) Increased Clampdown on Hong Kong	74
(4) Adoption of the Historical Resolution at the Sixth Plenary Session	75
2. Growing Friction with the International Community	77
(1) Deepening Confrontation with Democratic Countries	77
(2) Efforts to Gain More Partners	82
(3) Intimidations in China's Periphery	84
3. The People's Liberation Army's Military Capability Enhancements as the Party's Army	88
(1) Institutional Development to Support Military Strengthening	88
(2) Steady Enhancements of Equipment and Other Capabilities	91
(3) Military Activities Pursued on Hard-line and Conciliatory Fronts	94
Chapter 4 The Korean Peninsula: Missile Diversification in North and South Korea	102
1. North Korea's Missile Diversification and Hard-line and Soft-line Policies toward the United States and South Korea	104
(1) Accelerated Missile Development	104
(2) Hard-line and Soft-line Policies toward the United States and South Korea	112
2. The Moon Jae-in Administration's Appeasement Policy toward North Korea and Defense Capability Enhancement	113
(1) President Moon Jae-in's Retention of Political Power and the Presidential Election Outlook	113
(2) "End-of-War Declaration" Aspirations	117
(3) Strike Capability Diversification by the ROK Armed Forces	121
Chapter 5 Southeast Asia: The Post-Coup State of Affairs in Myanmar and Regional Security	132
1. Issues surrounding Myanmar's Political Upheaval	134
(1) Execution of the Coup d'État and Establishment of the Provisional Government: The Logic of the Tatmadaw	134
(2) Establishment of a Rival Government by Democratic Groups	137
(3) Background behind the Tatmadaw's Actions and Prospects for a Transition to a Civil Government	142
(4) Divided Reactions by the International Community	144
(5) ASEAN Diplomacy and the Limits of Regional Solutions	148

2. Regional and Domestic Security Trends	153
(1) Moves toward Finalizing the South China Sea Code of Conduct	153
(2) Strengthened European Presence	159
(3) Philippine Foreign Policy	162
3. Southeast Asian Countries Driving Defense Industry Investment: Equipment Development and Economic Promotion	165
(1) Thailand	165
(2) Indonesia	168
(3) Malaysia	170
(4) Philippines	172

Chapter 6 Russia: The New National Security Strategy and Development of Paramilitary Organizations 182

1. Approval of the New National Security Strategy	184
(1) Modern Russia's General Coordination Mechanism for Strategic Planning	184
(2) Russian Conservatism and Patriotism in Strategic Documents	186
(3) Russia's Perception of Its Strategic Environment	187
(4) Improving Paramilitary Capacities: The Strengthening of the Border Service of the Federal Security Service	197
2. New Developments in Russian Politics following the 2020 Constitutional Reforms	201
3. The Advancing Modernization of the Russian Armed Forces and Its Strengthened Military Posture	204
(1) The Establishment of the New Defense Program and the Modernization of the Russian Armed Forces	204
(2) Russia's Growing Threat Awareness and Increased Military Exercises	207
(3) Arms Exports to Strengthen and Expand Foreign Military Cooperation	211

Chapter 7 The United States: "Strategic Competition" with China and the Restoration of U.S. Leadership 222

1. The Biden Administration and Its Foreign Policy	224
(1) Afghanistan Drawdown	224
(2) "Strategic Competition" with China	230
(3) Rallying Allies and Partners in the Indo-Pacific	234
2. U.S. Military Forces in the Indo-Pacific	240
(1) Deployments in the Western Pacific	240
(2) The Pacific Deterrence Initiative (PDI) and the Force Posture in the Indo-Pacific	250

Chapter 8 Japan: Facing the Political Choices in an Era of Great Power Competition 268

1. Great Power Competition and Japan 270

 (1) Great Power “Competition” and “Cooperation” 270

 (2) The Return of Great Power Competition 271

 (3) Japan and “Great Power Competition” 273

2. Relative Decline and Challenges of Japan’s Defense Spending 275

 (1) Current Situation of Japan’s Defense Spending 275

 (2) Decline in Japan’s Defense Spending Relative to East Asia’s Total 276

 (3) The Necessity of Political Choice 281

3. The Strengthening of the Japan-U.S. Alliance Cooperation 284

 (1) The Biden Administration and the Japan-U.S. Alliance 284

 (2) Issues concerning the Taiwan Strait and the Strengthening of Deterrence 286

 (3) The Challenges of Strengthening Japan-U.S. Alliance Deterrence 288

Editor 294

Contributors 295