

Contents

Figures and Tables	ix
Preface	xi
Acknowledgments	xv
1 The Cardinal Economic Choice	1
2 Market Failure	17
The Inadequacies of Markets
Types of Market Failure
3 Nonmarket Failure: The Demand and Supply Conditions	35
Market Failure and Government Intervention
The Nonmarket: Demand and Supply Characteristics
4 Nonmarket Failure: Types, Sources, and Mechanisms	59
Nonmarket Demand and Supply Relationships, and Equilibria between Them
Sources and Types of Nonmarket Failure
Comparing Market and Nonmarket Failures
Nonprofit Organizations between Markets and Nonmarkets
Linkage between Market and Nonmarket Failures

- 5 Nonmarket Failure and the Analysis of Public Policy 103
- 6 Comparing Market and Nonmarket Alternatives: General Considerations 117
Complexities in Comparing Markets and Nonmarkets
Noneconomic Dimensions of the Comparison
- 7 Comparing Market and Nonmarket Alternatives: Empirical Aspects 137
The Power and the Pitfalls of Quantitative Comparisons
Micro and Macro Comparisons
- 8 Conclusions: The Choice between Markets and Governments 155
Guidelines for Choice
The Role of Government in Improving and Extending Markets
The Role of Government in Transforming Command Systems into Market Economies
The Potential Role of Market Forces in Improving the Functioning of Government
Market and Nonmarket Systems: Dilemmas and Pitfalls
- Appendix A 191
Nonmarket Demand, Supply, and Equilibria
- Appendix B 201
A Survey of Comparisons between Public and Private Service Delivery
- Bibliography 213
Index 225