
CONTENT

PREFACE
1 INTRODUCTION TO SUPPLY AND DISTRIBUTION LOGISTICS	3
1.1 Definition, functions and scheme of company logistics	3
1.2 Material management as a system	6
1.3 Supply functions – its objectives and tasks	11
1.4 Functions of distribution – objective, tasks and objects of distribution	11
2 ACQUISITION LOGISTICS	16
2.1 Strategy of purchase	16
2.1.1 Identification and development of purchasing portfolio	22
2.1.2 Optimization of purchasing process	33
2.1.3 Value analysis in material management of the company	36
2.1.4 Improving of supplier-customer relationships	41
2.2 Operative purchase	43
2.2.1 Reducing of the purchased costs	49
2.2.2 Determination of the economic range of the delivery	51
2.3 Inventory analysis	54
2.4 Inventory management within the logistics chain of the company	58
2.4.1 Decoupling point of the company's logistics chain	59
2.5 Inventory theory models	68
2.5.1 Classification of inventory management optimization models	71
2.5.1.1 Stochastic models	74
2.5.1.2 Deterministic models	79
2.5.2 Options and assumptions of model optimization application of inventory theory	79
3 MANAGEMENT OF PRODUCTION STOCK WITHIN THE COMPANY	81
3.1 Process of purchase decision	84
3.2 Make-or-Buy decision	85
3.3 Application of outsourcing in logistics	86
4 ACQUISITION LOGISTICS—SUPPLY	91
4.1 Transport and shipping	91
4.2 Receipt of stock, storage, commissioning	96
4.3 Processing of orders	103
4.4 Information support of physical flows	104
5 THEORY OF SERVICES	107
5.1 Logistics indicators related to distribution of customer services	108
5.2 Customer importance for the company	113
5.3 Phases of relationship with a customer	115
5.4 Time role in the perception of distribution logistics	118
5.5 Return distribution	121
CONCLUSION	123
LIST OF FIGURES	124
LIST OF TABLES	126
LITERARY SOURCES	127
