

Contents

Acknowledgements	v
List of Acronyms	xv
Table of Cases	xvii
DAC list of ODA recipients Effective for reporting on 2011, 2012 and 2013 flows	xxiii

Introduction	1
1. Tied Aid	1
2. Scope and Objectives of the Book	5
3. Outline of the Book	10
4. Concluding Comments	12

Part I: Tied Aid in Context

1. Tied Aid and Poverty Alleviation: Contradictions and Inefficiencies of Benefactors' Development Cooperation Policies	17
1. Introduction	17
2. Poverty Eradication and Development Aid	17
2.1 Increasing Aid Resources and Improving Aid Predictability	22
2.2 Increasing Aid Effectiveness	24
3. Tied Aid Practices	29
3.1 Meaning of Tied Aid	30
3.2 Tied Aid Data: A Critique	32
3.3 Political and Economic Justifications for Tying Aid: An Old Fashioned Rationale?	34
3.3.1 Donors' Economic Rationale	35
3.3.2 Donors' Political Rationale	37
3.4 Costs of Tied Aid	38
3.4.1 The Loss of 'Trade for Aid'	41
3.5 The Economic Effects of Tying Aid within the EU	42
3.6 The Prisoner's Dilemma and the International Community	43
4. Conclusions	46
2. Food Aid	48
1. Introduction	48
2. Hunger and Food Aid	49
2.1 Where do We stand on Hunger?	49
2.2 Changing Patterns in the Way Food Aid is Perceived	52

2.3 Food Aid in the International Context of Human Rights Declarations, Covenants and Summits.....	53
3. Food Aid: Definition, Donations and Modalities of Distribution	59
4. Tied Food Aid: Definition, Data and Costs.....	66
4.1 Definition	66
4.2 Data.....	69
4.3 Tied Aid and Genetically Modified Organisms in Food Aid.....	70
4.4 The Costs of Tying Food Aid.....	71
4.5 Donors' Rationales for Tying Aid	74
5. Tied Aid and the Renewal of the UN Food Aid Convention.....	77
6. The World Food Programme.....	84
6.1 The WFP's Procurement Rules and System	85
6.1.1 Emergency Food Aid: A Challenge that can be Met by Using Modern Procurement Techniques	91
7. Conclusions	94
3. International Steps to Untie Aid: Ten Years since the Recommendation on Untying Aid	97
1. Introduction	97
2. International Initiatives to Untie Aid: Forty Years of Negotiations to Make Aid More Effective.....	98
3. A Thorough Scrutiny of the OECD/DAC Recommendation's Text.....	102
3.1 Scope of the Recommendation's Coverage: Geographical Limitations, Exclusions and Derogations.....	102
3.1.1 Geographical Scope: LDCs and HIPC's.....	102
3.1.2 Categories of ODA.....	104
3.1.3 Exclusions: Technical Cooperation.....	104
3.1.4 Exclusions: Food Aid	106
3.1.5 Derogation(s)	108
3.1.6 Emergency Aid	109
3.1.7 Further Untying.....	110
3.2 DAC—Donors' Commitments to Untying Aid De Jure and De Facto	110
3.2.1 De Facto Untying and the Transparency Obligations.....	111
3.2.2 Corollary Commitments: Completing De Facto Untying	113
3.2.3 Effort Sharing and Coordination.....	113
3.2.4 Procurement Procedures: The Use of Country Systems	114

3.3	Monitoring	115
3.4	Effectiveness and Enforcement: A Successful Story?	117
3.4.1	Effectiveness	117
3.4.2	Enforcement	122
4.	Assessment and Conclusions	122
4.	Tied Aid: The Example of Italy	125
1.	Introduction	125
2.	An Overview of the Italian Development Cooperation System	126
2.1	Legal Foundations and Institutional Structure of the Italian Development Cooperation System	126
2.2	Principles and Objectives	129
2.3	Volume of Aid	133
2.4	Sectors and Countries of Interventions	134
2.5	Instruments of Italian Bilateral Development Cooperation Policies	135
3.	Italy's Stand on Tied Aid and the Legal Foundations of Tied Aid Conditions	139
3.1	Proposals for Reforming Law 49/87	143
3.1.1	Content of the Major Reform Bill: the Commitment to Untie Aid	145
4.	Aid in Practice: Procurement Procedures and Tied Aid Projects	146
4.1	Crediti di Aiuto : Modalities for Granting Aid	146
4.1.1	Tied Aid in Practice: The Procurement Process in the Crediti di Aiuto	148
4.1.2	Examples of the Procurement Process in the Crediti di Aiuto	149
4.2	Interventi a Dono	151
4.2.1	The Procurement Process in the Interventi a Dono ..	153
4.2.2	Examples of Aid Tenders for Interventi a Dono	155
4.3	Review Mechanisms: The Sincat/ENEL Case	158
4.4	Food Aid Projects	159
5.	Assessment, Conclusions and Future Prospects	162
5.	Tied Aid: The Example of the UK	165
1.	Introduction	165
2.	Development Cooperation in the UK	166
3.	Tied/Untied Aid Practices in the UK	169
3.1	History of UK Tied Aid	169
3.2	The New Century: The UK's Vision on Untying Aid and the International Community of Donors	171
3.3	The International Development Act	172

4. The Aid Procurement Process: The Rules Applied	174
5. The Impact of the Untied Aid Policy.....	178
6. Conclusions	180
6. Tied Aid: The Rules on Access to EU External Assistance	182
1. Introduction.....	182
2. EU Development Cooperation Policies: An Overview.....	185
2.1 Structure of EU Development Cooperation.....	188
2.2 EU External Assistance: Geographic and Thematic Aid	191
3. The EU Legislative Measures for Untying EU Aid	195
3.1 The EU Pledge to Further Untie EU Aid	195
3.2 The Rules on Contractual Participation in EU External Action Contracts	198
3.2.1 The Rules on Contractual Participation in the EU Development Cooperation Instruments set up by Regulation 1905/2006.....	200
3.2.2 Eligibility Rules: Article 31 of Regulation 1905/2006	200
3.2.3 Eligibility Rules for Thematic Aid	201
3.2.4 Eligibility Rules for Geographic Aid.....	202
3.2.5 Eligibility Rules: Other (Donor) Countries’ Suppliers and Goods	204
3.2.6 Eligibility Rules: Projects Implemented in LDCs	208
3.2.7 Eligibility Rules: Miscellaneous	209
3.2.8 Exceptions.....	209
3.2.9 Local Purchases.....	210
3.3 Food Security Projects and Policies.....	211
3.4 Aid Projects Implemented by NGOs.....	213
3.5 Eligibility Rules for Access to EDF Aid.....	213
4. Conclusions	215
7. Tied Aid: The Example of the USA	219
1. Introduction.....	219
2. US Aid Programmes: A Brief Overview.....	220
2.1 Status and Data on US Tied Aid	224
3. USAID: Eligibility Rules for Participation in USAID Procurement Aid Contracts.....	225
3.1 USAID: An Introduction.....	225
3.2 USAID and the Legal Framework for Procurement: The Source, Origin and Nationality (S/O/N) Rules.....	227
3.2.1 Regulation 22 CFR part 228.....	229
3.2.2 Procurement Restrictions for Certain Products and Cargo Preference Clauses	232
3.2.3 The 2012 Reforms	237

4. US Food Aid Programmes and Tied Aid	239
4.1 Attempts to Reform US Food Aid.....	244
5. The Millennium Challenge Corporation	248
5.1 MCC Procurement Procedures.....	251
6. Conclusions	254

Part II: Tied Aid and the EU

8. Tied Aid and the External Competences of the EU	259
1. Introduction.....	259
2. Setting the Framework for Discussion: the EU's External Action Competences, Development Aid Procurement and Tied Aid	261
2.1 The CPP, Export Credits and Tied Aid	266
3. Interaction between the CCP and other EU External Competences.....	273
3.1 Trade and Foreign Policy	273
3.2 Trade and Environment	275
4. Development Cooperation	277
4.1 Parallel Powers, Mutual Complementarity, Policy Coherence between the Union and the Member States	277
4.2 Interaction between Trade and Development Cooperation.....	282
5. Conclusions	286
9. The Single Market and Tied Aid	288
1. Introduction.....	288
2. The Single Market and Public Procurement: An Overview	289
3. The Commission's Stance on the Legality of Tied Aid	295
4. Tied Aid Practices and the Free Movement Provisions.....	299
4.1 The Setting up of the Tied Aid Condition.....	299
4.2 The Implementation of the Tied Aid Condition.....	303
4.2.1 The Donor Carrying out the Procurement Process	304
4.2.2 The Recipient Country Carrying out the Procurement Process.....	306
4.2.3 Conclusions.....	310
4.3 Positive Obligations under the Treaty	311
4.4 Derogations of Articles 34 and 56 of the Treaty.....	315
5. Tied Aid and the Treaty Provisions on State Aid	317
5.1 The Measure Needs to be Classifiable as Aid	319
5.1.1 The Economic Advantage.....	319
5.1.2 Normal Market Conditions.....	321
5.2 Distortion of Competition and Effect on Trade Between Member States	323
5.3 Aid Granted by the State or through State Resources	323

5.4 Compatibility of the Aid Schemes with the Common Market.....	325
6. Conclusions.....	326
10. Tied Aid Procurement and the EU Public Procurement Directives	328
1. Introduction	328
2. Overview of the Public Procurement Directives	330
2.1 An Evolving Story.....	330
2.2 Major Principles	334
3. The Directives' Definition of Contracting Authorities and Aid Procuring Entities	337
3.1 The First Case: The Procurement Process Carried out by the Donor State or by a Procurement Agent on Behalf of the Donor State	337
3.1.1 The Directives' Notion of 'Contracting Authority': Member states' Agencies Operating Within and Outside the EU	337
3.1.2 Conclusions	344
3.2 The Second Case: The Procurement Process is Carried out by the Beneficiary Country.....	344
3.3 Article 8 of the Public Sector Directive: The Case of a Contract Financed by a Procurement Entity	348
4. Possible Factors Against the Application of the Directives to Aid Procurement Contracts.....	350
4.1 Delivery of the Aid Contracts in a Third Country	351
4.2 The Exception in the Utilities Directive for Activities Pursued in a Non-Member Country	355
4.3 International Agreements with Third Countries	357
4.4 Emergency Aid	359
5. Conclusions.....	360

Part III: Tied Aid and the WTO

11. Tied Aid and the WTO	365
1. Introduction	365
2. Tied Aid and the Objectives and Principles of the WTO.....	366
3. Tied Aid within GATT and GATS.....	370
4. Tied Aid and the Subsidies and Countervailing Measures Agreement.....	378
4.1 Identifying Subsidies: The Financial Contribution and the Income/Price Support Elements.....	378
4.2 The Benefit	384
4.3 Specificity	389
4.4 Tied Aid as a Prohibited (Export) Subsidy.....	389

5. The WTO Agreement on Agriculture (AoA) and Tied Aid: State of the Law and Proposals for its Reform.....	394
5.1 Introduction.....	394
5.2 Tied Aid within the Agreement on Agriculture.....	395
5.3 Food Aid within the Negotiations for Reforming Agricultural Trade	398
5.4 The Draft Modalities for Reforming Article 10.4	400
6. Concluding Remarks.....	407
12. Tied Aid and the GPA	411
1. Introduction	411
2. GPA Coverage.....	414
2.1 The GPA's Approach to Coverage and Development Aid.....	414
2.1.1 Gaps in the Interpretation of the Exceptions in Article II(3)(e)(i) and (iii)	418
2.2 The Exemptions in Article II(3)(e) and their Implications on the Granting of Aid as Budget Support and the Use of Country Systems.....	422
3. General Coverage: Would Aid-Funded Procurement be Covered but for the International Assistance and Aid Exception?	423
3.1 Introduction.....	423
3.2 Definition of Procurement and the Exceptions in the General Notes.....	424
3.3 Entities Covered	425
3.4 Conduct Covered.....	427
4. Concluding Remarks: Reflecting on the New Agreement and the Exclusion for Development Aid Procurement.....	428
13. Conclusions.....	431
Bibliography	444
Index	461