

CONTENTS

Preface to the Second Edition

About the Author

Introduction

PART I KEY CONCEPTS AND THEORETICAL FRAMES

1 'Definitions', Methods and Applications

Characterising ethnography

Reflexivity

Intersubjectivity

Methods

Practical and conceptual origins

Applications and ethics

Summary

Questions

Suggested readings

Being Ethnographic

2 Ethnographic Fields: Home and Away

Making place: What is an ethnographic field?

Some favourite fields

Ethnography at home

Multisited and un-sited ethnography

Summary

Questions

Suggested readings

Being Ethnographic

ix

xi

1

13

15

15

20

23

26

29

33

34

35

36

36

37

37

39

44

52

52

53

54

54

PART II DOING ETHNOGRAPHY	55
3 Talking to People: Negotiations, Conversations and Interviews	57
Negotiation	57
Conversation	62
Interviewing	65
Summary	72
Questions	73
Suggested readings	74
Being Ethnographic	74
4 Being with People: Participation	75
Immersion ethnography	76
Step-in-step-out ethnography	78
Embodiment and the ethnographer	81
The ethical participant	86
Summary	91
Questions	92
Suggested readings	92
Being Ethnographic	93
5 Looking at People: Observations and Images	95
The ethnographic gaze	96
The systematic eye	100
Visual ethnography	105
Seeing is believing	109
Summary	110
Questions	111
Suggested readings	112
Being Ethnographic	112
PART III INSCRIPTION	113
6 Description: Writing 'Down' Fieldnotes	115
Writing 'down'	116
The systematic hand	120
What goes into notebooks	127
Fieldnotes in applied ethnographic settings	131
Summary	134
Questions	134
Suggested readings	135
Being Ethnographic	135

7 Analysis to Interpretation: Writing 'Out' Data	137
Organising primary data	137
Organising secondary data	146
Writing 'out' data	149
Summary	151
Questions	152
Suggested readings	153
Being Ethnographic	153
8 Interpretation to Story: Writing 'Up' Ethnography	155
The storied reality	155
Author and audience	157
Writing as the continuation of interpretation	158
Structure in an ethnographic story	159
Style in ethnographic writing	165
Summary	169
Questions	170
Suggested readings	171
Being Ethnographic	171
PART IV EXPANDING ETHNOGRAPHY	173
9 Conclusion: Ethnographic Horizons	175
Review	175
Cyber ethnography	179
Non-human ethnography	184
Summary	190
Last word	191
Questions	192
Suggested readings	192
Being Ethnographic	193
References	195
Index	203