

Contents

List of Illustrations

viii

List of Contributors

xii

Introduction

1

AGNIESZKA CHMIELEWSKA, IRENA KOSSOWSKA, AND MARCIN LACHOWSKI

PART I

Cultural Specificity of East Central Europe

21

1 History Too Fast

23

ÉVA FORGÁCS

2 Universal or National? Making Art on the European Periphery

32

AGNIESZKA CHMIELEWSKA

3 The Concept of Eastern Art and Self-Historicisation: The Slovenian Case

42

NADJA GNAMUŠ

PART II

Nation- and State-Building Processes

53

4 Performing Everyday Activity, Creating Eternal: Ukrainian Art on the Fronts of the First World War

55

SOFIA KOROL'

5 Civil War – Communist Upheaval – Attack of the White Slaughterers? The Civil Wars of 1917–1922 in Finnish and Soviet Karelian Literature

65

THEKLA MUSÄUS

6	The Archipenko Brothers: Discussions about National Art	74
	VITA SUSAK
 PART III
	Aestheticisation of Politics – Ideologisation of Aesthetics	85
7	In/Tolerance to Visual Anti-Semitism in Czechoslovakia 1918–1948	87
	MILAN PECH
8	Art History and State Reconstruction in Greece in the 1950s and Early 1960s	97
	LEFTERIS SPYROU
9	Contesting Legitimacy: From the Photo Club to Fine Art Subjective Documentary—Andrejs Grants. Latvia: Changing and Unchanging Reality	107
	PAMELA M. BROWNE
10	“Poles Forming Their National Flag”: Artistic Reflections on the Transformation of the Political System in Post-1989 Central and Eastern Europe	127
	PIOTR MAJEWSKI
 PART IV
	Art Exhibitions as Political Instrument	139
11	Western Modern Art Exhibitions in the USSR in 1930s–1950s	141
	KATARINA LOPATKINA
12	“The Lenin of Soviet Art Has Not Yet Been Born”: Nascent Socialist Realism in Warsaw of 1933	148
	IRENA KOSSOWSKA
13	From Hanoi and Havana to Paris and New York: Czecho-Slovak Cultural-Diplomatic Exhibitions during the Cold War	164
	MÁRIA ORIŠKOVÁ
14	1956. Old Masters and the Ephemeral Borders	174
	PATRICIA GARCÍA-MONTÓN GONZÁLEZ
15	Somewhere Something	185
	PAVLÍNA MORGANOVÁ

16	Dreams and Nightmares: Nationalism in Art Exhibitions from Socialist Romania 1974–1989	195
	CRISTIAN NAE
17	Local/Global Latvian Art at the Venice Biennale	209
	STELLA PELŠE
18	“Grey in Colour” – Observations on the Reconstruction of Modernity	218
	MARCIN LACHOWSKI
PART V
	Architecture as Vehicle for State Cultural Policy	231
19	Cities in Interbellum Lithuanian Republic (1918–1940)	233
	PAULIUS TAUTVYDAS LAURINAITIS
20	About Two Gems in the Stadtkrone of Kaunas, the Provisional Capital of Interwar Lithuania	244
	GIEDRĖ JANKEVIČIŪTĖ
21	An Elite Place for the Masses: Prague Castle and its Role in the Legitimisation of Socialist Rule in Czechoslovakia (1948–1968)	260
	VERONIKA ROLLOVÁ
22	One Ideology, Two Visions: Ecclesiastical Buildings and State Identity in the Socialist Capital During the Post-War Rebuilding Decades 1945–1975, East Berlin and Warsaw	268
	MARCUS VAN DER MEULEN
23	Monument Preservation during Socialism: Restorations and Reconstructions of Hungarian Roman Catholic Churches in the 1960–70s	278
	ERZSÉBET URBÁN
	Index	288