

Contents

| | |
|---|------|
| List of figures | vii |
| List of tables | viii |
| Foreword | x |
| Acknowledgements for the first and second editions | xiii |
| Note on Romanization | xv |
| List of abbreviations | xvi |
| | |
| 1 Introduction to government and politics in Taiwan | 1 |
| 2 Authoritarian rule: the politics of martial law in Taiwan | 11 |
| 3 Transition to democracy and democratic consolidation | 33 |
| 4 Taiwan's government and constitutional structure | 50 |
| 5 Electoral politics: milestones, electoral systems and political communication | 66 |
| 6 Party politics in Taiwan | 98 |
| 7 Local and factional politics | 132 |
| 8 Competing national identities | 150 |
| 9 Taiwan's external relations: balancing international space and cross-Strait relations | 171 |
| 10 From Leninist corporatist state to vibrant civil society: the emergence and role of social movements | 196 |
| 11 Is democracy working in Taiwan?: social welfare, political corruption and LGBT rights | 223 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| 12 Taiwan under divided government, 2000–8: the Chen Shui-bian era | 249 |
| 13 Taiwan under Ma Ying-jeou and Tsai Ing-wen | 267 |
| 14 A multitude of political miracles and future challenges | 283 |

| | |
|------------|-----|
| References | 294 |
| Index | 307 |