

Contents

Contributors	ix
Acknowledgements	xii
1 Introduction	1
JUSTIN QUINN AND GABRIELA KLECKOVA
2 Teaching English as an international language: Implications for literature courses in teacher preparation programs	24
AYA MATSUDA
3 The shifting faces of English-language teaching	37
DENISE E. MURRAY AND MARYANN CHRISTISON
4 Interculturalism and literary representation	51
JUSTIN QUINN
5 Moving between worlds: Pedagogies of spatial and cultural mobility in children's literature	64
GÜL BILGE HAN
6 Literature through Culture × Person × Situation	79
CHARLES HALL
7 Literature, political conflict and intercultural understanding: Teaching the Northern Irish Troubles	92
CHARLES I. ARMSTRONG
8 Cultural intelligence and literature	106
BRAD VICE

9 Languages at play: Teaching intercultural awareness with J. M. Coetzee	121
CHARLOTTA ELMGREN
10 Immigrant literature and its use in second-language teacher education	134
JEAN MARIE SCHULTZ
11 Ishiguro and politeness theory	150
BRAD VICE
12 World Englishes, English as a lingua franca, and literature	162
VERONIKA QUINN NOVOTNÁ AND JIŘINA DUNKOVÁ
13 Innovation in second-language teacher education	175
GABRIELA KLECKOVA
14 A new intercultural curriculum for literature and culture in English-language teacher preparation	190
GABRIELA KLECKOVA, JUSTIN QUINN, AND BRAD VICE
15 Conclusion	201
GABRIELA KLECKOVA AND JUSTIN QUINN
Index	204