

CONTENTS

01	Introduction	1
	Resourcing and talent management	2
	What is resourcing?	3
	What is talent management?	6
	Decision-making and evaluation	8
	Adding value	10
	Operations and strategy	13
	Integration with other HRM activities	17
02	The resourcing and talent management environment	19
	Introduction	20
	The political context	20
	The economic context	22
	The social context	24
	The technological context	26
	The legal context	29
	The environmental context	32
03	Human resource planning	34
	What is HR planning?	35
	Stages in traditional human resource planning	35
	Forecasting future demand for human resources	37
	Forecasting internal supply	42
	Forecasting external supply	43
	IT applications	45
	The use of HR planning in practice	47
	The case against HR planning	49
	The case for HR planning	51
	Adapting traditional HR planning	55
	HR planning in an international context	61
04	Job analysis and job design	63
	Managing vacancy scenarios	63
	Job analysis	65
	Problems with the job analysis approach	76
	Competency frameworks	77
	Job design	81
	Job sculpting	86

05 Recruitment advertising 89

- Introducing recruitment 89
- Internal recruitment 92
- External recruitment 94
- Advertising in the media 95
- Style and wording 97
- Social media 102

06 Alternative recruitment methods 105

- Informal approaches 106
- Agencies 109
- Education liaison 114

07 Employer branding 119

- Introduction 119
- Brands and brand management 120
- Defining employer branding 123
- The benefits of employer branding 124
- Establishing an employer brand 128
- Employer rebranding exercises 138
- Debates about employer branding 140

08 Selection – the classic trio 144

- Research in employee selection 144
- Application forms 149
- Shortlisting 153
- Electronic sifting 154
- Problems with interviews 156
- The survival of the traditional interview 158
- Varieties of interview format 160
- Varieties of interview question 162
- Structuring interviews 165
- Remote interviews 167
- Employment references 168
- Criminal record checks 170

09 Advanced methods of employee selection 172

- Biodata 173
- Ability testing 175
- Personality testing 182
- Professional issues in the use of selection tests 189
- Assessment centres 191

10 The new employee 197

- Contracts of employment 198
- Specific contractual terms 202
- The psychological contract 205
- Induction 208

11 Performance management strategies 215

- Introduction 216
- Perspectives on performance management 217
- Obtaining data about performance 220
- Negotiation 227
- Persuasion 228
- Discipline 231
- Reward 234
- Working environments 237
- Counselling 240
- Further thinking about performance management 241

12 Performance appraisal 245

- Introduction 246
- The rise of performance appraisal 247
- Varieties of performance appraisal 248
- Aims of appraisal 252
- Problems with performance appraisal 253
- Legal and ethical issues 257
- Appraising a flexible workforce 260
- Customer-based appraisal 261
- A defence of performance appraisal 261
- 360-degree appraisal 262
- Practicalities 264
- Replacing performance appraisal 268

13 Managing absence 271

- Introduction 271
- Measuring absence 273
- Costing absence 276
- The causes of absence 278
- Reducing absence levels 283
- Absence in the public sector 287
- Evidence-based absence management 294

14 Succession planning	296	10 The new employee 182
Introduction	296	11 Contracts of employment 188
What is succession planning?	297	12 Specific contractual terms 205
Traditional approaches	303	13 The psychological contract 208
Contemporary approaches	305	14 Induction 208
Alumni	308	15 Performance management systems 212
Social media	182	16 Introduction 214
15 Measuring and analysing employee turnover	311	17 Perspectives on performance 218
Defining voluntary turnover	312	18 Perspectives on performance 220
Does turnover matter?	313	19 Opportunities 220
Measuring turnover	317	20 Negotiation 222
Costing turnover	323	21 Discretion 224
Data analytics	331	22 Reward 224
Benchmarking turnover	332	23 Concessions 226
16 Improving employee retention	335	24 Future directions 226
Reasons for leaving	336	25 Performance appraisals 228
Exit routes	338	26 Introduction 230
Diagnostic tools	341	27 The role of performance appraisals 232
Reducing turnover	350	28 Aims of appraisals 234
Employee retention and reward	352	29 Aims of appraisals 234
Employee retention and developmental opportunities	356	30 Rewards with performance appraisals 234
Employee retention and effective line management	358	31 People with special issues 235
17 Retirement	363	32 Legal and ethical issues 235
Introduction	363	33 Applying a flexible workforce 236
Population ageing	364	34 Characteristics of best practice 236
Employing older workers	366	35 A distinctive of best practice 236
Pension issues	369	36 360-degree appraisals 236
Age discrimination law	371	37 Practical best practice 236
Early retirement	372	38 Robust best practice 236
Preparing employees for retirement	372	39 Managing expenses 238
Post-retirement contact	374	40 Introduction 238
18 Dismissals	375	41 Managing expenses 238
Introduction	375	42 Costs of special 238
Introduction to the law of unfair dismissal	376	43 The costs of special 238
Fair and unfair reasons	377	44 Reducing special 238
Reasonableness	379	45 Assessing in the public sector 238
Misconduct and poor performance	382	46 Evidence-based specialism 238
Ill-health dismissals	385	47 Assessing in the public sector 238
Documentation	388	48 Reducing specialism 238

- Notice periods 389
- Unfair dismissal claims 390
- Qualifications and remedies 391
- Wrongful dismissal 393
- Best practice 394

19 Redundancy 396

- Defining redundancy 397
- Avoiding redundancies 399
- Selecting people for redundancy 403
- Providing help for redundant employees 406
- Redundancy payments 409
- Managing the survivors 410
- Other legal issues 412
- Offers of alternative work 414
- Individual cases 415

20 Resourcing and talent management strategies 416

- Introduction 417
- Taking a strategic approach 417
- Aligning HR practices with business strategy 420
- Other models 425
- Alternative views of the HR–business strategy link 426
- Talent management strategies 433

References 439

Index 465