

Contents

List of Figures and Tables	vii
Notes on Contributors	viii
Acknowledgements	ix
Series Preface	x

PART I Introducing Older Worker Job Transitions in a Neoliberal Era

1	Job Transitions in Older Age in an Era of Neoliberal Responsibilisation David Lain, Sarah Vickerstaff and Mariska van der Horst	3
2	The Social Construction of Work and Retirement: Changing Transitions and 'Work-endings' Chris Phillipson	33

PART II European Experiences of Older Worker Transitions

3	Job Redeployment of Older Workers in UK Local Government David Lain, Sarah Vickerstaff and Mariska van der Horst	53
4	Time, Precarization and Age Normality: On Internal Job Mobility among Men in Manual Work in Sweden Clary Krekula	74
5	Temporary Older Workers in Belgium as a Demonstration of a Paradoxical Situation Nathalie Burnay	97
6	Attempted Transitions from Unemployment in Italy Emma Garavaglia	114
7	Divorced Women Working Past Pension Age in Germany and the UK: The Long Shadow of the Female Homemaker Model Anna Hokema	134
8	Expectations of Transitions to Retirement in Ireland Áine Ní Léime	158

PART III Conclusions and Discussion

9	Retirement and Responsibilisation: Current Narratives about the End of Working Life David Lain, Sarah Vickerstaff and Mariska van der Horst	183
---	---	-----

Index		194
-------	--	-----