

CHAPTER I Introduction 9

CHAPTER II England 33

- 1 The restoration of Salisbury Cathedral 34
- 2 The 'Pulpitum' in York Minster 57
- 3 Sir George Gilbert Scott and his critics 60

CHAPTER III France 83

- 1 Jean-Philippe Schmit and the Comité des Arts et Monuments 84
- 2 The restoration of Notre-Dame 95
- 3 The cathedral of Évreux 104
- 4 The prestige of Viollet-le-Duc: Sens and Roermond 118
- 5 Viollet-le-Duc: rationality and restoration 126

CHAPTER IV The German-speaking countries 141

- 1 The beginnings of restoration theory in Germany 142
- 2 Franz Kugler in Magdeburg (1832) 151
- 3 Ferdinand von Quast (1807-1877) 156
- 4 The Frauenkirche in Munich (1858-1877) 161
- 5 'An incomplete work is the same as one that has been destroyed' 168
- 6 Heidelberg Castle 176

CHAPTER V The Netherlands 187

- 1 The parliamentary debate on the Ridderzaal 188
- 2 J. VerLoren versus Victor de Stuers 205
- 3 Imitation is anti-art: a debate in 1917 212
- 4 A losing battle (1917-1953) 223

CHAPTER VI Restoration principles in the modern world 235

- 1 International declarations of principles 236
- 2 Artistic prejudice 239
- 3 1887: a warning that was not heeded 252
- 4 Artistic arrogance 254

SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY 267

NOTES 279

INDEX 315