

Table of contents

Acknowledgements 7

Preface 17

Keynote contributions

Economization of animals: the case of marketization of halal foods
M. Miele 21

The virtue of simplicity
P. Cafaro and J. Gambrel 24

Placing and scaling ethical choices: ethical consumption and ethical public procurement
D. Kleine 29

Intellectual property rights and food security: the role of external relations
S. Hongladarom 31

Section 1. Market and policy

Impacts of sustainability labels on consumers' purchasing decisions for fish
D. Buergelt, I.B. Christoph-Schulz, P. Salamon and D. Weible 39

Food for good: social movement organizations making sustainable markets for 'good food'
G. Kallio 46

Who owns hazard? The role of ownership in the GM social experiment
Z. Robaey 51

Category management in Swedish food retail: challenges in ethical sourcing
J.P. Rotter, P.-E. Airike and C. Mark-Herbert 54

Consumer perspectives on ethics in garment consumption: perceptions of purchases and disposal
J. Jönsson, T. Wätthammar and C. Mark-Herbert 59

The international regulation of the food market: precedents and challenges
D.S. Calley 64

Precaution or prudent vigilance as guiding the path to global food security?
M. Kaiser 71

Certification for sustainable biofuels
A.J.K. Pols 77

The ethics of consumption

Employing the capability approach in assigning individual responsibility for sustainable development	83
L. Voget-Kleschin

Crop protection in horticulture: how to rescue growers from punishment for shortfall of control agents?	89
J.S. Buurma and V. Beekman

'Oil versus fish' in northern Norway: perspectives of the market, the law, and the citizen	94
A. Blanchard

Food consumerism in today's China: towards a more experience-oriented economy?	100
S. Andersen Øyen

Section 2. Labelling and market forces

The relevance of sustainability for the consumer in a food context: a segmentation analysis	107
F. Vanhonacker, E.J. Van Loo, X. Gellynck and W. Verbeke

'Unnecessary suffering' as a concept in animal welfare legislation and standards	114
F. Lundmark, C. Berg and H. Röcklinsberg

Animal welfare labelling: is the market the right governance structure to meet people's moral concerns?	120
F. Pirscher

Why pure procedural justice doesn't remove the individual responsibility to make right economic judgments	126
A. el-Wakil

Section 3. Legal issues in food production and consumption

The gullible consumer in EU food law	135
W.W. Huizing Edinger

Ethics and consumerism: legal promotion of ethical consumption?	141
F. Dias Simões

Local foods, food quality and agricultural soil consumption: new challenges for the European Union	147
S. Montaldo

Section 4. Citizenship and consumers

- The choice that disappeared: on the complexity of being a political consumer 154
M. Gjerris and H. Saxe
- Green food consumption: whose responsibility? 160
S. Meisch
- Shaping the context and content of food choices 166
K. Grill
- The consumer does not exist: overcoming the citizen/consumer paradox by shifting focus 172
S. Aerts
- Consumer citizenship: a self-contradictory concept? 177
A. Kallhoff
- The impossibility of an ethical consumer 183
J. Karlsson
- Getting the message across: the importance of information in Fair Trade marketing 189
R. Schleenbecker and U. Hamm
- Closer to nature: the ethics of 'green' representations in animal product marketing 195
S. Borkfelt, S. Kondrup and M. Gjerris
- Towards a broader understanding of citizenship in policy debate on food advertising to children 201
C.L. Mah, B. Cook, S. Hoang and E. Taylor

Section 5. Animal husbandry and innovative meat production

- Comfort, health and production: Portuguese dairy farmers talk about animal welfare 209
S. Silva, M. Magalhães-Sant'Ana, J. Borlido Santos and I.A.S. Olsson
- Farmers' views on the impact of breeding traits on profitability, animal welfare and environment 215
A. Wallenbeck, T. Ahlman, L. Rydhmer and H. Röcklinsberg
- The welfare of dairy cattle: perspectives of industry stakeholders 221
B.A. Ventura, M.A.G. von Keyserlingk and D.M. Weary
- Gnawing doubt: eating animals and the promise of cultured meat 225
L. Ursin
- Innovation and recognition of food and farming styles 230
M. Korthals
- Large scale insect rearing and animal welfare 236
D.M. De Goede, J. Erens, E. Kapsomenou and M. Peters

Section 6. Animal philosophy

- Beneath the surface: killing of fish as a moral problem 245
B. Bovenkerk and F.L.B. Meijboom
- In awe of fish? Exploring animal ethics for non-cuddly species 251
C.P.G. Driessen
- Fish welfare, environment and food security: a pragmatist virtue ethics approach 257
R. Anthony, M. Gjerris and H. Röcklinsberg
- Animal welfare, consumer behaviour, and public policy 263
J.L. Harfeld
- The 'secret' of killing animals 268
M. Huth
- More than harm: a critical analysis of the harm principle in Regan's thinking 273
K. Keerus, M. Gjerris and H. Röcklinsberg
- Dignity of creature: beyond suffering and further 279
S. Camenzind
- The moral status of animals: a relational approach 284
B.K. Myskja
- Meat and the benefits of ambivalence 290
C.N. van der Weele

Section 7. Sustainable aquaculture

- AquAdvantage or disadvantage: social and legal pros and cons of genetically modified fish 299
E. Issatt
- Comparing the ethics of capture fisheries and aquaculture 305
M.E. Lam
- Whose sustainability counts? Engaging with debates on the sustainability of Bangladeshi shrimp 313
S. Bremer, A.S. Haugen and M. Kaiser

Section 8. Food philosophy

Personalised nutrition and social justice: ethical considerations within four future scenarios from the perspective of Nussbaum's capabilities approach 321

K. Nordström and J. Goossens

Individual animal welfare and the collective dimension of sustainability: the role of animal welfare in developments towards sustainable food production and consumption 328

F.L.B. Meijboom

Ethics of authenticity of food: analogies from biodiversity protection 333

H. Siipi

Section 9. Technology, society and ethics

Justifying pro-poor innovation in the life sciences: a brief overview of the ethical landscape 341

C. Timmermann

Scaling values: a perspective from philosophy of technology 347

A.H. Kiran

The knowledge society as pleonasm: towards mobilisation of social intelligence in the agricultural and food domain 353

V. Beekman and H. Dagevos

Section 10. Animal welfare

Ethical concerns beyond the border: how European animal welfare policies reach Brazil 361

C. Maciel and B. Bock

Reasoning rejection of factory farming: the importance of aesthetic and eudaimonistic arguments 366

L. Voegt-Kleschin and M. Langanke

Hunting for food in environmental ethics 371

G. van Wieren

Tail docking in the EU: a case of routine violation of an EU Directive 374

H. Lerner and B. Algers

The reintegration of animals and slaughter into discourses of meat eating 379

J. Gutjahr

Does the society perceive its own responsibility for modern pig production? 386

D. Weible, I.B. Christoph-Schulz and P. Salamon

Section 11. Food in the public sphere

Public sector food procurement in UK local authorities: ethics and sustainability 395
M. Stein

The scientifically motivated regulation of food: a discursive analysis of the EU health claims regulation on omega-3 fatty acids 399
M. Döring and S. Stirn

Obesity and costs of low energy density foods: a case for state against consumer responsibility 405
V. Sodano and F. Verneau

Can healthy eating at school be considered a human right? 412
B.E. Mikkelsen

Potential of transformative consumer learning for governance for animal welfare by public catering? 417
M. Mikkola and A. Morley

School meals: bridging the gap between citizen expectations, procurement skills and legislation 423
N. Lindström and H. Röcklinsberg

Section 12. Community and culture

Contextualising food policy to the citizen: religions as a paradigm 431
D.M. Bruce

The ethics of consuming: community, agency, and participation in global food systems 437
D. Beck, M. Ivanovic, S. Noll and I. Werkheiser

Section 13. Teaching veterinarians

Vethics: professional ethics for veterinary officers 451
H. Grimm and K.L. Weich

Assessment of effects of ethics teaching to 1st year veterinary students by using the ethical reasoning tool 457
T. Dich, T. Hansen and P. Sandøe

Section 14. Poster session

Who is a 'consumer' on food law: some reflections on the notion of consumer and the EU food law 465
A. Arroyo Aparicio

Food safety and ethical responsibility in a globalized world – the role of private standards C. Carlsson	471
Societal conformity of conventional and diversifying pork production systems in five European countries K.H. de Greef	476
The legal clash between public health, environmental protection and the free market of GMOs: the Cartagena protocol and the WTO agreements L. Escajedo San Epifanio	482
Mediterranean diet and sustainable food habits: the case of Neapolitan children M.T. Gorgitano and V. Sodano	487
Knowledge synthesis and dissemination in organic research in Sweden: integrating ethics S. Gunnarsson, P. Fredriksson, R. Hoffmann, B. Johansson, A. Mie, U. Nilsson, E. Rööf, E. Salomon, C. Sundberg, K. Ullén, A. Wallenbeck, C. Winqvist and M. Wivstad	494
Water consumption in rural areas: limits of the ethics of water use – study case of Kurdistan Region, Iraq R. Harun, F.H. Arion and I.C. Muresan	499
Success and failure of transnational certification regimes J.-C. Janssen	504
Sustainability index for beef production in Denmark and Sweden: preliminary results A. Munk, E. Søndergaard, T. Kristensen, L. Mogensen, N.I. Nielsen, M. Trinderup, R.S. Petersen and H.B. Bligaard	510
Stress-free slaughter of outdoor cattle K.J. Schiffer, S.K. Retz, M. von Wenzlawowicz and O. Hensel	516
Meating agriculture E. Schmid	522
Statistics on crimes committed to animals and changes in the animal welfare control in Sweden B. Staaf Larsson, L.J. Keeling and E. Hjerpe	528
Author index	535