

OUTLINE

	Page
INTRODUCTION	V
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	IX
TABLE OF CASES	XVII
 Introduction	 1
Chapter One. The Sources of Transna- tional Litigation Law	 4
Federal Legislation and Rules	4
Treaties and International Agreements	7
The Federal Common Law	8
Restatements of the Law	11
 Chapter Two. Jurisdiction Over Non- Nationals and Non-Residents	 13
Forum Selection Clauses	14
Interpretation of forum selection clauses	14
Validity of forum selection clauses	17
(a) Contractual validity of the forum se- lection agreement	 20
(b) Availability and adequacy of the cho- sen forum	 23
(c) Non-alienability of the cause of action	26
Forum non conveniens and choice of forum clauses	 29
Bremen in federal diversity cases	31

OUTLINE

	Page
Jurisdiction in the Absence of a Selection	34
Statutory personal jurisdiction	35
(a) State courts	35
(b) Federal courts	37
The “due process” dimension	39
(a) General jurisdiction	44
(b) Specific jurisdiction	49
(c) Quasi-in-rem jurisdiction	51
The Internet and personal jurisdiction	53
“Aggregation” of national contacts	55
Piercing the jurisdictional veil	61
(a) “Alter ego” analysis	61
(b) Agency theory	65
Plaintiff’s nationality	68
The Timing of Jurisdictional Objections	69
 Chapter Three. Subject Matter Jurisdiction Over Transnational Disputes ...	 70
Diversity and “Alienage” Jurisdiction	73
Federal Question Jurisdiction	77
General federal question jurisdiction	77
Specific federal question jurisdiction	79
Subject Matter and Personal Jurisdiction	82
Venue	83
 Chapter Four. Parallel Litigation	 86
International Forum Non Conveniens	89
General considerations	91
Available alternative forum	93
The Balance of considerations	95
Plaintiff’s nationality	98
Change in applicable law	100
Conditions of dismissal	102

OUTLINE

	Page
Federalism aspects.....	103
International Lis Pendens.....	106
Anti-Suit Injunctions	110
 Chapter Five. “Sovereignty” Limita- tions on the Exercise of Jurisdic- tion.....	 117
Foreign Sovereign Immunity.....	118
From common law to the FSIA.....	118
The FSIA	120
(a) The Legislative framework.....	120
(b) “States” and “agencies or instrumen- talities”	124
(c) Exceptions to immunity.....	128
(i) Waiver.....	129
(ii) Commercial activity.....	132
(iii) Takings of property in violation of international law	138
(iv) Property rights acquired by suc- cession or gift or pertaining to US real estate	140
(v) Non-commercial torts	140
(vi) Arbitral matters.....	146
(vii) Acts of terrorism.....	147
(viii) Admiralty	151
(d) Counterclaims.....	151
(e) Retroactivity of the FSIA.....	153
(f) Attachment of foreign sovereign prop- erty	154
(g) Suits by aliens against foreign states ..	160
(h) Default	161
Head of State or Government Immunity	162

OUTLINE

	Page
The Act of State Doctrine	167
Definitional aspects.....	170
Exceptions to the act of state doctrine	175
(a) Commercial exception	175
(b) The Bernstein exception	176
(c) Counterclaim exception	177
(d) Treaty exception.....	179
Congressional exclusion of the act of state doctrine.....	180
Political Questions and International Comity ..	183
The “Dormant” Foreign Affairs and Foreign Commerce Power	188
Foreign Sovereign Compulsion	192
 Chapter Six. International Human Rights Cases	 195
The Alien Tort Claim Statute	195
The Torture Victim Protection Act.....	204
Treaties and Customary International Law as a Source of Private Legal Claims	208
Universal Jurisdiction	210
 Chapter Seven. Choice of Law and the Applicable Law.....	 211
Choice of Law Clauses	215
Interpretation of choice of law clauses	215
Validity of the choice of law clause	217
(a) Whose law determines the validity of the clause?.....	218
(b) Limits on party autonomy	220
Choice of Law in the Absence of a Selection.....	223
Federal versus state law	224
Conflicts methodologies	226

OUTLINE

	Page
(a) The Second Restatement	227
(b) Forum public policy in the transna- tional context	229
Treaty law	231
Mandatory Rules of Law	232
Constitutional Limits on the Application of Forum Law	235
The "Extraterritorial" Application of US Law	237
Presumption against extraterritorial applica- tion of domestic law	237
(a) Narrowed statutory construction	238
(b) Balancing of factors	238
The "Timberlane" rule of reason	240
(a) Subject matter jurisdiction versus merits	243
(b) Subject matter jurisdiction versus comity	244
(c) Hartford Fire Ins. Co. v. California	246
Extraterritorial Causes of Action and Extrater- ritorial Application Of Constitutional Rights	247
The Application of Foreign Tax, Penal and "Public" Law	249
Pleading and Proof of Foreign Law	255
 Chapter Eight. Transnational Service and Production of Evidence	 262
Service of Documents Abroad	262
The Federal Rules	263
US service under foreign law	266
Service of Foreign Judicial Documents in the US	269
The Hague Service Convention	270

OUTLINE

	Page
Workings of the Convention	271
Scope and exclusivity of the Convention	274
Obtaining Evidence Abroad	277
The Federal Rules	278
Production by non-parties	283
Jurisdiction to order jurisdictional discovery	285
“Foreign Blocking Legislation” and its Effects	286
Conflicts Between US Discovery Orders and Foreign Law	289
Societe Internationale Pour Participations Industrielles et Commerciales v. Rogers	291
(a) Production order or not?	292
(b) Sanctions or not?	294
The Third Restatement	295
Production of Evidence for Use in Foreign Judicial Proceedings	300
The Hague Evidence Convention	304
Scope of the Evidence Convention	305
Exclusivity of the Convention	311
 Chapter Nine. Transnational Provisional Relief	315
Ordering “Extraterritorial” Provisional Relief	316
Provisional Relief in Aid of Enforcing a Foreign Judgment	321
 Chapter Ten. Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Judgments	328
Foreign vs. Sister-State Judgments	330
The Uniform Foreign Country Money-Judgments Recognition Act	335
Reviewing Personal Jurisdiction and Notice	338
Impartiality, Procedural Due Process and Fraud	345
Judgments Contrary to Forum Public Policy ...	347

OUTLINE

	Page
Other Grounds for Non-Recognition and Non-Enforcement	350
Reciprocity	351
The Case of Foreign "Default" Judgments	351
Revenue and Penal Judgments	353
Enforcement of Non-Monetary Judgments	355
The Collateral Estoppel Effect of Foreign Judgments	356
Procedure in Enforcement Actions	357
The Currency of Foreign Judgments	359
Recognition and Enforcement of US Judgments Abroad	362
Treaty Regimes for the Enforcement of Foreign Judgments	363
 Chapter Eleven. Judicial Intervention in International Commercial Arbitration	 365
International Arbitral Institutions	366
The International Arbitration Framework in US Law	369
The Role of US Courts Prior to the Arbitral Procedure	373
Compelling arbitration	374
(a) Validity of the arbitration agreement	376
(b) Interpretation of the arbitration agreement	380
(i) Interpretation questions	381
(ii) The Reach of the agreement to arbitrate: the First Options case	384
(iii) Choice of law governing interpretation	385

OUTLINE

	Page
Federalism aspects of international arbitration in US courts	386
The Arbitrability of Statutory Claims	389
Judicial Intervention in the Arbitral Process ...	397
Judicial assistance in launching the arbitration	397
Interlocutory review of arbitral procedural rulings	401
Arbitral Choice of Law	402
Judicial Review of the Award	404
Confirmation and vacatur of arbitral awards	405
(a) Confirmation proceedings	405
(b) Vacatur of awards.....	406
Recognition and enforcement of foreign arbitral awards	409
(a) Convention grounds for non-recognition and non-enforcement.....	412
(b) US case law on recognition and enforcement of Convention awards.....	415
INDEX	423