

Contents

List of Abbreviations	ix
List of Contributors	xi
Table of Cases	xiii
Table of Legislation	xxvii

Introduction	1
Göran Sluiter and Alexander Zahar

I. A DISTANT COURT

1. Assessing the Impact of the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia: Balancing International and Local Interests While Doing Justice	7
Kimi L King and James D Meernik
2. The Impact Question: The ICTY and the Restoration and Maintenance of Peace	55
Janine Natalya Clark

II. PROCESS AND RIGHTS: THREE VIEWS

3. The ICTY as a Laboratory of International Criminal Procedure	83
Alex Whiting
4. Procedural Structure and Features of International Criminal Justice: Lessons from the ICTY	108
Albin Eser
5. Rights in Criminal Proceedings under the ECHR and the ICTY Statute—A Precarious Comparison	149
Stefan Trechsel

III. BATTLEFIELDS

6. Unity and Division in Decision Making—The Law and Practice on Individual Opinions at the ICTY	191
Göran Sluiter
7. The Crime of Persecution in the ICTY Case-law	219
Jonas Nilsson
8. Complicity in Genocide and the Duality of Responsibility	247
Nina HB Jørgensen

9. Justifications and Excuses in International Criminal Law: An Assessment of the Case-law of the ICTY
Harmen van der Wilt 275
10. Regulation of Defence Counsel: An Evolution Towards Restriction and Legitimacy
Nancy Amoury Combs 296
11. Proportional Sentences at the ICTY
Jens David Ohlin 322

IV. IMPROVISATION AND DISCOVERY

12. The ICTY's Continuing Struggle with the Right to Self-representation
Jarinde Temminck Tuinstra 345
13. Command Responsibility at the ICTY—Three Generations of Case-law and still Ambiguity
Elies van Sliedregt 377
14. 'Special Agreements' between Conflicting Parties in the Case-law of the ICTY
Luisa Vierucci 401
15. The ICTY and its Relationship with National Jurisdictions: Powers, Limits, and Misconceptions
Kimberly Prost 434
16. Civilizing Civil War: Writing Morality as Law at the ICTY
Alexander Zahar 469

V. LEGACY IN BRICKS AND MORTAR

17. 'Best Before Date Shown': Residual Mechanisms at the ICTY
Guido Acquaviva 507

- Index* 537