

Table of Contents

|   |       |
|---|-------|
| Table of Cases   | xv    |
| Table of Treaties, Legislation, and Other Legal Instruments                            | xxiii |
| List of Acronyms   | xxvii |
| 1. Introduction  | 1     |
| I. Judicial Development of International Law and the Growth of International Courts           | 1     |
| II. Integration and Fragmentation in the International Legal System                           | 4     |
| III. Methodology  | 10    |
| IV. Structure   | 13    |
| 2. Genocide  | 14    |
| I. Introduction   | 14    |
| II. The Context in which the Law on Genocide is being Adjudicated                             | 16    |
| A. Two regimes for responsibility   | 16    |
| B. Multiple systems for enforcement   | 21    |
| III. The Required Intent  | 24    |
| IV. Other Aspects of Article II of the Convention   | 35    |
| A. Nature of the protected group  | 36    |
| B. Nature of the destruction  | 40    |
| C. In whole or in part  | 46    |
| V. Interplay between State Responsibility for Genocide and Individual Criminal Responsibility | 50    |
| A. Prerequisites for holding states and individuals responsible                               | 50    |
| B. State and individual complicity in genocide  | 52    |
| C. Remedies and the obligations to prevent and punish   | 56    |
| VI. Conclusion  | 59    |
| 3. Immunities  | 62    |
| I. Introduction   | 62    |
| II. The Context in which Immunity Issues are being Adjudicated                                | 65    |
| A. Expanding national jurisdiction  | 65    |
| B. Efforts to remove immunity   | 68    |
| III. Immunity ratione personae   | 72    |
| A. Who does it apply to?  | 73    |
| B. Which acts are covered?  | 75    |
| C. Any exception for international crimes?  | 76    |

|   |         |
|---|---------|
| IV. Immunity ratione materiae                                    | 81      |
| A. Who does it apply to?  | 82      |
| B. Which acts are covered?  | 83      |
| C. Any exception for international crimes?                              | 87      |
| V. State Immunity   | 91      |
| A. Acta jure imperii and acta jure gestionis              | 92      |
| B. Any exception for violations of international law?                   | 94      |
| VI. Conclusion  | 100     |
| 4. Use of Force   | 103 |
| I. Introduction   | 103     |
| II. Threat or Use of Force  | 106     |
| A. Definition of threat of force  | 106     |
| B. Definition of use of force   | 109     |
| C. Use of force and title to territory                                  | 111     |
| III. 'Armed Attack' for the Purpose of Self-Defence                     | 113     |
| A. Identity of the attacker   | 115     |
| B. Degree of gravity  | 117     |
| C. Anticipatory self-defence  | 120     |
| IV. The Crime of Aggression   | 122     |
| A. A brief history of the crime of aggression in international courts   | 122     |
| B. Bringing the crime of aggression within the jurisdiction of the ICC  | 125     |
| C. The relationship with the Security Council                           | 127     |
| D. Scenarios of fragmentation and integration                           | 130     |
| 1. ICC-Security Council   | 130     |
| 2. ICC-ICJ  | 131     |
| V. Consequences of a Finding of a Use of Force                          | 134     |
| A. Classification of the armed conflict                                 | 134     |
| B. Internationalization of conflicts and attribution of responsibility  | 137     |
| VI. Conclusion  | 140     |
| 5. Explaining Judicial Integration and Fragmentation                | 145 |
| I. Introduction   | 145     |
| II. How the Identity of the Court affects Integration and Fragmentation | 147     |
| A. Permanent vs ad hoc  | 147     |
| B. Function   | 153     |
| C. Institutional context  | 159     |

|  |         |
|--|---------|
| III. How the Substance of the Law affects Integration and Fragmentation  | 171     |
| A. Treaty or custom  | 171     |
| B. Level of development  | 177     |
| C. Level of controversy and change   | 179     |
| IV. How the Procedure of the Court affects Integration and Fragmentation   | 184     |
| A. Fact-finding and evidence   | 184     |
| B. Drafting and reasoning process  | 190     |
| C. Precedent and dialogue  | 194     |
| V. Conclusion  | 201     |
| 6. Conclusion  | 203 |
| I. Introduction  | 203     |
| II. Theoretical Implications for the Development of International Law by International Courts  | 204     |
| III. Models for Enhancing Judicial Integration   | 209     |
| A. Maximal models: imposing a hierarchy on the international legal system  | 210     |
| B. Intermediate models: borrowing from other regimes   | 214     |
| C. Minimal models: dialogue, ICJ leadership, and informal judicial networks  | 219     |
| D. A modified minimal model: structured dialogue, ICJ prominence, and involvement of other actors in establishing systematic legal norms | 221     |
| IV. Conclusion   | 227     |
| Bibliography  | 229 |
| Index   | 249     |