

Contents

Table of Cases	xliii
Introduction	1
The plea as one of mixed international and municipal law	1
The functions which State immunity serves	1
Three different phases of State immunity	2
The sources of the law of State immunity	3
The third postmodern phase of State immunity	4
Challenges to the retention of a plea of State immunity for acts in exercise of sovereign immunity	4
Challenges to the retention of State immunity for acts contrary to international law	5
Immunity from execution	6
State immunity as a case study of the structure of international law	7
 PART I OVERVIEW AND GENERAL PRINCIPLES
1. The Institution of Proceedings and the Nature of the Plea of State Immunity	11
The institution of proceedings	11
The different responses of the English courts with regard to proceedings relating to the act of a foreign State or its agents	14
Outline of the plea of State immunity	16
2. The Concept of the State and the Justification for State Immunity	23
✓ The concept of the State	23
Postmodernism and the concept of the State	25
The rationale for immunity	28
The arguments against State immunity viewed from the position of the State	33
✓ Justification for the restrictive doctrine of immunity	36
3. Theories relating to State Immunity and the Concept of Jurisdiction	40
✓ Theory and State immunity	40
✓ The concept of jurisdiction and the doctrine of State immunity	51
Conclusion	64

PART II THE SOURCES OF THE LAW OF STATE IMMUNITY

4.	Treaty Practice, Projects for Codification, and Municipal Law as Sources: The Development of the Restrictive Doctrine	67
	State practice as evidence of customary international law relating to State immunity	68
	The applicable law by which to determine State immunity	74
	Treaty practice as a source of State immunity law	77
	The European Convention on State Immunity 1972	94
	National legislation and decisions of national courts as evidence of customary international law	100
	The development of the restrictive doctrine of State immunity in common law countries	101
	The development of the restrictive doctrine of State immunity in civil law countries	118
5.	Current State Practice: English Law, US Law, and the ILC 1991 Draft on Jurisdictional Immunities of States and their Property	124
	A survey of the current position relating to State immunity	124
	UK State Immunity Act 1978	128
	US law of State immunity: before and after the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act 1976	183
	The 1991 Draft of the International Law Commission on the Jurisdictional Immunities of States and their Property	216

PART III THE CURRENT INTERNATIONAL LAW

6.	Accepted and Controversial Aspects of the Rules Relating to State Immunity and the Role of Consent of the Foreign State	257
	The current international law	257
	A general survey of the current international law relating to State immunity	258
	Consent express and implied: waiver and the arbitration exception	262
7.	The Exceptions to State Immunity	272
	The commercial exception	272
	The exception for infringement of intellectual property rights	303
	The exception for employment contracts	303
	The exception for personal injuries and tangible property	309
	Conclusion	321
8.	The Definition of the Foreign State	323
	External attributes as an independent and sovereign State	324
	Internal attributes of the State	330
9.	Immunity from Execution	368
	Overview of enforcement measures	369
	English law relating to immunity from execution of the State and its property	375

US law relating to immunity from execution of the State and its property	383
The development of a restrictive doctrine of immunity from execution of property of the State	388
Problems relating to a restricted rule of immunity from execution	401
Future models	411

PART IV INTERNATIONAL IMMUNITIES OTHER THAN STATE IMMUNITY

10. Heads of State, Diplomats and the Diplomatic Mission, Armed Forces, and International Organizations	421
Introduction	421
Heads of State	421
Sources of law	426
The rationale for immunities of a head of State	426
The position of head of State in international law	427
Applicable law	433
Immunities of the head of State	437
Diplomats and the Diplomatic Mission	448
Armed forces	461
International organizations	467

PART V CURRENT AND FUTURE PROBLEMS

11. State Immunity as a Personal Plea, Distinguished from the Doctrines of Act of State and Non-justiciability	477
Status of the defendant or subject-matter of the dispute as the basis of the plea	477
Act of State	481
Non-justiciability	489
12. State Immunity from Criminal Jurisdiction: The Answerability of State Officials for the Commission of International Crimes	503
The classical rule	503
Criminal jurisdiction of the forum State over a foreign State	505
Position of the official: non-answerability in municipal law	509
Conclusion	515
13. Immunity for Acts Unlawful in International Law: The Exhaustion of Local Remedies	517
✓ Current State practice relating to an exception to State immunity for acts contrary to international law	518
Exhaustion of local remedies	520
✓ The concepts of jus cogens and universal jurisdiction	523
✓ The European Court of Human Rights	529
Challenge to the doctrine of State immunity from the individual's point of view	530
Conclusion	540

14. Conclusions and Future Models	541
How the issues have been presented in this book	541
The relevance of the State as a source of responsibility and accountability	543
Overall assessment of the value of the plea of State immunity	549
Future models	549
Bibliography	557
Index	563