

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	ix
Series Editors' Preface	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii

Introduction
African Cooking and African History	1

PART ONE

Basic Ingredients	15
--------------------------	----

ONE Seasons and Seasonings
Africa's Geographic Endowments of the Edible	17
TWO Staples, Starches, and the Heat of Atlantic Circulation	32

PART TWO

Stirring the National Stew: Food and National Identity in Ethiopia	63
---	----

THREE Taytu's Feast
Cuisine and Nation in the New Flower, Ethiopia, 1887	65

FOUR Stirring a National Dish
Ethiopian Cuisine, 1500–2000	78

PART THREE

Africa's Cooking: Some Common Ground of Culture and of Cuisine	107
---	-----

FIVE A West African Culinary Grammar	109
--------------------------------------	-----

SIX History and Cookery in the Maize Belt and Africa's Maritime World	137
--	-----

VIII CONTENTS

PART FOUR

Africa's Global Menu	161
SEVEN Diaspora Cookery
Africa, Circulation, and the New World Pot	163
Epilogue
Some Good Comparative Readings	180
Appendix
Recipe List	185
Notes	187
Bibliography	199
Index	205