

Contents

---

List of contributors	vii
Preface	xi
1     Regulatory insights on artificial intelligence: research for policy Mark Findlay and Jolyon Ford	1
2     Editors' reflections Mark Findlay and Jolyon Ford	16
3     Artificial intelligence and sensitive inferences: new challenges for data protection laws Damian Clifford, Megan Richardson and Normann Witzleb	19
4     Revaluing labour? Secondary data imperialism in platform economies Mark Findlay and Josephine Seah	46
5     Gauging the acceptance of contact-tracing technology: an empirical study of Singapore residents' concerns and trust in information sharing Ong Ee Ing and Loo Wee Ling	71
6     Regulating personal data usage in COVID-19 control conditions Mark Findlay and Nydia Remolina	102
7     Editors' reflections Mark Findlay and Jolyon Ford	129
8     Coding legal norms: an exploratory essay Will Bateman	133
9     Artificial intelligence and the unconscionability principle Dilan Thampapillai	151
10    The possibilities of IF-THEN-WHEN Sally Wheeler	163

11	Doing it online: is mediation ready for the AI age? Nadja M Alexander	188
12	Editors' reflections Mark Findlay and Jolyon Ford	215
13	Ethical AI frameworks: the missing governance piece Jolyon Ford	219
14	The accountability of algorithms on social media platforms Philippa Ryan	240
15	Models and data trade regulation and the road to an agreement Henry Gao	262
	Index	277