

CONTENTS

Acknowledgement	xi
Preface	xiii
Abbreviations	xv
Table of Cases	xix

Part I Introductory

CHAPTER 1 SCOPE OF THE WORK, METHODOLOGY, THE BASIC PRINCIPLE	3
Scope of the Work	3
(a) International disputes	3
(b) International tribunals	8
Methodology	10
The Basic General Principle: A Fair Trial	13
International Criminal and Human Rights Tribunals	19
CHAPTER 2 SOURCES OF THE LAW AND AREAS OF APPLICATION OF GENERAL PRINCIPLES	21
CHAPTER 3 BASIC ELEMENTS OF AN INTERNATIONAL JUDICIAL PROCEEDING	31
Evidence, Pleadings and Indictments	31
Burden of Proof	34
The Burden of Evidence	37
The Relationship among the Components	42
Rules of Evidence	47
CHAPTER 4 PROOF: FACT AND LAW	50

Part II

General Principles

CHAPTER 5	THE PRINCIPLE ACTORI INCUMBIT ONUS PROBANDI	61
	The Established Principle	61
	(a) World Court cases	67
	(b) Other international tribunal cases	72
	Incidence of the Burden of Proof in General	75
	Division of the Burden of Proof	78
	Conclusions Regarding the Burden of Proof	88
	Policy Arguments against the Principle Actori Incumbit Onus Probandi as a Rule of Evidence	90
CHAPTER 6	OBLIGATION OF PARTIES TO CO-OPERATE	96
	Conventions, Statutes and Rules	98
	Precedents	101
	Consequences of the Principle	109
	Conclusions	114
CHAPTER 7	MEASURES TAKEN BY TRIBUNALS TO EFFECT CO-OPERATION	118
	Facilitation without Further Action by the Tribunal	118
	Facilitation Resulting in Subsequent Action by the Tribunal	126
	Inflicting Penalties	130
	Treatment of Specific Problems Relating to Evidentiary Co-operation	138
	(a) Difficulties in securing evidence in general	138
	(b) Documents in the possession of the other party	141
	(c) Voluminous evidence	143
	(d) Absence of a party	144

CHAPTER 8 MECHANICS OF PROOF: POWERS OF TRIBUNALS	147
Presentation of Pleadings and Evidence	148
Oral Proceedings	150
Acceptance or Refusal of Further Pleadings and Evidence	151
Measures Applied to Find Facts	152
 CHAPTER 9 ADMISSIBILITY OF EVIDENCE: POWERS OF TRIBUNALS	 163
Inadmissible Evidence	167
(a) Late-filed evidence	167
(b) Evidence obtained through settlement negotiations	174
(c) Evidence obtained by violation of international law	177
(d) Questionable reliability and damage to the integrity of the proceedings	180
(e) Time-barred evidence	180
(f) Irrelevant evidence	182
(g) Documents lacking authenticity	183
 CHAPTER 10 EVALUATION OF EVIDENCE	 185
Further Evidence not Required	188
Statements and Affidavits	189
Sworn Statements by Witnesses and Affidavits	195
Documentary Evidence	203
Best Evidence and Circumstantial Evidence	204
Conclusion	208

CHAPTER 11	PRESUMPTIONS AND INFERENCES	211
	Legal Presumptions	212
	Inferences or Judicial Presumptions	223
CHAPTER 12	STANDARD OF PROOF	232
	Proof beyond a Reasonable Doubt	235
	Proof in a Convincing Manner	239
	Preponderance of Evidence	241
	The Reasonable Conclusion	243
	Other Standards	245
	The Prima Facie Case	246
	Jurisdictional Issues and Prima Facie Evidence	258

Part III

Special Issues in Specific Tribunals

CHAPTER 13	PROOF AND EVIDENCE BEFORE THE ICJ: A SPECIAL PROBLEM	265
CHAPTER 14	SPECIAL PROBLEMS BEFORE INTERNATIONAL ADMINISTRATIVE TRIBUNALS	280
	Calling of Witnesses	284
	Production of Documents and Information	288
	(a) General	288
	(b) The treatment of claims of confidentiality	292
	The Use of Experts	305
	Conclusion	313

CHAPTER 15 SPECIAL ASPECTS OF EVIDENCE BEFORE THE ICTY	315
Admissibility and Weight of Evidence: General	316
(a) Direct evidence	323
(b) Indirect evidence	325
(c) Specific exclusions	326
Admissibility and Weight of Evidence: Hearsay	328
(a) Admission and exclusion of hearsay: different kinds of hearsay	330
(b) The tribunal's treatment of hearsay evidence: admissibility and weight	334
Protection of Victims and Witnesses	341
(a) Anonymity	347
(b) Closed sessions	351
(c) Measures to protect witnesses from retraumatization	353
Discovery and Disclosure of Evidence	354
(a) Prior statements of the accused	357
(b) Exculpatory material	358
(c) Notification obligations for witness testimony	361
(d) Additional disclosure obligations	363
 CHAPTER 16 SPECIAL ASPECTS OF EVIDENCE BEFORE THE IRAN-US CLAIMS TRIBUNAL	 365
The Burden of Proof and the Burden of Evidence	369
The Standard of Proof	373
Presumptions and Inferences	375
Admissibility and Evaluation of Evidence	381
(a) Categories of facts to be proved	381
(b) Categories of evidence adduced	386
(i) Oral testimony at hearings	386
(ii) Hearsay evidence	389
(iii) Affidavits	390

(iv) Photographs	394
(v) Technical reports	395
(vi) Experts appointed by the tribunal	396

Appendix

Provisions Relating to Evidence

I. PROVISIONS PERTAINING TO THE ICJ	401
(a) Statute of the ICJ	401
(b) Rules of Court of the ICJ, 1978	403
II. RULES OF THE UNAT, 1998	409
III. RULES OF PROCEDURE OF THE CJEC, 1991	414
IV. RULES OF COURT OF THE ECHR, 2002	424
V. RULES PERTAINING TO ARBITRATION	429
(a) Final Draft Articles on Arbitral Procedure of the ILC, 1958	429
(b) Rules on Arbitration of the PCA	431
(i) Hague Convention for the Pacific Settlement of Disputes, 1907	431
(ii) Optional Rules for Arbitrating Disputes between Two States, 1992	434
(c) Arbitration Rules of the ICSID, 1984	436
(d) Final Rules of the Iran-US Claims Tribunal, 1983	441
VI. PROVISIONS PERTAINING TO THE ICTY	446
(a) Statute of the ICTY, 1993	446
(b) Rules of Procedure and Evidence of the ICTY, 2002	447