

Contents

List of Figures	page vii
List of Tables	ix
List of Contributors	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii
1 Working in New Political Spaces: The Checkered History of Latin American Judicialization Sandra Botero, Daniel Brinks and Ezequiel Gonzalez-Ocantos	I
2 Critical Disconnects: Progressive Jurisprudence and Tenacious Impunity in Mexico Janice K. Gallagher and Jorge Contesse	39
3 When Winning in the Courts Is Not Enough: Abortion and the Limits of Legal Mobilization without Grassroots Involvement in Peru Camila Gianella	66
4 Forms of Countermovement and Counter-Reform in Latin America: Judicial Backlash or Resources and Political and Legal Opportunities? Alba Ruibal	89
5 Backlash against State-Strengthening Reforms: The Rise and Fall of the CICIG in Guatemala Rachel E. Bowen	115
6 Backlash against Corporate Accountability for Grave Human Rights Violations in Colombia Laura Bernal-Bermúdez	139

7	Courting Judicial Legitimacy: An Experimental Study of the Colombian Constitutional Court Sofía Forero-Alba and Juan Carlos Rodríguez-Raga	164
8	Family Ties and Nepotism in the Mexican Federal Judiciary Julio Ríos-Figueroa	195
9	Judicial Corruption: The Constitutional Court of Ecuador in Comparative Perspective Santiago Basabe-Serrano	217
10	Kickbacks, Crackdown, and Backlash: Legal Accountability in the Lava Jato Investigation Luciano Da Ros and Matthew M. Taylor	242
11	Turning Corruption Trials into Political Tools in the Name of Transparency: The Lava Jato Case Mariana Mota Prado and Marta Rodriguez Machado	266
12	Fighting Corruption, Dismantling Democracy: Antagonism, Communication, and the Political Use of Lava Jato in Brazil João Guilherme Bastos dos Santos and Esther Solano Gallego	289
13	Prosecutorial Agency, Backlash and Resistance in the Peruvian Chapter of Lava Jato Viviana Baraybar and Ezequiel Gonzalez-Ocantos	314
	Index	341