

ARTICLES:

Małgorzata Łuczyńska-Hołodys

Romantic fantasy and the grotesque in John Keats's "Lamia" 9

Quan Wang

Perverse, Anthropocentrism, and Posthumanism
in Two of Edgar Allan Poe's Stories 19

Bożena Kucała

Walking to Stay Alive: Sarah Moss's Lockdown Novel The Fell 37

Petr Chalupský

Transgressive Spatiality and Multiple Temporality in Jim Crace's Arcadia 49

Ema Jelínková

Trauma Narratives of Scottish Childhood in Janice Galloway's Short Stories 64

Vladimíra Fonfárová

The Postmodern Challenge of Historiography in Contemporary Canadian Fiction:
Kate Pullinger's Weird Sister and the Silent Voices in History 74

Šárka Bubíková, Olga Roebuck

Female Investigators: Rewriting the Masculine Narrative of Crime Fiction 89

Saba Azimi, Shideh Ahmadzadeh and Mahmoud Reza Ghorban Sabbagh

Catachrestic Divergence: in Marianne Moore's "The Monkey Puzzle" 100

Marek Gajda

The Role of Music in E. L. Doctorow's City of God 116

Tomáš Jajtner

The Lessons of Selborne: Gilbert White's Ruminations on Nature,
Humans and the World 126

STUDENT CONTRIBUTIONS:

Petra Kohlová

Acculturation in Chang-rae Lee's Native Speaker 139

Hedvika Pohlová

The Social Impact of the American Eugenics Movement 148

BOOK REVIEW:

Murders on the Campus [Review of The Contemporary Academic Mystery Novel: A Study in Genre by Elżbieta Perkowska-Gawlik (Peter Lang, 2021)] 167