

Contents

Introduction: Chris Ware and the "Cult of Difficulty"

Martha B. Kuhlman and David M. Ball ix

Contexts and Canons

Inventing Cartooning Ancestors: Ware and the Comics Canon

Jeet Heer 3

Masked Fathers: Jimmy Corrigan and the Superheroic Legacy

Jacob Brogan 14

The Limits of Realism: Alternative Comics and Middlebrow Aesthetics in the Anthologies of Chris Ware

Marc Singer 28

Chris Ware's Failures

David M. Ball 45

Artistic Intersections

Chris Ware and the Burden of Art History

Katherine Roeder 65

In the Comics Workshop: Chris Ware and the Oubapo

Martha B. Kuhlman 78

Comics and the Grammar of Diagrams

Isaac Cates 90

The Urban Landscape

On Modernism's Ruins: The Architecture of "Building Stories" and Lost Buildings

Daniel Worden 107

Chris Ware's "Building Stories," Gentrification, and the Lives of/in Houses

Matt Godbey 121

Reading History

Confronting the Intersections of Race, Immigration, and Representation
in Chris Ware's Comics

Joanna Davis-McElligatt 135

Public and Private Histories in Chris Ware's Jimmy Corrigan

Shawn Gilmore 146

Autobiography with Two Heads: Quimby the Mouse

Benjamin Widiss 159

Everyday Temporalities

Chris Ware and the Pursuit of Slowness

Georgiana Banita 177

Imagining an Idiosyncratic Belonging: Representing Disability in Chris Ware's "Building Stories"

Margaret Fink Berman 191

Past Imperfect: "Building Stories" and the Art of Memory

Peter R. Sattler 206

Appendix: A Guide to Chris Ware's Primary Works 223

Selected Bibliography 225

Contributors 231

Index 235