

Contents

Acknowledgements	xiii
Abbreviations	xv
Introduction	1
The Context of Post-Conflict Administration	2
Outline of the Argument	4
Methodology, Approach and Selection of Cases	6

PART I

MAPPING THE CONCEPT: THE ADMINISTRATION OF TERRITORY AND THE RECONSTRUCTION OF STATES FROM A HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE

Chapter 1. Early Forms of International Administration	15
A. The Saar Basin and the Free City of Danzig	15
B. The Upper Silesia Mixed Commission	18
C. The Proposed UN Administration of the Cities of Jerusalem and Trieste	19
D. Post-war Germany	21
E. The United Nations Temporary Executive Authority in West Irian	23
Chapter 2. Evolving Peace Operations	25
A. ONUC: Assisting the Congolese Government	25
B. The United Nations Council for South West Africa	27
C. Cambodia: Focusing on Elections	28
D. Restoring Peace and Stability in Somalia	30
E. Co-administration in Bosnia and Herzegovina	32
F. The Transitional Administration for Eastern Slovenia	33
Chapter 3. UN International Administrations, the ‘Light Footprint’ Approach and the Occupation of Iraq	37

A. The United Nations Interim Administration in Kosovo	37
B. The United Nations Transitional Authority in East Timor	40
C. Afghanistan: the 'Light Footprint' Approach	41
D. The Foreign Occupation of Iraq	45

PART II

INTERNATIONAL LAW, POST-CONFLICT ADMINISTRATIONS
AND PEACE-BUILDING. DEFINING THE LEGAL FRAMEWORK

Chapter 4. The Competence of the United Nations to Engage in Comprehensive Peace-building and International Territorial Administration	55
A. The Capacity of the United Nations to Administer Territory outside the Trusteeship System	55
B. The Legality of the Establishment of Post-conflict Administrations and Missions	59
1. UN Security Council	59
(a) Peacekeeping, Chapter VII and Implied powers	59
(b) State Failure as a Threat to International Peace and Security	64
(c) Security Council Action and Domestic Jurisdiction	68
(d) The Security Council and Self-determination	70
2. UN General Assembly	74
Chapter 5. The Legal Status of Territories and States under International Administration	77
A. 'Trust Territories', 'Protectorates' and 'International(ised) Territories'	77
B. Sovereignty and the Suspension or Limitation of Exclusive State Competences	82
C. International Legal Personality	85
Chapter 6. The Temporary Nature of Authority	91
Chapter 7. Human Rights Obligations of International Actors	95
A. Human Rights Obligations in Peace-building Missions	96
1. The UN Charter	96
2. Human Rights as Customary International Law	97
3. Human Rights and Foreign Military Components	101
4. Observations on the Attribution of Conduct	105

B.	Immunities	107
C.	Accountability Mechanisms in Practice: Ombudspersons and Judicial Review	111
Chapter 8.	The Laws of Occupation	117
A.	Belligerent Occupation of Foreign Territory	117
1.	The Territorial Status of Occupied Territories	120
2.	The Obligation to Respect the National Laws of the Occupied Territory	121
B.	The Laws of Occupation and Post-Conflict Reconstruction	122
1.	Peacekeeping Operations	122
2.	Peace-building Operations and Enforcement Action	123
3.	Post-conflict Administration	126

PART III

POST-CONFLICT ADMINISTRATIONS IN PRACTICE: INTERNATIONAL ADMINISTRATIONS, THE 'LIGHT FOOTPRINT' APPROACH, AND THE OCCUPATION OF IRAQ

Chapter 9.	Civil Administration	133
A.	Basic Civil Administration	134
1.	Kosovo: Replacing Parallel Structures	134
2.	East Timor: The Importance of a Long-term Engagement	138
3.	Afghanistan: The Challenges of Reform	142
4.	'De-ba'athification' of Iraqi Society	145
B.	Economic Reconstruction	148
1.	Kosovo's Transition towards a Free-market Economy	149
2.	'Timorising' the Economy	152
3.	Afghanistan: A 'Free for All Policy'?	155
4.	Iraq: Economic Reconstruction and the Laws of Occupation	157
C.	Security Sector Reform: Building National Law Enforcement and Defence Capacity	160
1.	Kosovo: Re-establishing Law and Order	162
2.	Ensuring Sustainability in East Timor	166
3.	Afghanistan: the Crucial Role of a Security Strategy	170
4.	Iraq: Demobilisation without Disarmament	175
D.	Emergency Relief, Refugees and Internally Displaced Persons	179
1.	Minorities in Kosovo	180
2.	Refugees in West Timor	182

3. Coordinating Returns in Afghanistan	184
4. Iraq: the Prerequisite of Physical Safety	186
Chapter 10. The Rule of Law and Judicial Reconstruction	189
A. Re-establishing the Judicial System	191
1. Kosovo: From Emergency to Provisional Institutions	193
(a) The Applicable Law Dispute	193
(b) The 'Emergency Judicial System'	194
(c) Initial Training, Continuous Education and Practical Skills Training	196
2. Creating a Timorese Judiciary from Scratch	199
(a) 'What Law Applies in a Country That Does not yet Exist?'	199
(b) Emergency Measures	200
(c) Mentoring and Mandatory Judicial Training	202
3. Afghanistan: Reconstruction in a Complex Legal Environment	203
(a) Finding and Compiling the Applicable Law	204
(b) Institutional Reform and Physical Reconstruction	205
(c) Continuous Education	208
4. Limited Reforms in Iraq	211
(a) The Boundaries of Legal Reform under the Laws of Occupation	212
(b) Reorganising the Judiciary	213
(c) Building an Independent Judicial Capacity	215
B. Promoting and Introducing Respect for Human Rights	217
1. The Kosovo Ombudsperson	217
2. East Timor: Focusing on the Adoption of New Laws	220
3. The 'Afghan Independent Human Rights Commission'	221
4. Ensuring Effective Human Rights Implementation Iraq	223
C. Transitional Justice: How to Deal with Past Crimes?	225
1. Kosovo: International and Mixed Trials	227
2. UNTAET's Comprehensive Approach	229
3. Afghanistan and the Marginalization of Past Crimes	233
4. The Iraqi Special Tribunal	235
Chapter 11. Institution-building and Democratic Governance	239
A. From Interim to Elected Institutions	241
1. A Constitutional Framework for Kosovo	242
2. Consultation in East Timor	246
3. 'Relatively Fair' Elections in Afghanistan	250
4. Iraq: from Foreign Occupation to National Institutions	252

B. The Context of Elections: Freedom of Expression and Freedom of Association	254
1. Freedoms and Ethnic Sensitivities in Kosovo	255
2. Defamation Laws in East Timor	258
3. Afghanistan: Ensuring Implementation	260
4. Iraq: The Gap between Theory and Practice	261

PART IV

IMPROVING POST-CONFLICT ADMINISTRATION. A LEGAL FRAMEWORK FOR COMPREHENSIVE POST-CONFLICT RECONSTRUCTION

Chapter 12. Exit Strategies and Post-conflict Administration	269
A. Focussing on ‘Getting the Job Done Right Rather than on Getting Out’?	269
B. In Practice: Carefully Balancing Initial and Sustainable Success ...	271
Chapter 13. Internationalisation, Consultation and Local Ownership	275
A. Local Ownership: Aim or Method?	275
B. Internationalisation vs. Ownership: Internationalising the Judiciary	277
Chapter 14. International Administration, the Light Footprint and Beyond	283
A. UN Involvement, Planning and the Nature of the Transitional Authority	284
B. A Comprehensive Approach	288
C. An International Legal Framework for Post-conflict Reconstruction: Jus Post Bellum ?	289
Conclusion	295
The Legal Framework	296
A Comprehensive Approach towards Post-conflict Reconstruction ...	298
Ownership, Consultation and International Authority	300
Selected Literature	303
I. Books	303
II. Articles	308
III. Treaties	315
IV. Cases	317

A. Permanent Court of International Justice	317
B. International Court of Justice	317
C. European Court of Human Rights	317
D. Other	318
V. Official Documents and Publications	318
VI. Reports, Research Papers and Conference Papers	319
Index	325