

CONTENTS

	Page
PREFACE	iii
INTRODUCTION.....	v
CHAPTER I. INTERNATIONAL TRANSACTIONS IN SERVICES.....	1
A. Introduction.....	1
B. Services: the domestic dimension.....	1
1. The search for a definition	1
2. The growth of services	4
3. Services and economic development	5
C. International transactions in services	9
1. Definition	9
2. Trends in international transactions in services.....	10
(a) International trade in services	10
(b) Foreign-direct-investment-related services transactions.....	13
(c) Labour movements: additional comments	17
D. Liberalization of international transactions in services	20
CHAPTER II. EFFICIENCY, PRODUCTIVITY AND LIBERALIZATION: CONCEPTUAL ISSUES	35
A. Economic efficiency	35
B. Efficiency, market failure and the need for regulation in services.....	38
1. The economic case for regulation	38
(a) Natural monopoly	38
(b) Asymmetric information	40
2. Regulation: theory and practice	42
(a) "Public interest" versus "captured interest"	42
(b) Regulation and barriers to entry	42
(c) Competition between regulatory systems	44
C. Liberalization of international transactions in services: reconciling economic efficiency with development goals	44
1. Liberalization: services versus goods.....	45
2. Foreign service providers, economic efficiency and development: the limits to liberalization ...	45
(a) The infant industry or industrial policy argument.....	45
(b) Balance of payments	46
(c) The optimal tariff argument.....	47
(d) Imperfect competition	47
(e) Strategic trade	47
D. Liberalization and productivity.....	48
1. Linking productivity growth and liberalization	48

CONTENTS

Page

2.	The new growth theory.....	49
3.	Relevance for services	49
E.	Conclusions.....	50
CHAPTER III. LIBERALIZING INTERNATIONAL SERVICES TRANSACTIONS: SOME CONSIDERATIONS FOR POLICIES AND SEQUENCING		53
A.	Ranking instruments of protection	53
1.	Propositions from trade theory.....	53
2.	Relevance for international transactions in services	54
(a)	Classification of measures affecting international service transactions	54
(b)	Economic assessment	55
(c)	Implications for policy.....	55
(i)	Quantitative restrictions	57
(ii)	Regulatory barriers to foreign competition	57
B.	Partial liberalization and the selection of industries.....	58
C.	The sequencing of policy reform	59
D.	Conclusions.....	61
CHAPTER IV. POLICY INSTRUMENTS AFFECTING FOREIGN DIRECT INVESTMENT.....		63
A.	Introduction.....	63
B.	Classification of principal measures.....	64
C.	Instruments relating to market access.....	64
1.	Description	64
(a)	Total prohibition of foreign direct investment	64
(b)	Partial prohibition or limitations on certain types of investment	65
(c)	Restrictions on the geographic location of foreign service affiliates	66
(d)	Restrictions on the number of foreign firms	66
2.	Relevance to services	66
3.	Elements for policy assessment	66
4.	Experience	68
D.	Instruments relating to national treatment	70
1.	Limitations on the scope of business operations and access to local finance	70
(a)	Description.....	70
(b)	Relevance to services.....	71
(c)	Elements for policy assessment.....	71
(d)	Experience	71
2.	Performance requirements	72
(a)	Description.....	72
(b)	Relevance to services.....	73
(c)	Elements for policy assessment.....	73

CONTENTS

Page

(d) Experience	75
3. Investment incentives	75
(a) Description	75
(b) Relevance to services	76
(c) Elements for policy assessment	77
(d) Experience	77
4. Rules relating to external financial transfers	79
(a) Description	79
(b) Relevance to services	79
(c) Elements for policy assessment	80
(d) Experience	81
5. Tax measures	82
(a) Description	82
(i) General tax instruments	82
(ii) Tax treatment of foreign direct investment	82
(iii) Measures to eliminate or reduce double taxation	83
(b) Relevance to services	83
(c) Elements for policy assessment	83
(d) Experience	84
E. Other measures	85
1. Promotion of foreign direct investment in services	85
(a) Description	85
(b) Relevance to services	87
(c) Elements for policy assessment	87
(d) Experience	87
2. Protection of foreign investment in services	88
(a) Description	88
(b) Relevance to services	89
(c) Elements for policy assessment	89
(d) Experience	90
3. The general regulatory framework for services transactions	91
(a) Description	91
(b) Relevance to services	93
(i) Regulation of market entry and business behaviour including regulated monopolies	93
(ii) Competition policy	93
(c) Elements for policy assessment	93
(d) Experience	94
4. Intellectual property rights	95
(a) Description	95
(b) Relevance to services	96
(c) Elements for policy assessment	96
(d) Experience	97
F. Conclusions	97

CONTENTS

	Page
CHAPTER V. POLICY INSTRUMENTS AFFECTING LABOUR MOVEMENT	103
A. Introduction	103
B. Instruments relating to market access	103
1. Visas, residence permits and work permits	104
(a) Description	104
(i) Visas and residence permits	104
(ii) Work permits	105
(b) Relevance to services	105
(c) Elements for policy assessment	105
(d) Experience	106
2. Licensing requirements	108
(a) Description	108
(b) Relevance to services	108
(c) Elements for policy assessment	109
(d) Experience	109
C. Instruments relating to national treatment	111
1. Description	111
2. Relevance to services	112
3. Elements for policy assessment	112
4. Experience	112
D. Other measures	113
E. Conclusions	114
CHAPTER VI. POLICY INSTRUMENTS AFFECTING CROSS-BORDER TRADE	115
A. Introduction	115
B. Instruments relating to market access	115
1. Description	115
2. Relevance to services	116
3. Elements for policy assessment	117
4. Experience	117
C. Instruments relating to national treatment	119
1. Description	119
2. Relevance to services	119
3. Elements for policy assessment	120
4. Experience	120
D. Other measures	121
1. Government procurement and sourcing policies	121
(a) Description	121
(b) Relevance to services	121

CONTENTS

	Page
(c) Elements for policy assessment and experience	122
2. Discriminatory access to distribution networks	122
(a) Description	122
(b) Relevance to services	122
(c) Elements for policy assessment and experience	124
3. Intellectual property rights	125
(a) Description	125
(b) Experience	125
E. Conclusions	125
 CHAPTER VII. POLICY INSTRUMENTS AFFECTING THE MOVEMENT OF CONSUMERS	 129
A. Introduction	129
B. Instruments relating to market access	129
1. Description	129
(a) Measures implemented by the country of origin of a consumer	129
(b) Measures implemented by the destination country of a consumer	130
2. Relevance to services	131
3. Elements for policy assessment	132
4. Experience	132
C. Instruments relating to national treatment	133
1. Description	133
(a) Measures implemented by the country of origin of a consumer	133
(b) Measures implemented by the country of destination of a consumer	134
2. Relevance to services	134
3. Elements for policy assessment	135
4. Experience	135
D. Other measures	135
1. Description	135
2. Relevance to services	136
3. Elements for policy assessment	136
4. Experience	136
E. Conclusions	136
 CHAPTER VIII. INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION AND SERVICES	 139
A. Introduction	139
B. The General Agreement on Trade in Services	139
1. An overview	140
(a) General obligations	140

CONTENTS

	Page
(b) Specific commitments	143
(c) The annexes	144
2. Specific provisions relating to developing countries	144
3. General opportunities offered by the General Agreement on Trade in Services	146
(a) Access to imported inputs, know-how and networks	146
(b) Export opportunities	148
4. Relevance of the General Agreement on Trade in Services for national policy and liberalization efforts	149
C. Other options and opportunities for international cooperation	151
1. Preferential trading arrangements	151
(a) The European Community	151
(b) The Canada-United States Free Trade Agreement	152
(c) The North American Free Trade Agreement	152
(d) Australia-New Zealand Closer Economic Relations Trade Agreement	152
(e) Minilateral arrangements among developing countries	153
2. Implications of preferential arrangements for national policy	154
3. International agreements at the industry level	155
(a) International Civil Aviation Organization	155
(b) Basel Committee on Banking Regulations and Supervisory Practices	155
(c) International Telecommunications Union	155
(d) Lessons from the industry arrangements	156
D. Availability of technical and related assistance from existing institutions	156
1. Technical assistance	156
(a) International organizations	157
(b) International industry agreements/agencies	157
(c) Lomé IV	159
2. Programmes for the promotion of foreign direct investment	159
E. Conclusions	160
CHAPTER IX. POSTSCRIPT: IMPLEMENTING LIBERALIZATION OF INTERNATIONAL TRANSACTIONS IN SERVICES	165
A. Macro regulatory reform and the formation of a national consensus for the liberalization of services	165
B. Liberalization at the service industry level	167
APPENDIX A. Table A.1. Services industry classification list and representative shares for industrialized countries	169
APPENDIX B. Table B.1. Sectoral breakdown of gross domestic product for selected economies	173
Table B.2. Rates of growth of production for selected economies by sector	174
Table B.3. Composition of commercial services exports by selected economies, 1990 ...	175
Table B.4. Composition of commercial services imports by selected economies, 1990 ...	176

CONTENTS

	Page
UNITED NATIONS CONFERENCE ON TRADE AND DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME ON TRANSNATIONAL CORPORATIONS: SELECTED PUBLICATIONS ON SERVICES	177
WORLD BANK: SELECTED PUBLICATIONS ON SERVICES	179
QUESTIONNAIRE.....	181

List of boxes

I.1.	Services: major classification systems	2
I.2.	Alternative classification schemes for services	3
I.3.	Classifying international transactions in services	9
I.4.	Services in the balance of payments	10
I.5.	Liberalizing international transactions in services	25
I.6.	Benefits and costs of liberalizing international services transactions	27
II.1.	Allocative and technical efficiency	36
II.2.	The changing nature of the telecommunications industry	39
II.3.	Competition in rail transportation	41
II.4.	Asymmetric information and the regulation of health services	43
III.1.	The international construction industry	56
III.2.	Reform in the insurance market of the Republic of Korea	60
IV.1.	Measures affecting foreign direct investment in services	65
IV.2.	Joint ventures in services	68
IV.3.	Investment incentives: data-processing zones in the Caribbean	78
IV.4.	Taxing the tourism industry in developing countries	86
IV.5.	Protection of investment in services: the Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency and risk reduction	90
V.1.	Measures affecting movement of labour for international transactions in services	104
V.2.	Quotas for temporary labour-service imports: the case of Switzerland	106
V.3.	Professional licensing of engineers and architects in the North American Free Trade Agreement	110
V.4.	National treatment in organized temporary migration: the Lesotho-South Africa connection	113
VI.1.	Measures affecting crossborder trade in services	116
VI.2.	Barriers to telecommunications and cross-border information flows	123
VII.1.	Measures affecting movement of consumers of services	130
VIII.1.	The structure of the General Agreement on Trade in Services	140
VIII.2.	Mechanisms of liberalization in the General Agreement on Trade in Services (GATS)	141
VIII.3.	Format for country offers of specific liberalization commitments	147
VIII.4.	Project on the expansion of foreign direct investment and trade in services	158

Figure

I.1.	Average contribution to total value added by economic activity, 1988-1990	7
------	---	---

CONTENTS

Page

List of tables

I.1.	Percentage breakdown of gross domestic product by sector and by country group, 1965 and 1990	4
I.2.	Average annual rates of growth in output, by country group and sector, 1965-1980 and 1980-1990	5
I.3.	Percentage share of employment by sector and country/economy, 1950, 1965 and 1990	6
I.4.	Trade in merchandise and invisibles, 1970, 1980 and 1990	12
I.5.	Composition of world trade in commercial services, 1970, 1980 and 1990	13
I.6.	Participation of developed and developing countries in exports of merchandise and commercial services, 1970 and 1990	14
I.7.	Leading exporters and importers in world trade in commercial services, 1975, 1980 and 1990	15
I.8.	Sectoral composition of the stock of outward foreign direct investment by major home country and sector for developed and developing host countries	16
I.9.	Sectoral distribution of inward foreign-direct-investment stock for the largest developed and developing host economies, 1970-1990	17
I.10.	Composition of stock of foreign direct investment in services in selected host economies, latest available years	18
I.11.	Direction of labour-remittance flows, 1980-1990	19
I.12.	Liberalization efforts concerning international transactions in services, 1986-1991	21
I.13.	Service industry groups covered by country offers in the Uruguay Round negotiations as of November 1993	28
IV.1.	Incidence of performance requirements among United States foreign service affiliates, by industry, 1982	74
IV.2.	Investment incentives among United States foreign service affiliates, by industry, 1982	76
IV.3.	Distribution of bilateral investment treaties between OECD countries and developing regions and Central and Eastern Europe, by ten-year period	92
VIII.1.	General characteristics and the treatment of services in selected regional trade arrangements in developing countries	153