

Contents

Acknowledgements	page ix
Table of cases	x
Table of treaties	xii
List of abbreviations	xvi
 Introduction	 1
1. The general framework	4
I. The sources	5
A. Customary international law and treaty law	5
B. The principal treaties	9
II. The semantics	12
III. Inter-State armed conflicts	14
IV. Military necessity and humanitarian considerations	16
V. Humanitarian law and human rights	20
VI. Dissemination	25
2. Lawful combatancy	27
I. Combatants and civilians	27
II. Lawful and unlawful combatants	29
III. The entitlement to prisoners of war status under customary international law	33
IV. The legal position under Protocol I of 1977	44
V. A case study: the war in Afghanistan	47
VI. Mercenaries	50
VII. Armed merchant vessels	52
3. Prohibited weapons	55
I. Introduction	55
II. The principle prohibiting unnecessary suffering	57
III. Explicit prohibitions or restrictions of certain weapons	61
A. Conventional weapons	63
(a) Poison	63
(b) Certain projectiles	63
(c) Non-detectable fragments	64
(d) Booby-traps	65
(e) Landmines	66

(f) Naval mines	69
(g) Torpedoes	71
(h) Incendiaries	71
(i) Blinding laser weapons	72
B. Weapons of mass destruction	73
(a) Chemical weapons	73
(b) Biological weapons	76
IV. The status of nuclear weapons	77
V. Development of new weapons	80
4. Legitimate military objectives	82
I. The principle of distinction and military objectives	82
II. The definition of military objectives by nature, location, purpose and use	87
A. The nature of the objective	88
B. The purpose of the objective	89
C. The use of the objective	90
D. The location of the objective	91
E. Bridges	92
F. Military objectives exempt from attack	93
III. General problems relating to the scope of military objectives	94
IV. Defended and undefended localities in land warfare	99
V. Special problems relating to sea warfare	102
A. Areas of naval warfare	102
B. Enemy warships	102
C. Enemy merchant vessels	102
D. Neutral merchant vessels	103
E. Destruction of enemy merchant vessels after capture	104
F. Blockade	105
G. Exclusion zones	106
H. Bombardment of coastal areas	107
VI. Special problems relating to air warfare	108
A. Military aircraft	108
B. Civilian aircraft	109
C. Strategic and 'target area' bombing	110
5. Protection of civilians and civilian objects from attack	113
I. Definitions	113
II. Direct attacks against civilians	115
III. Indiscriminate attacks	116
IV. The principle of proportionality	119
V. Legitimate collateral damage	123
VI. Precautions in attack	125
VII. Cessation of protection and 'human shields'	129
VIII. Starvation of civilians	131
A. General	131
B. Siege warfare	133
C. Humanitarian assistance	137

6. Measures of special protection	141
I. Persons entitled to special protection	141
A. The different categories of beneficiaries	141
B. Cessation of protection	149
II. Cultural property and places of worship	152
A. Introduction	152
B. The legal position until 1954	153
(a) General protection	153
(b) Regional protection	155
C. The Cultural Property Convention of 1954	157
D. Protocol I of 1977	160
E. The war crimes provisions	163
F. The 1999 Second Protocol to the Hague Convention	164
III. Medical units	166
A. Medical units on land	166
B. Hospital ships	168
C. Medical aircraft	169
D. The cessation of protection	171
IV. Works and installations containing dangerous forces	172
7. Protection of the environment	176
I. Introduction	176
II. The international legal texts	177
A. The ENMOD Convention	177
B. Protocol I of 1977	181
C. Supplementary texts	185
(a) The Rome Statute	185
(b) Protocol III, annexed to the Weapons Convention	186
(c) The Chemical Weapons Convention	187
III. The dissimilarities between the ENMOD Convention and Protocol I	189
IV. A case study: setting fire to oil wells in the Gulf War	191
V. Conclusion	196
8. Other methods and means of warfare	198
I. Perfidy and ruses of war	198
A. The Hague Regulations of 1899/1907	198
B. Protocol I of 1977	200
(a) The relevant provisions	200
(b) Analysis: unlawful acts of perfidy	201
(c) Legitimate ruses of war	206
C. Other texts relating to perfidy and ruses of war	207
II. Espionage	208
A. The definition of espionage	208
B. The penal prosecution of spies	210
III. Seizure and destruction of enemy property	213
A. Pillage	214
B. Booty of war	215
C. Prize and contraband	215
D. Other destruction and seizure of enemy property	218

IV. Belligerent reprisals	220
A. The concept of belligerent reprisals	220
B. Prohibitions of specific belligerent reprisals	222
C. The taking of hostages	227
9. War crimes, command responsibility and defences	228
I. The definition of war crimes	228
II. The distinction between war criminals and unlawful combatants	233
III. Command responsibility	237
IV. Admissible and inadmissible defences	243
A. Admissible defences	244
(a) Mistake of fact	244
(b) Mistake of law	244
(c) Duress	245
(d) Insanity	248
(e) Intoxication	249
(f) Legitimate defence of oneself and others	249
B. Inadmissible defence pleas	250
(a) Obedience to national law	250
(b) Obedience to superior orders	250
(c) Official position and immunities	252
C. Mitigation of punishment	253
General conclusions	255
Index of persons	258
Index of subjects	263