

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

The Internationalization of Crime Control	3
The History and Study of International Crime Control	4
Narratives of International Crime Control	7
The Plan of the Book	13

ONE

Criminalization through Global Prohibitions	17
The Nature and Evolution of Global Prohibition Regimes	17
Piracy and Privateering	22
Slavery and the Slave Trade	27
Prostitution ("White Slavery")	33
International Drug Trafficking	37
Endangered Species	46
New and Emerging Global Prohibitions	51

TWO

European Origins of International Crime Control	59
The "High Police" and the "Low Police"	61
The Emergence of International Criminal Law Enforcement in Europe	64
The Development of Criminal Investigative Bodies	76
Multilateralism in European Policing	79
The Origins of Interpol	87
The Modern Era of European Police Cooperation	96

THREE

U.S. Origins of International Crime Control	105
The Beginnings of U.S. Involvement in International Crime Control	107
Policing Slavery	110
The Emergence of Federal Law Enforcement	111
Policing Borders	116
The Early International Law Enforcement Activities of City Police	120
The Early Years of U.S. Drug Enforcement Abroad	123
U.S. International Crime Control during the Cold War	124
The Expansion of U.S. Drug Enforcement Abroad	128
The FBI Abroad	132
The Activities of Other U.S. Law Enforcement Agencies Abroad	134
The Internationalization of Evidence Gathering	141
International Asset Forfeiture and Anti-Money Laundering Initiatives	147
The International Rendition of Fugitives	149
Continuity and Change in U.S. International Crime Control	154

FOUR

International Crime Control after the Cold War	157
From Cold War to Crime War: The Fusion of U.S. Policing and Security	157
The Buildup of U.S. Border Controls	165
Beyond the Border: The Expanding Global Reach of U.S. Law Enforcement	169
Policing an Integrating Europe after the Cold War	174
Shifting Security Concerns and the Making of “Schengenland”	177
Turning the EU’s Eastern Neighbors into Buffer Zones	182
Building EU Law Enforcement Institutions	185

FIVE

International Crime Control after September 11	189
Expanding U.S. Policing Powers in a New Security Context	191
From the U.S.-Led War on Drugs to the War on Terror	194
Hardening, Internationalizing, and Digitizing U.S. Border Controls	199

Contents

The Return of Counterterrorism to Center Stage in European Policing	210
The Growth of Transatlantic Law Enforcement Cooperation	217

SIX

Past, Present, and Future Trajectories	223
The Primacy of Criminalization	224
Homogenization and the Future of Global Prohibitions	226
Regularization and the Fate of International Police Cooperation	231
Securitization and Desecuritization	235
The Europeanization of International Crime Control	237
The Americanization of International Crime Control	241
State Power, Globalization, and Transnational Crime	245
Lessons and Implications	250

Notes	255
-------	-----

Index	319
-------	-----