

Lene Pedersen is Professor and Chair of the Department of Anthropology and Museum Studies at Central Washington University.

Lisa Cliggett is Professor and Chair of Anthropology at the University of Kentucky.

Welcome to this SAGE Handbook!

A SAGE Handbook is an essential critical guide to the major paradigms, histories, issues or debates for postgraduate students, academics, researchers and practitioners.

Each SAGE Handbook gives an overview of the discipline, a rich, critical assessment of past and present theory and also looks to the future.

A SAGE Handbook may include

- historical discussion of key theoretical paradigms
- new areas of research
- an examination of the relation between theory, research and practice

The contributors to SAGE Handbooks

- recognize changing social and political contexts of the discipline
- consolidate and develop theoretical frameworks
- discuss core substantive issues
- critically review emerging issues

For more about this SAGE Handbook, see inside.

 SAGE reference

Los Angeles | London | New Delhi | Singapore | Washington DC | Melbourne

www.sagepublishing.com

Cover image © GettyImages