

CONTENTS

About MOCOMILA: Fifty Years of Contributions to International Monetary Law Mario Giovanoli, Chairman of MOCOMILA	v
Biographies of the Contributors	xv
Tables of Cases	xxvii
Tables of Legislation	xxxvii

I. INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL ARCHITECTURE

1. A New Architecture for the Global Financial Market: Legal Aspects of International Financial Standard Setting	3
Mario Giovanoli, Prof, Chairman of MOCOMILA, General Counsel, BIS, Basel
2. International Jurisdiction over International Capital Flows and the Role of the IMF: Plus Ça Change . . .	61
Cynthia Crawford Lichtenstein, Prof, Boston College Law School
3. The Changing Roles of the Bretton Woods Institutions: Evolving Concepts of Conditionality	81
Andre Newburg, Counsel, Cleary, Gottlieb, Steen & Hamilton, London
4. The Prevention and Resolution of International Financial Crises: A Perspective from the International Monetary Fund	97
François Gianviti, Prof, General Counsel, IMF, Washington DC
5. Monetary Sovereignty Today	111
Tullio Treves, Prof, Università degli Studi, Milan

II. IMPACT OF THE EUROPEAN MONETARY UNION

A. TRANSITION TO THE EURO

6. European Monetary Law: The Transition to the Euro and the Scope of Lex Monetae	121
Bertold Wahlig, Bundesbankdirektor a D, Frankfurt a M
7. The New Monetary Law of the European Union	137
Jean-Victor Louis, Prof, European University Institute, Florence/Brussels
8. Legal Consequences of the Single Currency	161
Antonio Sáinz de Vicuña, General Counsel, European Central Bank, Frankfurt

9. First Experiences with the Euro in Germany	181
Bernhard Kempen, Prof Dr, Würzburg University
B. EXTERNAL RELATIONS OF THE EMU
10. European Union Exchange Rate Policy?	195
Hugo J Hahn, Prof, Würzburg University (Germany)
11. Representation of the EC in the IMF	211
Erik Denters, Dr, Vrije Universiteit, Amsterdam
12. The Exchange Rate Regime between 'Euroland' and Other European Countries (with a Postscript on Norway)	225
Per Christiansen, Prof Dr, PricewaterhouseCoopers, Oslo
III. CENTRAL BANKS, SUPERVISORY AUTHORITIES AND DEPOSIT INSURANCE
13. Central Bank Independence and Accountability in the Light of EMU	245
René Smits, Prof, General Counsel, De Nederlandsche Bank, Amsterdam
14. Central Bank Reform: The Reserve Bank of New Zealand	267
David E Flint, Prof, Chairman Australian Broadcasting Authority, Sydney
15. The Role of the Central Bank in a Crisis Environment: The Experience of Hong Kong and Taiwan, 1997-9	275
Yu Syue-Ming, Prof, National Taiwan University
16. International Harmonization of Regulatory and Supervisory Frameworks	291
Klaus Peter Follak, Dr, Württemberger Hypo, Stuttgart
17. Deposit Insurance Schemes: Reconciling Market Discipline with Financial Stability	323
Javier Arrigunaga Gómez del Campo, Director General Jurídico, Banco de Mexico
IV. IMPACT OF TECHNOLOGICAL DEVELOPMENTS
18. Core Legal Principles across Major Large-value Credit Transfer Systems	355
Thomas C Baxter Jr, Exec VP and General Counsel, Federal Reserve Bank of New York and Stephanie Heller, Counsel, Federal Reserve Bank, New York
19. Electronic Money: A North American Perspective	371
Bradley Crawford QC, McCarthy Tétrault, Barristers and Solicitors, Toronto and Barry Sookman Partner, McCarthy Tétrault, Toronto
20. Electronic Money in Japan	385
Hideki Kanda, Prof, University of Tokyo

V. INTERNATIONAL MONETARY OBLIGATIONS

21. Interference of Public Law in the Performance of International Monetary Obligations	395
William Blair QC, 3 Verulam Buildings, Gray's Inn, London
22. Foreign Currency Obligations in Domestic Law	413
Jacob Dolinger, Prof, Rio de Janeiro
23. The Scope of Lex Monetæ in International Transactions: A United States Perspective	433
Michael Gruson, Dr, Shearman & Sterling, New York/Frankfurt
24. Conflicts of Laws Issues of International Payments	457
Luca G Radicati di Brozolo, Prof, Chiomenti Studio Legale
25. The Governing Law in Legal Agreements Used by the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development in its Banking Operations	479
John L Taylor, Managing Director, Emerging Markets Partnership, London
26. Money and Arbitration	493
Dominique G Carreau, Prof, Shearman & Sterling, Paris
27. The Euro and the Future of Index Clauses	503
Franz Zehetner, Prof Dr, Technische Universität, Vienna
Index	517