

1. What Mama Said (3:23) 2. Psycho Sam (4:56) 3. Brush With The Blues (6:25) 4. Blast From The East (4:44) 5. Space For The Papa (7:42) 6. Angel (Footsteps) (6:30) 7. THX138 (6:15) 8. Hip-Notica (4:36) 9. Even Odds (3:26) 10. Declan (4:02) 11. Another Place (1:48) All songs written by Tony Hymas, except "What Mama Said" written by Jennifer Batten, Jeff Beck and Tony Hymas; "Brush With The Blues" and "Hip-Notica" written by Tony Hymas and Jeff Beck; "Even Odds" written by Jan Hammer; "Declan" written by Donal Lunny. All songs published by WB Music Corp. (ASCAP), except "Even Odds" published by Country & Eastern Music Inc. (ASCAP); "Declan" published by Donal Lunny Music (PRS)/SPZ Music Inc. (BMI) The album was arranged and produced by Tony Hymas and Jeff Beck and was mixed by Chris Sheldon at Townhouse Studios in London and was mastered by Bob Ludwig at Gateway Mastering in Portland, Maine. The musicians who played on the record with Jeff were Jennifer Batten (Guitar and Midi Guitar), Steve Alexander (Drums), Randy Hope-Taylor (Bass), Tony Hymas (Keyboards and Noises); on "Psycho Sam" Pino Palladino (Bass) and Manu Katche (Drums and Percussion); on "Declan" Clive Bell, Bob Loveday, Mark John and Simon Wallace played Ethnic Flutes, Violin, Acoustic Guitar and Synthesizers respectively. Jan Hammer played Keyboards and Drums on "Even Odds." Special thanks to Simon Brint for his production help on "Declan" and his editing on "What Mama Said." "What Mama Said" contains a dialogue sample taken from the United Artists film "IT'S A MAD, MAD, MAD, MAD WORLD." Courtesy of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Music Inc.