Contents

Notes on contributors – 5
Introduction – 7

PART 1 EXTENSIVE READING: THE THEORY – 9

1 Extensive Reading – the background · Richard Day – 10
What is Extensive Reading? – 10
Extensive Reading: The contribution of ER to language learning – 13
What materials should students read? – 16
How does an Extensive Reading Programme work? – 19

2 A series editor's view (1) · Jennifer Bassett – 22
What is a graded reader? – 22
What makes a good graded reader? – 25
What are graded readers for? – 29
The series editor's role – 31

PART 2 EXTENSIVE READING: THE PRACTICE – 33

3 Series editors' view (2) · Bill Bowler and Sue Parminter – 34
The 'grandfather' of modern graded readers – 34
What is a graded readers series? – 35
What are headwords? – 35
Is writing a graded reader an art or a science? – 36
Why we decided to follow the Bookworms grading system – 36
How important is good storytelling style in a graded reader? – 37
What does a series editor do? – 38
How can we support Extensive Reading? – 39

4 Class readers · Sue Parminter and Bill Bowler – 44
Using class readers – 44
Building motivation before reading – 48
Listening and reading – 50
Where is the reading actually done? – 51
Evaluating reading – 55

5 Libraries · Nick Bullard – 56
Why use a library? – 56
Class libraries or institution libraries? – 56
What a library does for your students – 56

Constructing a library – 57
Library organization – 59
Digital libraries – 61

6 Reading circles · Mark Furr – 63
What are reading circles? – 63
History of reading circles – 63
Second language reading circles: development – 65
L1 literature and L2 reading circles: differences – 65
Getting started with reading circles – 68

PART 3 EXTENSIVE READING: CASE STUDIES – 75

7 An Extensive Reading Programme in Jordan · Nina Prentice – 76
Background to the programme – 76
Why choose an Extensive Reading Programme? – 77
Setting up the Extensive Reading Programme – 78
The benefits of the Extensive Reading Programme – 82
Extensive Reading in practice – 83

8 The Extensive Reading Programme in Bahrain · Minas Mahmood – 86
The rationale for an Extensive Reading Programme – 86
Setting up the Extensive Reading Programme pilot – 87
Stakeholders' feedback – 88
Impact of the programme on students' language development – 90
The current status of the programme – 93
Factors contributing to the success of the programme – 93

9 Evolution of a high school Extensive Reading Programme · Daniel Stewart – 95
Background to the programme – 95
One school's experience – 95
Preparation for the Extensive Reading Programme – 95
The expanding programme – 102

10 A digital solution for Extensive Reading · Thomas Robb – 105
Obstacles to implementing an Extensive Reading Programme – 105
Solving the problem at KSU – 106

Glossary – 111
Useful websites – 112