

Contents

List of figures	vii
List of tables	viii
List of contributors	ix
1 Introduction	1
ERICH GRIESSLER AND LENKA SLEPIČKOVÁ
2 Emerging from standstill: Austria's transition from restrictive to intermediate ART policies	9
ERICH GRIESSLER AND FLORIAN WINKLER
3 Assisted reproduction in the Czech Republic	26
LENKA SLEPIČKOVÁ
4 Taming Technology: assisted Reproduction in Denmark	45
JANNE ROTHMAR HERRMANN
5 A Regulatory Jungle: the Law on Assisted Reproduction in Germany	66
SVEN GEYKEN
6 Assisted procreation in Italy: a long and winding road	91
INES CORTI
7 Avoiding ideological debate: assisted reproduction regulation in the Netherlands	115
HELEEN WEYERS AND NICOLLE ZEEGERS
8 IVF in Poland: from political debates to biomedical practices	137
ANNA KRAWCZAK AND MAGDALENA RADKOWSKA-WALKOWICZ

9	From safeguarding the best interest of the child to equal treatment: legislating assisted reproductive techniques in Sweden	160
	ANNA SINGER
10	Expectations regarding the convergence of domestic laws on ART	187
	HELEEN WEYERS
11	What drives the politicization of ART in Western and Northern European countries?	205
	NICOLLE ZEEGERS
12	Regulating change in human procreation: value changes and imaginaries of assisted reproductive technologies in eight European countries	223
	ERICH GRIESSLER
	Index	255