

CONTENTS

|                                                                |   |
|----------------------------------------------------------------|---|
| The Position of The Noetic in the Framework of Philosophy..... | 9 |
|----------------------------------------------------------------|---|

PART I.

THE NOETIC PROBLEM: EXPOSITION AND SOLUTION

CHAPTER I. METHODOLOGICAL COMPLICATIONS WITH THE POSSIBILITY OF THE NOETIC

|                                                                     |    |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| Article 1. The Special Nature of the Noetic .....            | 14 |
| 1.1. The object of the noetic – from pre-scientific experience..... | 14 |
| 1.2. Logical difficulties – from the nature of the noetic.....      | 16 |
| 1.3. Identity of object and tool – in the noetic and elsewhere..... | 17 |
| Article 2. Different Forms of Negation of the Noetic .....   | 20 |
| 2.1. A Brief View of Opponents.....                                 | 20 |
| 2.2. Logicians' Conventions Versus the Law of Self-reflection.....  | 21 |
| 2.3. The Dogmatism of Evidence Versus The Noetic.....               | 26 |
| 2.3.1. The Textbook Position.....                                   | 27 |
| 2.3.2. Gilson's Refusal of the Critical Problem.....                | 28 |
| 2.3.3. The Vindication and Exposition of Gilson's Approach.....     | 32 |
| 2.4. Psychologization of the Epistemological Theme.....             | 36 |

CHAPTER II. VERIFICATION OF THE OBJECTIVITY OF THOUGHT

|                                                                                   |    |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| Article 3. Methodological Measures Toward the Problem of Objectivity ..... | 40 |
| 3.1. The Argument For Descartes' Methodological Doubt.....                        | 41 |
| 3.2. Husserl's Transcendental Epoché.....                                         | 44 |
| 3.3. Methodological Crystallization.....                                          | 47 |
| Article 4. Eradication of Radical Scepticism .....                         | 49 |
| 4.1. The Sceptical Consequence of Noetic Fideism.....                             | 50 |
| 4.2. The Discrepancies of the Universal Sceptic.....                              | 52 |
| 4.2.1. Russell's Objection.....                                                   | 56 |
| 4.3. Proof of the First Noetic Thesis.....                                        | 59 |
| Article 5. Logical Completion .....                                        | 64 |
| 5.1. The Argument About The Principle of non-contradiction.....                   | 65 |

|                                                                      |    |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| 5.1.1. Hegel's Titanic Attempt.....                                  | 66 |
| 5.2. The Insufficiency of the Theory of the Three Basic Truths ..... | 72 |
| 5.3. The Problem of the Circularity .....                            | 75 |
| 5.3.1. Logical Circularity .....                                     | 76 |
| 5.3.2. The Limits of The Critical Imperative .....                   | 78 |
| 5.3.3. A Remark on Verification .....                                | 83 |

CHAPTER III. SUPPLEMENTARY TOPICS

|                                                                                        |           |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| Article 6. Corrections of Noetic Terms .....                                    | 86 |
| 6.1. Discussion With Heidegger on the Realisation of Truth.....                        | 86        |
| 6.2. Some Questions on Certainty .....                                                 | 88        |
| 6.3. Problems of The Criterion of Truth.....                                           | 90        |
| Article 7. Additional Notes on the First Part and Transition to the Second Part | 93 |
| 7.1. Solipsism .....                                                                   | 93        |
| 7.2. Methodological résumé .....                                                       | 95        |
| 7.2.1. Maritain's "critical" realism .....                                             | 97        |
| 7.3. Relation with post-Cartesian epistemologies .....                                 | 100       |
| 7.3.1. Universal obliteration of nominalism .....                                      | 101       |

PART II.

THE FAILURE OF POST-CARTESIANISM

|                                  |     |
|----------------------------------|-----|
| Introductory consideration ..... | 104 |
|----------------------------------|-----|

CHAPTER IV. THE FOUNDING FATHERS

|                                                             |            |
|-------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| Article 8. Descartes .....                           | 107 |
| 8.1. Universal doubt: Intention versus performance .....    | 107        |
| 8.2. The tendency towards subjectivization of thought ..... | 111        |
| 8.3. Overall estimation of Descartes' noetic .....          | 115        |
| Article 9. The Protagonists of Empiricism .....      | 117 |
| 9.1. The proton pseudus of Locke's model .....              | 118        |
| 9.1.1. Special critique of Locke's nominalism .....         | 121        |
| 9.2. Hume's smooth follow-up .....                          | 125        |
| 9.2.1. The end of metaphysics? .....                        | 127        |
| Article 10. Kant .....                               | 129 |
| 10.1. The methodological programming of apriorism .....     | 130        |

|                                                                        |     |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 10.2. The internal contradictions of apriorism .....                   | 134 |
| 10.3. An overall view of the nature of post-Cartesian philosophy ..... | 137 |

CHAPTER V. THE CONTEMPORARY CRISIS OF TRUTH

|                                                                      |            |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| Article 11. The noetic deficit of analytical philosophy ..... | 142 |
| 11.1. General evaluation of scientism .....                          | 143        |
| 11.1.1. Is metaphysics possible? .....                               | 146        |
| 11.1.2. The key noetic signature of the concept of science .....     | 148        |
| 11.2. Schlick, Wittgenstein, Carnap.....                             | 149        |
| 11.2.1. The philosophical absolutization of logic and language ..... | 150        |
| 11.2.2. Nominalistic sophists .....                                  | 152        |
| 11.2.3. The destruction of philosophy .....                          | 154        |
| Article 12. Husserl's Transcendentalism .....                 | 158 |
| 12.1. The Cartesian-Kantian paradigm .....                           | 159        |
| 12.2. Genetic defects .....                                          | 162        |
| 12.3. Recapitulation .....                                           | 165        |
| Article 13. Existentialism and Postmodernism .....            | 167 |
| 13.1. Existentialism in the light of the noetic .....                | 168        |
| 13.2. Wust's uncertainty in certainty .....                          | 170        |
| 13.2.1. The optimistic version of the personalists .....             | 173        |
| 13.3. Heidegger's principles of thought .....                        | 177        |
| 13.4. Postmodernism at rock bottom .....                             | 180        |
| 13.4.1. Welsch's Unsuccessful Apology .....                          | 184        |

FINAL REFLECTIONS

|                                                     |            |
|-----------------------------------------------------|------------|
| 1. Summary .....                                    | 190        |
| 2. Anticipated objections .....                     | 196        |
| 3. The Crisis of Truth in its Wider Relations ..... | 200        |
| Bibliography .....                           | 207 |