

CONTENTS

List of figures and tables	ix
List of contributors	x
Acknowledgements	xxi
Abbreviations	xxiii
 1 Responsibility in International Relations theory and practice: Introducing the handbook Hannes Hansen-Magnusson and Antje Vetterlein	 1
 PART I Theories of responsibility in International Relations	 29
 2 A plural theory of responsibility Ilan Zvi Baron	 31
 3 The emergence of responsibility as a global scheme of governance Tomer Shadmy	 43
 4 Human rights approach(es) to responsibility Brooke Ackerly	 58
 5 Political responsibility in a globalized but fractured age Richard Beardsworth	 71
 6 Moral irresponsibility in world politics Peter Sutch	 84

7	Rationalization, reticence, and the demands of global social and economic justice Mark Busser	96
8	Responsibility and authority in global governance Jelena Cupać and Michael Zürn	114
9	Responsibility and the English School Viktor Friedmann	125
PART II
	Mapping responsibility relations across policy fields	137
10	The assigning and erosion of responsibility for the global environment Steven Bernstein	139
11	Moral geographies of responsibility in the global agrifood system Tobias Gumbert and Doris Fuchs	153
12	State responsibilities and international nuclear politics Laura Considine and James Souter	164
13	Delegating moral responsibility in war: Lethal autonomous weapons systems and the responsibility gap Elke Schwarz	177
14	Negotiating protection through responsibility Erna Burai	192
15	From Lisbon to Sendai: Responsibilities in international disaster management Marco Krüger and Friedrich Gabel	203
PART III
	Responsibility relations: Subjects, objects and speakers of responsibility	217
16	Responsible diplomacy: Judgments, wider national interests and diplomatic peace Markus Kornprobst	219
17	Rising powers and responsibility Johannes Plagemann and Amrita Narlikar	231

Contents

18	Responsibility as an opportunity: China's water governance in the Mekong region Yung-Yung Chang	242
19	Responsibility as practice: Implications of UN Security Council responsabilization Holger Niemann	257
20	Rebel with a cause: Rebel responsibility in intrastate conflict situations Mitja Sienknecht	271
21	What responsibility for international organisations? The independent accountability mechanisms of the multilateral development banks Susan Park	288
22	The international labour organization's role to ensure decent work in a globalized economy: A contested responsibility? Julia Drubel	301
23	Business and responsibility for human rights in global governance David Jason Karp	318
24	Social media actors: Shared responsibility 3.0? Gabi Schlag	331
PART IV
	Global commons as responsibility objects	345
25	Responsibility on the high seas J. Samuel Barkin and Elizabeth R. DeSombre	347
26	The role of humanity's responsibility towards biodiversity: The BBNJ treaty Rachel Tiller, Elizabeth Nyman, Elizabeth Mendenhall and Elizabeth De Santo	358
27	A responsibility to freeze? The Arctic as a complex object of responsibility Mathias Albert and Sebastian Knecht	369

28	Shareholders, supervisors, and stakeholders: Practices of financial responsibility and their limits Michael C. Sardo and Erin Lockwood	380
29	Diplomacy and responsibilities in the transnational governance of the cyber domain Andrea Calderaro	394
PART V
	Critical reflections and theoretical debates	407
30	Framing responsibility research in International Relations Antje Wiener	409
31	Academic responsibility in the face of climate change Patrick Thaddeus Jackson	423
32	Responsibility as political beauty? Derrida's ethics of decision and the politics of responding to others Stephan Engelkamp	436
33	On potential and limits of the concept of responsibility as a reference point for the use of practical reason Sergio Dellavalle	449
	Index	464