BASIS AND LIMIT. THE COMMON VALUES:
AN UNCERTAIN BASIS AND AN IMPERFECT LIMIT
FOR THE PRINCIPLE OF MUTUAL TRUST

INTRODUCTION..... 229

TITLE I
THE COMMON VALUES: AN UNCERTAIN BASIS

INTRODUCTION..... 235

CHAPTER I – THE AXIOLOGICAL JUSTIFICATION OF MUTUAL TRUST

 IN THE DISCOURSE OF EU INSTITUTIONS 237

 INTRODUCTION..... 237

 SECTION I. – THE COMMON VALUES IN THE GENESIS OF THE DISCOURSE
 ON MUTUAL TRUST..... 238

 § 1. – The initial absence of an axiological justification
 for the principle of mutual trust 238

 § 2. – The emergence of an axiological justification in the discourse on mutual trust..... 239

 SECTION II – AT THE INTERSECTION OF COMMON VALUES AND COMMON INTERESTS: THE DIFFERENT INTERPRETATIONS OF THE PRINCIPLE
 OF MUTUAL TRUST IN INSTITUTIONAL DISCOURSE..... 243

 § 1. – The common values in the discourse of institutions:
 between facts and norms 243

 § 2. – The common values in institutional discourse: a necessary condition for mutual trust?..... 245

 § 3. – The different understandings of mutual trust and of the European Union in general..... 246

CHAPTER I – CONCLUSION 253

CHAPTER II – THE COMMON VALUES: A DISCURSIVE YET UTOPIAN POSTULATE
 OF THE EUROPEAN UNION 255

 INTRODUCTION..... 255

SECTION I. – THE COMMON VALUES IN THE DISCOURSE: A HISTORICAL AND LEGAL POSTULATE OF EUROPEAN INTEGRATION	257
§ 1. – From an historical perspective: the axiological messianism of the European Union.....	257
1. – The beginnings of European integration: a latent political messianism.....	257
2. – Arriving at a political union: the European Union meets its destiny	260
§ 2. – From a legal perspective: a basis of the European Union...	261
SECTION II – THE COMMON VALUES IN THE EUROPEAN UNION IN PRACTICE: A NEBULOUS AND CHIMERICAL POSTULATE	264
§ 1. – The common values in the European Union: a nebulous ideal	264
1. – The common values in the European Union: an elusive ideal	265
I. The values relating to the respect for fundamental rights, freedom, equality and human dignity.....	266
II. The rights of persons belonging to minorities	270
III. Respect for the rule of law and the democratic principle	271
2. – Mitigating the nebulousness of the EU's founding values...	278
I. The increasing codification of fundamental rights	279
II. Clarification of the requirements related to democratic principles and the rule of law.....	282
§ 2. – The common values in the European Union: a fading utopia	287
1. – The limits of the instituting capacity of Article 2 TEU	288
2. – The existence of systemic breaches of the founding values in certain Member States.....	291
§ 3. – Signs of “abusive constitutionalism” which benefits from the indeterminacy of the founding values.....	296
SECTION III – THE COMMON VALUES IN THE EU: A LEGAL IMPERATIVE WITH A WEAK NORMATIVE GUARANTEE.....	301
§ 1. – The weakness of the political mechanisms established in the EU's legal order for monitoring the Member States' respect for the common values.....	303
1. – Ex-ante political monitoring of candidate States' respect for the common values	303

2. – Ex-post political monitoring of Member States' respect for the common values	307
I. Article 7 TEU	308

III. The “constructive dialogue” opened by the Council.....	312
IV. The annual EU Justice Scoreboard.....	313
V. The European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights....	314
VI. Safeguard clauses in the accession treaties since 2004 and the cooperation and verification mechanism implemented in respect of Romania and Bulgaria	316
VII. The rule of law report	319
VIII. The conditionality regulation	320
§ 2. – The rise of jurisdictional axiological litigation	322
1. – The invocability of the common values.....	322
I. The autonomous invocability of Article 2 TEU	324
I.I. The invocability of Article 2 TEU.....	324
I.I.I. The invocability of Article 2 TEU before the Court of Justice.....	324
I.I.II. Before national courts.....	327
a) The potential for exclusionary invocability of Article 2 TEU	328
b) The obligation of consistent interpretation.....	331
I. II. The transversal scope of Article 2 TEU	331
II. The complementary invocability of Article 2 TEU	334
2. – The emergence of axiological litigation before the Court of Justice	336
CHAPTER II – CONCLUSION.....	344
TITLE I – CONCLUSION	347

TITLE II

THE COMMON VALUES: AN IMPERFECT LIMIT

INTRODUCTION.....	351
CHAPTER I – EXCEPTIONS IN THE TEXT.....	353
SECTION I. – INTERNAL MARKET LAW	353

SECTION II – LAW ON JUDICIAL COOPERATION IN CIVIL MATTERS	356
§ 1. – Instruments underpinned by mutual trust with an “open” system of restrictions.....	357
§ 2. – Instruments underpinned by mutual trust with a “closed” restrictions system	359
SECTION III – LAW ON POLICE AND JUDICIAL COOPERATION IN CRIMINAL MATTERS	362
§ 1. – Instruments underpinned by mutual trust with a “closed” restrictions system	363
§ 2. – Instruments underpinned by mutual trust with an “open” restrictions system	364
SECTION IV – THE COMMON EUROPEAN ASYLUM SYSTEM	365
§ 1. – Protocol No. 24 on asylum for nationals of EU Member States	366
1. – The exception relating to the decision to derogate from the European Convention on Human Rights.....	368
2. – The exception relating to the initiation and/or completion of one of the procedures referred to in Article 7 TEU	369
3. – The exception relating to a unilateral decision by a Member State to examine an asylum application addressed to it by a European citizen.....	370
§ 2. – The “Dublin” system.....	371
CHAPTER I – CONCLUSION	374
CHAPTER II – NON-TEXTUAL EXCEPTIONS.....	377
SECTION I. – “EXCEPTIONAL CIRCUMSTANCES” REQUIRING NON-TEXTUAL EXCEPTIONS TO MUTUAL TRUST	378
§ 1. – Internal market law	378
§ 2. – The Common European Asylum System.....	379
§ 3. – The law on police and judicial cooperation in criminal matters	384
(1) Exceptions to mutual trust relating to detention conditions.....	385
(2) Exceptions to mutual trust relating to the right to a fair trial.....	386
§ 4. – Law on judicial cooperation in civil matters.....	389

SECTION II – THE CONCEPT OF “EXCEPTIONAL CIRCUMSTANCES”: A PROPOSAL FOR DOCTRINAL RECONSTRUCTION	391
§ 1. – The absolute protection of non-derogable fundamental rights and of the essence of fundamental rights.....	391
§ 2. – The systemic deficiencies test	395
CHAPTER II – CONCLUSION.....	396
CHAPTER III – EXCEPTIONS TO MUTUAL TRUST: ASSESSMENT.....	397
SECTION I. – PRACTICAL DIFFICULTIES	397
SECTION II – THEORETICAL WEAKNESSES.....	399
§ 1. – The rebound of the principle of mutual trust: the risk of “endogenous” conflict resulting from the erosion of the founding values.....	401
§ 2. – The principle of mutual trust at the intersection of European legal orders: the risk of “exogenous” conflict resulting from a breach of the European Convention on Human Rights	404
1. – National measures to implement EU law and the European Convention on Human Rights.....	406
I. The lack of immunity of national measures implementing EU law.....	406
II. The easing of control under the Convention: the “Bosphorus” presumption.....	407
2. – The principle of mutual trust in the case law of the European Court of Human Rights.....	410
I. Monitoring the implementation of the principle of mutual trust without application of the presumption of equivalent protection.....	410
II. Monitoring the implementation of the principle of mutual trust with the application of the presumption of equivalent protection.....	416
3. – The principle of mutual trust and conventional requirements: an accessible harmony	420
I. From a substantive point of view: the compatibility in principle of lighter standards justified by the needs of international cooperation	421
II. From a procedural perspective: the compatibility of a marginal and concrete review provided that it is not theoretical and illusory	423

III. The principle of mutual trust: supporting positive obligations to protect fundamental rights 424

PART II – CONCLUSION 429

PART III

PURPOSE AND OPTIMISATION. THE PRINCIPLE OF MUTUAL TRUST: AN ESSENTIAL BUT PERFECTIBLE PRINCIPLE OF GOVERNANCE

TITLE I

THE PURPOSE OF GOVERNANCE BASED ON THE PRINCIPLE OF MUTUAL TRUST

INTRODUCTION..... 437

CHAPTER I – THE PRINCIPLE OF MUTUAL TRUST: AN ESSENTIAL PRINCIPLE AT THE INTERSECTION OF UNITY, DIVERSITY AND EQUALITY 439

INTRODUCTION..... 439

SECTION I. – THE UNITY IMPERATIVE: THE CREATION OF AN AREA WITHOUT BORDERS AND THE MEANS TO ACHIEVE IT..... 440

§ 1. – The objective of creating a European area without borders 440

§ 2. – Methods of achieving unity 444

SECTION II – THE DIVERSITY IMPERATIVE: MAINTAINING STATE STRUCTURES AND THE INDISSOLUBLE NORMATIVE AND ADMINISTRATIVE AUTONOMY OF THE MEMBER STATES..... 445

SECTION III – THE EQUALITY IMPERATIVE: THE PRINCIPLE OF EQUALITY BETWEEN MEMBER STATES 448

SECTION IV – THE PRINCIPLE OF MUTUAL TRUST: AN INESCAPABLE PRINCIPLE OF GOVERNANCE..... 450

CHAPTER II – THE PRINCIPLE OF MUTUAL TRUST: AN INSTRUMENT FOR DECOMPARTMENTALISING NATIONAL LEGAL ORDERS	455
SECTION I. – THE CONCEPT OF TERRITORIAL JURISDICTION IN INTERNATIONAL LAW	456
§ 1. – The concepts of prescriptive and enforcement jurisdiction in international law.....	457
§ 2. – Extraterritoriality and the principles of international law governing it.....	458
§ 3. – The different types of extraterritoriality	461
1. – Implementation of the norm outside the territory of the State that issued it: direct or mediated extraterritoriality.....	461
2. – The status of the norm outside the territory of the State that issued it: unaltered or altered extraterritoriality.....	462
SECTION II – DETERRITORIALISATION RESULTING FROM THE PRINCIPLE OF MUTUAL TRUST	463
§ 1. – The unbundling of jurisdiction and territory through governance based on the principle of mutual trust.....	463
§ 2. – The different types of decompartmentalisation	467
1. – The deterritorialisation of Member States’ prescriptive jurisdiction	467
I. Mutual trust and extraterritoriality of legislative prescriptive jurisdiction.....	467
II. Mutual trust and extraterritoriality of judicial prescriptive jurisdiction.....	470
III. Mutual trust and extraterritoriality of administrative prescriptive jurisdiction.....	474
2. – The deterritorialisation of Member States’ enforcement jurisdiction.	475
I. Mutual trust and judicial enforcement jurisdiction	476
II. Mutual trust and administrative enforcement.....	478

PROPOSAL FOR A NEW TRUST-BASED MODE OF GOVERNANCE: FROM A POSTULATE TO A METHOD FOR MANAGING ASSUMED AND REGULATED RISKS

INTRODUCTION.....	487
CHAPTER I – RISK ANALYSIS IN THE HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES.....	489
SECTION I. – RISK.....	490
SECTION II – RISK ANALYSIS.....	493
§ 1. – Defining the risk.....	494
1. – Defining the resource at risk	494
2. – Defining the probability of the risk occurring.....	495
3. – Defining uncertainty	496
4. – Defining guarantees that reduce the severity of the risk or the probability of its occurrence	496
§ 2. – Assessing the desirability of taking the risk.....	497
§ 3. – Decision-making in the face of risk.....	497
CHAPTER I – CONCLUSION	498
CHAPTER II – MUTUAL TRUST-BASED GOVERNANCE THROUGH THE LENS OF RISK ANALYSIS	501
SECTION I. – GOVERNANCE BASED ON THE PRINCIPLE OF MUTUAL TRUST: A RISKY MODEL.....	501
§ 1. – The risk implied by the principle of mutual trust due to the uncontrolled transfer of a legal solution from one legal order to another.....	502
§ 2. – Application of the definition of risk	504
SECTION II – RISK ANALYSIS IN THE CONTEXT OF THE APPLICATION OF THE PRINCIPLE OF MUTUAL TRUST.....	506
§ 1. – Defining the risk.....	506
1. – Assessment of the resource at risk and of the potential harm of its occurrence.....	506
2. – Assessing the likelihood of the risk occurring	510

3. – Assessing uncertainty	512
4. – Assessing the potential guarantees provided by the national and/or EU legal order for reducing the severity of the risk or the probability of its occurrence	513
§ 2. – Assessing the risk against the opportunity of applying the principle of mutual trust	515
§ 3. – Decision-making in the face of risk.....	519
CHAPTER II – CONCLUSION.....	521
CHAPTER III – FROM POSTULATE TO METHOD : THEORISING NEW STEPS FOR AN APPLICATION OF THE PRINCIPLE OF MUTUAL TRUST THAT RESPECTS THE COMMON VALUES
SECTION I. – THE METHOD FOR APPLYING THE PRINCIPLE OF MUTUAL TRUST IN ITS GENERAL AND ABSTRACT ASPECT.....	524
§ 1. – The procedure to follow in the event of exposure of a secondary value or of non-essential elements of the founding values.....	525
§ 2. – The procedure to follow in the event of exposure of an essential element of a founding value	526
SECTION II – THE METHOD FOR APPLYING THE PRINCIPLE OF MUTUAL TRUST IN ITS INDIVIDUAL AND CONCRETE ASPECT.....	528
§ 1. – The procedure to follow in the event of exposure of a secondary value or a non-essential element of a founding value	529
§ 2. – The procedure to follow in the event of the exposure of an essential element of a founding value	530
1. – Exposure of an essential element of a founding value where there is remediable uncertainty: from procedural to substantive control.....	533
2. – Exposure of an essential element of a founding value where there is irremediable uncertainty	534
SECTION III – TESTING THE METHOD	537
§ 1. – Exposure of a secondary value: the “ Hedley Lomas ” scenario.....	537
§ 2. – Exposure of an essential element of a founding value: the “ LM ” scenario	538
SECTION IV – REFLECTION ON SOME TECHNIQUES FOR MANAGING RISKS THREATENING THE FOUNDING VALUES.....	540

§ 1. – Tools for the abstract management of risk	540
1. – The distinction between the concept of trust, confidence and trustworthiness.....	540
2. – Minimum harmonisation of the substantive requirements arising from the founding values.....	542
3. – The “proceduralisation” of mutual trust.....	544
4. – The establishment of solidarity mechanisms between Member States	552
5. – Training and networking of actors on the ground	555
6. – Comparison of good practices in each area of application of the mutual trust principle	557
§ 2. – Concrete risk management tools	558
1. – The exchange of information.....	559
2. – The system of assurances	561
