

List of Figures	xiii
Editors	xvi
List of Contributors	xvii
Acknowledgments	xxvii

Introduction	1
Eugenia Paulicelli, Veronica Manlow, and Elizabeth Wissinger

PART I
Fashion theories and histories	7
1 Worlds with no fashion? The birth of eurocentrism	11
Giorgio Riello
2 Aesthetics of fashion	23
Giovanni Matteucci
3 If philosophy were a fashion show: what then?	31
Nickolas Pappas
4 Contemporary avant-garde fashion	41
Charlene K. Lau
5 Economic theories of fashion	49
Yoko Katagiri
6 A posthuman turn in fashion	57
Anneke Smelik

PART II

Fashion practices: from the museum to the workplace and beyond	65
7 Affect, haptics, and heterotopia in fashion curation Karen Van Godtsenhoven	69
8 The future generation of fashion: how higher education contextualizes sustainability as a key design tool Alana M. James	83
9 Reflecting on the future of fashion design education: new education models and emerging topics in fashion design Paola Bertola and Chiara Colombi	90
10 Abstract pattern cutting as a design tool: Accidental Cutting and Subtraction Cutting methodologies Eva Iszoro Zak and Julian Roberts	99
11 Changing the world not just our wardrobes: a sensibility for sustainable clothing, care, and quiet activism Fiona Hackney, Katie Hill, Clare Saunders, and Joanie Willett	111
12 Fashion and technology: hand and machine in (high-end) fashion design Barbara Faedda	122
13 Crafting care through childhood: education, play, and sustainable ethical fashion Melinda Byam	129
14 From ideation to inclusion: investigation in contemporary childrenswear in the Global North Aude Le Guennec	137

PART III

Fashion, body, and identity	147
15 Bullying and barren fashion: an affective perspective on the psychopolitics of dress Otto von Busch	151
16 Prosthetic aura: thinking about scent in fashion Debra Riley Parr	159

17	Tailoring the impenetrable body all over again: digitality, muscle and the men's suit Diego Semerene	167
18	The garment that unifies and differentiates: anthropological approaches and regulatory settings Chrysoula Kapartziani, Spyros Koulocheris, and Myrsini Pichou	175
19	College students' fashion activism in the age of Trump Charles J. Thompson	184
20	Fashion in the trenches: how the military shapes the fashion industry Mattia Roveri	193
21	Violence and fragmentation within interwar fashion and femininity Lucy Moyse Ferreira	201
PART IV
Fashion and place		213
22	Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie as fashion icon: addressing nationalism and feminism with style Floriana Bernardi and Enrica Picarelli	215
23	Transformation of the "Made In ..." label: Countries as brands and the hidden global relations of production Emilia Barna and Emese Dobos-Nagy	223
24	The Italian look, or the democratization of fashion Emanuela Scarpellini	232
25	Hybrid fashion patterns: the construction of a contemporary Brazilian fashion image Şakir Özüdoğru	239
26	Globalized identities in the fashion trade Lynda Dematteo	247
27	The labor of fashion, transnational organizing, and the global COVID-19 pandemic Nafisa Tanjeem	259

28	From rag trade to thrifting: the cultural economy of secondhand clothing Dicky Yangzom	269
PART V
	Fashion and print media: literature and magazines	281
29	Fashion etiquette and fashion ethics: rules and values in Italian turn-of-the-century etiquette books Annick Paternoster	283
30	Fashion and the English novel Royce Mahawatte	292
31	“Selling Themselves Piecemeal”: The Economics of Beauty and Power in Four Representative Texts Adele Kudish	301
32	Fashion in Literature Based on Margaret Thatcher’s The Autobiography (1995) Katarzyna Kociołek	309
33	Lovers, legends, and looms: Persian narrative poetry depicted on figural silks in the early modern period Nazanin Hedayat Munroe	318
34	The morality of the middlebrow: fashion in American and Canadian mass-market women’s magazines of the 1920s Rachael Alexander	328
35	Fashion consumption and public discourse: mechanisms of sales obstruction Natalia Berger and Skylla Blake	338
PART VI
	Fashion and film	349
36	Fashion in cinema: reframing the field Marketa Uhlirova	351
37	From stardom to celebrity culture and beyond: fashion, costume, cinema, and change Pamela Church Gibson	362

38	The master narrative: authorship, fame, and failure in the designer fashion film Nick Rees-Roberts	371
39	Fashion and gender in superhero comics and films Jonathan S. Marion and James Scanlan	382
40	Sartorial politics from street to screen: female leaders in India and bollywood design Deepsikha Chatterjee	391
PART VII
Branding, media, and television		401
41	Mediatization of fashion: an approach from the perspective of digital media logic Marta Torregrosa Puig, Javier Serrano-Puche, and Cristina Sánchez-Blanco	403
42	From bag to “It Bag”: a case study of consecration in the field of fashion Jana Melkumova-Reynolds	412
43	Industrialized inspiration: reassessing the osmosis between fashion and art through the work of trend forecasters Marco Pedroni	421
44	Audience for fashion: digital touch points, brand circulation, and the new consumer experience Romana Andò	428
45	Media convergence, fashion, and TV series Antonella Mascio	437
46	Branding daily life: fashion influencers as market actors in the social media economy Arturo Arriagada	446
PART VIII
The future of fashion and its challenges		455
47	The future of luxury fashion: insights from industry experts Veronica Manlow	457

48	Fashion's future in biodesign Elizabeth Wissinger	469
49	Fashion and race: translating cultures in Dapper Dan and Gucci Eugenia Paulicelli	475
	Index	488