

Contents

To the learner 1

Stories

Themes

The star by Alasdair Gray	3	Escape from routine – Loneliness The rich world of the imagination
Strange animal an African story re-told by Alexander McCall Smith	9	Tolerance of others – The magic of music Family relationships
Hannah by Malachi Whitaker	15	Youthful anticipation – Social conventions Unexpected turns in life – Regrets
Report on the shadow industry by Peter Carey	21	Reality and illusion – Escapism The search for happiness
Verbal transcription – 6 a.m. by William Carlos Williams	33	Everyday concerns in crisis situations Behaviour in emergencies
The debutante by Leonora Carrington	38	Cruelty beneath civilised behaviour Reality and dream
Important things by Barbara L. Greenberg	47	Parents and children What is important in life?
Secrets by Tim Winton	52	A child's vision of the adult world Family breakdown and the need for love
Dazzler by Suniti Namjoshi	60	Introverts and extroverts Different ways of solving problems
Misunderstood an anonymous story	65	Animals and humans The importance of communication
Shell songs A letter from the Laird's wife by George Mackay Brown	73	Rich and poor Intuition versus the intellect People and nature

The authors of the stories 83

Notes on the stories 85

Key 92

Tapescripts 94

To the teacher 97

Bibliography 101