

Contents

|                                              |   |
|----------------------------------------------|---|
| Introduction .....                           | 1 |
| 1. Key Positions in the Debate .....         | 2 |
| 2. The Nexus of Normative Disagreement ..... | 6 |

PART 1

ESTABLISHING THE PGC AS A SUPREME MORAL PRINCIPLE

|                                                |    |
|------------------------------------------------|----|
| 1. The PGC as a Supreme Moral Principle.....   | 13 |
| 1. Introduction.....                           | 13 |
| 2. The Dialectical Necessity of Morality.....  | 15 |
| 3. Philosophical Criticisms of the PGC.....    | 26 |
| 4. Conclusion.....                             | 40 |
| 2. The PGC in Raz's Hierarchy of Reasons ..... | 41 |
| 1. Introduction.....                           | 41 |
| 2. Raz on the Nature of Reasons .....          | 43 |
| 3. Resolving Conflicts between Reasons.....    | 57 |
| 4. Conclusion.....                             | 69 |

PART 2

ESTABLISHING PERMISSIBILITY WITH REFERENCE TO THE PGC AS A NECESSARY CONDITION OF A RULE'S LEGAL VALIDITY

|                                                          |     |
|----------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 3. Agency, Morality and Law .....                        | 73  |
| 1. Introduction.....                                     | 73  |
| 2. The PGC and Legal Norms .....                         | 74  |
| 3. The Operation of the PGC within a Legal System.....   | 90  |
| 4. Conclusion.....                                       | 99  |
| 4. Raz and Legitimate Legal Authority.....               | 100 |
| 1. Introduction.....                                     | 100 |
| 2. Raz, Legal Authority and the Contingency Thesis ..... | 100 |
| 3. Authority to Make Law and the Sources Thesis.....     | 108 |
| 4. Systemic Functionality .....                          | 117 |
| 5. Obligations to Obey the Law.....                      | 120 |
| 6. Conclusion.....                                       | 123 |

|                                                          |                |
|----------------------------------------------------------|----------------|
| 5. Contemporary Inclusive Positivism.....                | 125            |
| 1. Introduction.....                                     | 125            |
| 2. David Lyons and Formalism .....                       | 125            |
| 3. Incorporationism and Jules Coleman.....               | 130            |
| 4. The Moderate Incorporationism of Matthew Kramer ..... | 145            |
| 5. Conclusion.....                                       | 156            |
| Conclusion .....                                     | 158        |
| Bibliography .....                            | 164 |
| Index .....                                       | 169     |